visited Albany last week; and we are informed have concluded a treaty with this state, by which they cede their title to all the lands reserved along the Niagara river from Buffaloe's Creek to Stedman's farm, including Black Rock. This is doubtless a great acquisition to this state, as well as to the United States, not only on account of the value of the lands, but also as it secures the carrying-places at the Niagara Falls, and the most advantageous situation for establishing a military post to guard that important pass.

Another object of these chiefs in visiting our seat of government, we are informed, was to intercede for one of their friends, an Indian, who it is alleged has unfortunately killed a white man, and which has produced some agitation in that quarter.—These Indians state, that five instances have happened since the peace where Indians of their nation have been inhumanly murdered by the white people, and that in no instance have the perpetrators been punished for these crimes, and that this is the first instance on their part. This fact is undoubtedly true. They say they have been assiduous in cautioning their young warriors to guard against evil of this kind, and they should therefore think it cruel if their brother should suffer death for this act, especially as it is said to have been done unintentionally, under the influence of intoxication and passion. They wished if possible that he might be admitted to bail until trial, stating that imprisonment to an Indian is worse than death. They considered this as a reasonable request, and which they had been induced to believe might be granted consistent with our laws. This however could not be done. They have certainly acted with great candour and magnanimity in delivering up the accused, who is a near relation of one of the principal chiefs, and belongs to one of the first families in the nation.

Although these chiefs could not obtain the full object of their wishes in the present instance, we are told they have returned to their nation perfectly satisfied with the treatment which they have received from our executive, and with the assurance he gave them that their unfortunate brother would be treated with every degree of lenity and humanity which the mildness of our laws admit.

"The Board of Longitude," states the French astronomer Lalande, "at its meeting of the 23d inst. adjudged the premium of 6000 francs, which was proposed for the best lunar tables. M. Brog, an astronomer at Vienna, has succeeded, by combining from three to four thousand observations, in forming tables which do not differ ten seconds from an actual observation. This is the greatest aid with which astronomy can furnish navigation, and nothing more is wanting for finding the longitude at sea with the utmost accuracy. The notary tables which I published in 1793, for finding the hour at sea, renders this part of the calculation so easy, that it may be executed by the most inexperienced navigator."

By the information presented to the British House of commons respecting the island of Trinidad it appears that 400 allotments of land had been appropriated under the Spanish government, and that there remains at the disposal of the British government the vast tract of 2790 divisions of land of 320 acres each, or 870,400 acres in all. It likewise appears that the white inhabitants, at the time it was taken, were, 2151; free people of color 4476; slaves 10,009; and Indians 1082.

A late London paper mentions, that the National Institute of France, in its general sittings of the 24th May, elected as a foreign associate, for the class of mathematical and physical sciences, Dr. Priestly.

For the class of moral and political sciences, Mr. Niebuhr, the celebrated traveller.

For the class of Literature and the fine arts, M. Klopstock, author of the Messiah.

The Institute has also appointed citizen Larive, associate for the section of declamation and music, in the class of literature and the fine arts; and citizen Pictet for that of physic, in the class of mathematical sciences.

LONDON, July 1.

It is not a little curious, that in the last official paper of the French, M. Otto is announced, not as minister plenipotentiary to the United States, but as minister to the President of the United States. This alteration in the diplomatic style of the French, may be considered as a prelude to the nomination of foreign ministers to the First Consul, instead of the French Republic.

MUNICH, June 12.

Fanaticism in its fury against the salutary reforms of our Elector, has lately been the occasion of a bloody scene. A procession, conducted by the Ex Jesuit Schmidt, was returning from a pilgrimage without the town, when some journeymen, women, and other persons of the lower class, who formed part of the procession committed various irregularities by ringing the bells, &c. contrary to the express orders of the police, and of those even who were at the head of the procession. The Inspector of the Police, having attempted to put a stop to this tumultuous scene, was maltreated, and a workman threw a stone at the officer of the Guard. This man was cut down with sabres, and a combat took place, in which the bearer of the cross made use of that sacred sign to strike those who opposed his march, crying out, "It is for the cause of religion." Next day the journeymen made an agreement among themselves not to work until all the festivals and processions, abolished by Government in concert with the Holy See, should be re-established. They assembled in bands of 50 or 100 persons, and paraded the streets. The Elector, accompanied by only one domestic, rode through the city on horseback, and exhorted the elderly people to retire peaceably, and to persuade the rest to do the same; but this exhortation was attended only with a momentary success. The Prince then ordered the garrison out under arms, wanted these fanatic bands to be surrounded and to be conducted to the riding-house, at the entrance to which he ordered cannon, loaded with grape shot, to be planted. Next day those who promised to return to their duty were set at liberty; but the chiefs were detained, that they might be punished according to their desert. The citizens made a collection for the soldiers, who had been most instrumental in restoring order, and expressed their satisfaction to the Elector on account of his conduct. While the populace of this country are thus signalizing their fanaticism, a part of the regular Clergy are already following the impulse of the progress of knowledge; and the Prelate and Conventuals of Saint Wit, have themselves requested that their Convent may be dissolved, and that they may be transferred to the secular Clergy. "We observed," say they in their address to the Elector, "that Monachal institutions are not suited to the enlightened genius of the present century; and we are persuaded that we shall be more useful in other functions."

