OFFICIAL.

Extract of a letter from the American Consul at Cowes, dated 11th September 1800, to the SECRETARY of STATE.

"Confiderable trouble, lofs of time and expenfe has arifen to American fhips laden with tobacco, coming to anchor out of the limits of this port, contrary to the exprefs tenor of the tobacco act. An inftance of this happened only laft week in the cafe of the American brig Stillman, with tobacco, coming to anchor off Portfmouth, where fhe was feized in her way to London. I fubmit to you, whether it will not be proper to make known through the United States, that all fhips, laden in whole or in part with tobacco, intending to ftop at a port in the channel, fhould, after paffing Falmouth, proceed to the port of Cowes, being the only other tobacco port in the channel, and not come to anchor until their arrival in Cowes Road, excepting through unavoidable neceffity, which it will be incumbent on the mafter to make out, if called on. The commiffioners of the cuftoms have hitherto, on reprefentation, liberated fuch fhips as have been feized in my diftrict, but the act being exprefsly contravened by fuch conduct, the law may be enforced, and lofs of fhip and goods be the confequence."

The Frigates Prefident, Philadelphia, and Effex are ordered to rendezvous in Hampton roads by the 20th inftant. We underftand that they will then proceed on a cruife to the Mediterranean; and not, as has been ftated in feveral prints, proceed with convoys to the Weft Indies.

The United States floop of war Portfmouth is ordered to be difmantled of her war-like ftores at Norfolk, and from thence fhe is ordered to proceed to Baltimore, where fhe will be fold at public fale, of which due notice will be given.

The five firft named are republican, the two laft federal.

On the arrival of JOHN LANGDON in Portfmouth, he was received with the livelieft emotions of joy. A large body of refpectable citizens met him at Greenland, the bells rang, and he entered the town under a federal falute of artillery.

Mr. BEERS, lately appointed attorney of the United States for the diftrict of Albany, declined that appointment immediately on his being officially advifed of it.

The Chevalier De Frere, formerly ambaffador from Portugal to the United States, is appointed Prime Minifter of the Court of Lifbon.

The Mail from Huntingdon to Philadelphia has been robbed, and a large fum in bank notes taken out.—Among the notes were two of 500 dollars, and feveral of fmaller denomination.

The fecond report from the committee of the houfe of commons propofes, that 12,000l. be given as premiums among proprietors and occupiers of land, for the greateft number of acres cultivated with potatoes, on ground which had not been ufed as potatoe or hop ground or yielded any arable crop during the laft feven years; that 13,000l. be given, in England and Wales, and 3,000l. in Scotland, to the cottagers, for the greateft quantity of potatoes raifed on ground in their own poffeffion; and that 3000l. be granted to the board of agriculture, for the purpofe of granting honorary premiums to fuch owners or occupiers of land, as fhall, this year, allot the greateft quantities of land among cottagers, to be planted with potatoes, in portions of not more than three fourths nor lefs than one-fourth of a rod.

A general report of the committee at Lloyd's Coffee-houfe, for the relief of the induftrious poor in the cities of London and Weftminfter, &c. has been juft publifhed. From thence it appears, that 148,000 perfons were relieved laft year, one-third of whom muft otherwife have funk into extreme indigence, or fallen a burden upon their refpective parifhes.—The whole expence was borne by the fubfcriptions of about twenty corporate and public bodies, and from 10,000 to 11,000 benevolent individuals, among whom the quakers are eminently confpicuous.

On the 21ft of February, in the Britifh Houfe of Commons, Mr. Wilberforce Bird ftated, in his remarks on a petition from the inhabitants of Fofhill, near Coventry, complaining of the increafe of poor-rates, that in the town which was compofed of 641 houfes, only 86 were then inhabited! the paupers amounted to 1300 perfons—and that unlefs relief was granted the parifh would be deftroyed.

The petition from Leeds, in favor of peace was to be delivered to Mr. Wilberforce this morning, to be prefented by him to his Majefty. It attributes the prefent fcarcity and diftreffed ftate of their manufactures to the ruinous war, and is figned by upwards of twenty thousand perfons, among whom are the moft confiderable merchants, manufacturers, mill-owers, &c. of the place; and we underftand that fimilar petitions will fhortly be prefented from moft of the manufacturing towns in the neighbourhood. BOSTON, April 3.

LATEST NEWS.

Laft evening arrived, fhip Packet, Trott, from Liverpool, and brought London papers to March 4—The following is a very hafty fummary of the intelligence they contain:

The former information of the protecting bounties on American flour is confirmed, with the addition, that on flour cleared out from America after the 25th March, the protecting prices are to be reduced to 68s. fine; 70s. fuperfine, per bbl. of 196 lbs. and are to continue fo on all flour that may arrive in England before the 1ft of October next.

We do not find that Mr. Pitt had left his office at the lateft date.

Under the Paris head it is mentioned, that Spain had declared war againft Portugal.

NEW-YORK, April 7.

Capt. Thurfton, who arrived here yefterday in 21 days from Curracoa, informs, that the day before he failed, the Englifh had detained all Danifh and Swedifh veffels in that port, which veffels were all hauled up at Lagoon, the place where the Englifh men of war were ftationed. There were in port eleven Danifh and one Swedifh veffel.

April 3.

By the fch'r Heroine, Captain Brown, in 17 days from St. Croix, we learn, that, juft before he failed, three Danifh fhips, three fchooners and a floop were cut out of that harbour by the Britifh; and that there were, when the Heroine failed, three Englifh floops of war cruizing off that port, on board of which were a number of troops; and it was hourly expected they would befiege the place.

LONDON, March 2.

Important intelligence was yefterday received in town from America. The oppofition of the Senate to the treaty concluded between the United States and the French Republic, has not been confined to the two articles, which, as we have already feen, have received the difapprobation of that political body. A great number of members wifhed to add to it, two articles, by the firft of which it was ftipulated that the United States fhould not be bound to any thing contrary to any other exifting Treaty between them and any other power; and, by the fecond, that the treaty in difcuffion fhould not, as the article agreed upon at Paris ftipulates, be unlimited in its duration, but fhould continue for two years after a general peace. The firft of thefe articles was that which was moft effential to our interefts in this affair, and the adoption of it would have been fufficient to defeat the political cunning which had manifefted itfelf in the conclufion of the treaty of Paris. The termination of the debate was, however, ftill more favourable to this country. The treaty was approved by a majority of 16 againft 14; but this has been its death blow, the Conftitution requires to its ratification a majority of two thirds of the voters, and as this was not the cafe in the prefent inftance, the treaty is rendered null and void.

This event muft be confidered as matter for general congratulation, and particularly fo in the circumftances in which we now ftand. As Mr. Pitt predicted, whatever may happen, one nation will remain firm in her neutrality, whofe principal means of exiftence is commerce, who will be the active agent of that of England, and will circulate the produce of our induftry among thofe very people, who, though they reject it, cannot do without it.
