TRENTON, April 28.

On Thursday last was brought to this place the famous MAMMOTH OX, bred by John Humphries of Hopewell, in this county. This extraordinary animal surpasses, in size, any of the same species ever raised in America, or perhaps in the world. He is now 7 years old and was purchased for the sum of 300 dollars. His measurement is as follows: Height, 18 hands 1 inch and 3 4ths; length, 18 feet 2 inches and a half; circumference, near the fore shoulders, 14 feet, and from his shoulders to the bottom of the dew lap, he measures 5 feet and 7 inches.

CARLISLE, April 29.

On the night of the 22d inst. and morning of the 23d inst. there fell, at this place, snow about 12 inches in depth, which is considerable deeper than any we had last winter, and much deeper than any ever fell in the middle of April, at this period of the year; it disappeared in a short time, and the weather, after three days rain, having cleared up without frost, the fruit, we believe, has not been injured to any considerable damage, however, has been down through the country by the creeks filled to an unusual height and carrying off fences, &c.

PHILADELPHIA, May 8.

Yesterday the sentence of the Mayor's Court was delivered in the case of the Commonwealth against Dennis Rourke, John Melloch, Edward Shoemaker, John Coxe, Abraham Singer, Wm. Lewis, and John Morrell for a Riot; and as similar to the Fabrication of the Aurora——The Court adjudged the origin and cause of the aggression, and summed up the evidence, generally, interspersed with a great variety of animadversions—and concluded with fining the persons indicted in the sums respectively as follow—Owen Foulke, Abraham Singer and Edward Shoemaker, one hundred and twenty dollars each, costs of suit; John Melloch and John Coxe, ninety dollars each, and costs of suit; and William Lewis and John Morrell, one cent each, and costs of suit, and each severally to be committed until the terms of the sentence were complied with. As it occur with in this case to give the whole of this transaction in as impartial a manner as possible, we have postponed the detail of the trial until the report of the evidence shall be completed and authenticated in the shortest minute way—remarks of course will not appear before the detail.