MILAN, June 14.

The Courier of Milan announces this day that the king of Sardinia has abdicated his crown in favor of his son the duke of Aosta. This abdication is said to have taken place on the 4th, in the presence of M. de Chalamberg, secretary of state for Sardinia, and the princes Dona and Colonna, and other members of the court. The duke of Aosta has secured a pension to his father, who will retain the title of king, but retire from the tumult of business.

STOCKHOLM, June 4.

Their majesties arrived here from their journey to Schonen, the day before yesterday in the evening, and immediately went to their palace of pleasure at Haga. The state councils commence to-morrow and will be continued both forenoon and afternoon, as their majesties intend, on the 9th of this month, to set out on their journey to Finland. The French ambassador extraordinary, Citizen Bourgoing, has published an advertisement in our papers, inviting all French subjects residing here, to appear at his house, and inscribe their answer to the question, "Whether Napoleon Bonaparte shall be consul for life?" in a register opened for that purpose.

HAMBURGH, June 14.

The Imperial Russian Counsellor of state, and physician, Von Boecler, has inoculated Prince Paul Frederic, son of his serene highness the hereditary prince of Mecklinburg Schwerin, with the cow pox. The result has been favorable.—The supreme college of physic and health at Berlin, have now also declared themselves in favor of the inoculation of the vaccine, and published a circular letter, in which they recommend in the strongest manner the general introduction of it, adducing the reasons and results on which their recommendation is founded.

Aix-la-Chapelle, June 17.

Of the citizens of the department of Roer, consisting of 89,099; 85,050 have voted in the affirmative, on the question, whether Bonaparte shall be Consul for life?

Private letters from Paris state, that the 14th of July, the Anniversary of the French revolution, is fixed for the inauguration of the First Consul for life. The preparations for the ceremony are conducted upon a scale of uncommon magnificence.

A Valuable Farm for Sale,
In King George County & State of Virginia.

THIS Farm contains five hundred and thirty-five acres—about three hundred and fifty of which are cleared and divided into three fields with good inclosures;—it is situated on Potomac river, and bounded on the South East side for a mile and half by Rozier's creek, which affords a great abundance of fine fish and wild fowl, crabs, oysters, &c.—thirty miles from Fredericksburg, forty four from Alexandria, and fifty from Washington City.

On this land are very extensive shell banks, exclusive of the advantages to be derived from these banks by the lime business, they are very favourable to the production of corn and wheat, and the soil inexhaustable; there are about sixty or seventy acres of this kind of land, and the balance that is cleared of an excellent quality, and a great number of springs of fine water; it can with certainty be classed among the most healthy situations below the falls of Potomac—indeed, the natural advantages attending this place are innumerable.

The improvements are a two story framed dwelling house, sixty-four feet long, commanding a beautiful view of the creek and river; one other house intended for an office, twenty-six feet by eighteen with three rooms and a cellar in good repair; a large house, including a stable for eight horses, a corn-house, carriage house, saddle and harness room, and a commodious granary above, and other convenient buildings on the Farm—a small orchard of well chosen apples and peach-trees—The yard and garden inclosed this spring, with pales and railing—The whole plantation in good repair, and the land in a great state of improvement.

The terms of Sale will be made known by Mr. Frances Whiting, who in a short time will be a resident of Berkley county, or by the subscriber on the premises.

New Invention.

The IMPROVED SAW-MILL, for which the subscriber has obtained a Patent.

