Commiſſioners' Office,
Waſhington, Jan. 26, 1802

ORDERED, By the Board that the following Proclamation be publiſhed thrice a week for three weeks ſucceſſively, in the City and George-Town newſpapers.

THOMAS MUNROE,
Clk. Com.

BY THE PRESIDENT,
OF THE
UNITED STATES.

Whereas by the firſt article of the terms and conditions declared by the Preſident of the United States on the 17th October 1791, for regulating the materials, manner of buildings, and improvements on the lots in the City of Waſhington, it is provided, That the outer and party walls of all houſes in the ſaid City, ſhall be built of brick or ſtone; and by the third article of the ſame terms and conditions, it is declared that the wall of no houſe ſhall be higher than forty feet to the roof in any part of the city, nor ſhall any be lower than thirty-five feet on any of the Avenues: And whereas the above recited articles were found to impede the ſettlement in the city, of mechanics and others whoſe circumſtances did not admit of erecting houſes authoriſed by the ſaid regulations, for which cauſe the operation of the ſaid articles has been ſuſpended by ſeveral acts of the Preſidents of the United States from the 5th day of June 1796, to the 1ſt January 1802, and the beneficial effects ariſing from ſuch ſuſpenſions having been experienced; it is deemed proper to revive the ſame with the exception hereafter mentioned—Wherefore, I, THOMAS JEFFERSON, Preſident of the United States, Do declare that the firſt and third articles above recited ſhall be, and the ſame are, hereby ſuſpended until the firſt day of January 1803, and that all houſes which ſhall be erected in the ſaid City of Waſhington previous to the ſaid 1ſt day of January 1803, conformable in other reſpects to the regulations aforeſaid, ſhall be conſidered as lawfully erected; except that no wooden houſe covering more than three hundred and twenty ſquare feet, or higher than twelve feet from the ſill to the eve, ſhall be erected, nor ſhall ſuch houſe be placed within twenty-four feet of any brick or ſtone houſe.

Given under my hand this twenty-third day of January, in the year 1802.

TH: JEFFERSON.

FOR SALE.

THE ſubſcriber is authoriſed to ſell a tract of land containing four hundred acres, lying in Prince George county, on Oxen Run, adjoining the diſtrict of Columbia, and about two miles from the City of Waſhington, with a good road to that part of the Eaſtern Branch over which a bridge is to be built.—This land is healthy and abounds with ſprings of excellent water.

There are between twenty and thirty acres of meadow ground, with a fine ſtream through it, which may be prepared for timothy at a ſmall expenſe, and at leaſt two hundred acres in wood and timber. The wood itſelf will more than pay for the land. The cleared land, except a ſmall part indeed, is of an excellent quality, and has on it a large tobacco houſe, and ſeveral houſes ſuitable for the accommodation of labourers. This land has on it ſome elegant ſituations for country ſeats, commanding a view of the river and the city. If this land be not ſold at private ſale, before the 10th day of March next (and if it be, timely notice will be given) it will on that day, if fair, if not, the firſt fair day thereafter be ſold to the higheſt bidder on the premiſes. The greater part of the purchaſe money will be required down; a credit of three months will be given on the balance, the purchaſer ſecuring the punctual payment of the balance at the expiration of that time. Perſons diſpoſed to make a private purchaſe, may know the terms by application to Wm. Cooke, of Baltimore Town, of Mr. James F. Leiſch of Mancheſter, Virginia, Mr. John Addiſon at Greenborough, near the City of Waſhington, or to the ſubſcriber in the city of Waſhington.

Mr. SPRIGG,

THE owner of LEBOO, was not deſirous, after the races at the City, to run againſt Mr. Tayloe's horſe LEVIATHAN, he would have thought it ungenerous to have made ſuch a propoſition. But as Mr. Tayloe has declared in the public prints that "he can be accommodated for his own ſum, not being leſs than 1500 dollars." Mr. Sprigg will run with him over the City Courſe, on the 13th day of May next, for 2,000 dollars, the four mile heats, agreeably to the rules of racing. As major Foreman, the owner of Ranger, wiſhes an opportunity of contending with Leboo and Leviathan, he can never have a better one than at the ſame time and place; but if that ſhould not be convenient, Mr. Sprigg will run Leboo againſt Ranger on the firſt Monday in June, over the Goven's Tow, Courſe, the four mile heats, for 3,000 dollars or for any ſum between that and 1000, as major Foreman may think proper.

To Oſborne Sprigg, Eſq.

SIR,

YOUR publication of the 12th inſt. has juſt come to hand; if I am not miſtaken, my invitation informed you that Ranger was engaged to run his laſt race, on the 25th day of May next, over the Huſting Park Courſe—I cannot with convenience to my feelings, break this engagement, or forfeit my bets—Preſuming that you do not wiſh an advantage, and that you are willing to run Le Boo againſt Ranger upon equal terms, I now propoſe, Ranger ſhall, on the 18th day of May next, run Le Boo over the Havre de Grace courſe, the 4 mile heats, carrying weight according to the rules of the Annapolis jockey club, for 3000 dollars, each play or pay.

I live 44 miles from Havre de Grace, and the Suſquehannah to croſs, you have perhaps 20 or 30 miles further to travel your horſe, without the riſque of a water paſſage.

This is as near as I can contrive meeting you half way, over the beſt turf in America, carrying your own weight, running your own diſtance, and ſtaking your own ſum.

I name the 10th of February next to ſign the race articles, and if any thing ſhould prevent my reaching the city on that day, Mr Tayloe is empowered to ſign my name for me.

I am, ſir,
Your obedient humble ſervant,
T. M. FORMAN.