THIS improvement saves the sawyer much labour, and the work is also much more expeditious. The log being slabbed, turned down, and the saw started, the whole operation proceeds without further manual aid; for, the instant the cut is finished, the log moves back, and at the same time is guaged to the utmost exactness by the machine, ready for another cut in two thirds of a minute. The saw resumes its action in the log, and thus moves in alternate succession until the whole be cut up in any given dimensions, at which time the mill shuts up if required, or at any number of cuts for which the sawyer prepares, for his attendance is unnecessary.

Any person or persons inclining to purchase the privilege of erecting this valuable and simple machine, or of adding the improvement, which may readily be affixed to any Saw Mill already in use, will please to apply to the subscriber at West Brandywine Bridge, on the Philadelphia and Lancaster turnpike road, Pennsylvania; or by application to Dr. Thornton, City of Washington, who is em— complete operating model may be seen which saws in the most exact manner, and performs all the various movements of a large saw mill. He will also furnish the drawings and description.

In consequence of numerous applications from persons whose saw mills are not in constant operation, and to render the benefit more extensive, I have thought it proper to reduce the price of the privilege to eighty dollars; and I will return twenty dollars to every person who has already purchased the improvement at one hundred, that no distinction may be made. The improvement may cost about twenty dollars. The castings may be had already executed, at the City of Washington, at prime cost.

Valuable property for Sale,

On Monday the 23d day of August next,

WILL be sold at public sale at Mr. Semmes's tavern, Georgetown, A mill, Millseat and 41 1 2 acres of land adjoining, lying on Rock Creek, and within a mile and an half of Georgetown and the City of Washington; and at the same time and place will be offered for sale, 500 acres of valuable land, lying about 7 miles from Georgetown, on the Frederick road; there are on the premises, two tenements with the necessary buildings in tolerable repair, a number of bearing fruit trees, 10 or 12 acres of meadow, and fifty more may be made at a small expence, there is a sufficiency of timber and wood for the use of the plantation.

And on Wednesday the 25th at the house of Benjamin Ray, on the premises 560 acres of land, about 16 miles from Georgetown, and 4 miles from Montgomery court house; there are several fine orchards on this tract. It will be sold together or in lots, as shall be found most advisable.

And on Monday the 30th, at the house of Barton Brown, on the premises, 850 acres of rich limestone land, of the first quality, lying in Washington county, on the Potomack river, about 3 miles above Williamsport, and binding on the river upwards of two miles. This land is immensely heavily timbered, a great proportion remains in wood, the clear land is fresh and highly productive; this land is laid off into 5 lots, with a house on each lot, which answer for temporary accommodations. Mr. Brown, who lives on the premises, will shew the lines of the different lots. The whole of the above property will be sold on a credit of one, two, and three years with interest. And at the same time and place, the sale to continue from day to day till all is sold—about thirty valuable negroes, men, women and children, work horses, cattle and hogs, plantation utensils, and the crop on the ground, on a credit of twelve months, bonds on interest, with approved security will be required of the purchasers. Any person desirous of purchasing the above property, or any part thereof at private sale, will please to apply to Col. Francis Deakins, or Philip B. Key, Esq. Georgetown, or the Subscriber.

District of Virginia,

RICHMOND, Supervisor's Office, June, 30, 1802.

IT being believed that considerable portions of lands in the back counties of the state of Virginia, on which the Direct Tax of the United States remains unpaid, are owned by persons residing out of the state; and the same having been advertised, in pursuance of the act of Congress of the 16th of March last, emendatory of the act entitled "An act to lay and collect a Direct Tax within the United States," as may be seen by the notification of the Supervisor of the 2d of June inst. and running in the Examiner of Richmond, that being the paper in which the laws of the state are printed, to be sold for the tax and costs, in all cases where the same shall not be paid within six months from the date of the notification agreeably to the 2d section of the said amendatory act; it is recommended to all who own lands in the said state, whereon they do not know the tax to have been paid, to take measures for having the transcripts which have been lodged at the Supervisor's Office a Richmond, as directed by the said last-mentioned act, examined, in order to the ascertaining & paying such tax where due. And as, in some instances, lands have been assessed in the names of persons heretofore owning, but who have alienated them, it is further recommended that, upon sending to examine the transcripts, all names known to have been at any time connected as owner or owners with any tract or tracts in question, be sent forward, the better to guide the examination. The sales will take place generally in the month of December next, on dates which may be seen in the notification referred to above. This short sketch of the business is published in some of the papers of other states as a means of more certainly calling the attention of persons concerned, to the subject.
