TO THE PUBLIC.

THE Subscribers, Trustees of the Aggregate fund created by James Greenleaf, Edward Fox, Robert Morris, and John Nicholson, do hereby announce to the Public, that they have revoked, annulled and determined all Letters of Attorney at any time heretofore executed by them to Joshua B. Bond of the City of Philadelphia, merchant, and in particular two letters of attorney, one dated the 9th day of February, A. D. 1801, and the other dated the 10th day of February A. D. 1801, empowering the said Joshua B. Bond to settle and adjust the claims of the subscribers on the state of Georgia and individuals, arising from purchases of land made by the said James Greenleaf—The said Joshua B. Bond being no longer authorised to act for the subscribers on any subject whatsoever.

OPINION.

We have perused, and attentively considered,

1st. A copy of an agreement made on the 9th Feb. 1801, between Henry Pratt, Thomas W. Francis, John Miller, jun. John Ashley, and Jacob Baker, Trustees of the Aggregate Fund, &c. and Joshua B. Bond.

2. A copy of a letter from Henry Pratt and others, to J. B. Bond, dated 10th Feb. 1801, in explanation of the foregoing.

3. A copy of a power of attorney from Henry Pratt and others to J. B. Bond, dated 9th February, 1801.

A copy of a power of attorney from Henry Pratt and others, to J. B. Bond, dated 10th Feb. 1801.

4. A letter from J. B. Bond to Henry Pratt and others, dated 9th June, 1802.

5. A copy of a Power of attorney from J. B. Bond, to Benjamin Hichborn and William Hull, dated 3d of May, 1802.

6. A copy of articles of agreement between J. B. Bond and Benjamin Hitchborn, and William Hull, dated 3d of May, 1802.

7. A letter from J. B. Bond to John Miller, jun. inclosing No. 5, dated July 10, 1802.

8. A letter from J. B. Bond to John Miller, jun. inclosing No. 6, dated 17th July, 1802. From all which we are decidedly of opinion that J. B. Bond had not on the 17th July last made a sale to Messieurs Hichborn and Hull of the lands mentioned in the Power from H. Pratt and others to him. The Power of Attorney of the 3d of May, 1802, from J. B. Bond to Messrs. Hichborn and Hull respected land which the state of Georgia granted to James Gunn and others, and which J. B. Bond then possessed by a regular title from them. It could on no legal construction extend to lands he did not possess by regular title, and regarding which he had only a power of attorney from the rightful owners, authorizing him to dispose of them revocable in its essence and nature, which power he did not recite, or even most distantly allude to.

But supposing J. B. Bond and Messrs. Hichborn and Hull to have intended, that the power should have extended to the lands mentioned in the power from Pratt and others to J. B. Bond, there is not in the articles of agreement between J. B. Bond and Hichborn and Hull of the 3d of May, 1802, or in any other of the documents produced any thing, that can in the most strained construction be deemed a sale.

Those articles after reciting the powers from J. B. Bond to Messrs. Hichborn and Hull;—that J. B. Bond did so authorize and empower them, to the end that the said Hichborn and Hull should sell and dispose of the said 3,500,000 acres of land, &c. state an agreement between Bond and Hichborn and Hull, not that J. B. Bond had sold to Hichborn and Hull, but that Hichborn and Hull should, with all convenient speed use their best exertion to sell and dispose of the said land, "and when the same is disposed of," there follows an agreement how the purchase money should be appropriated; J. B. Bond covenanting that he will, when thereunto required, produce all the title deeds, &c. "and that he will make, "do and execute, or cause to be done and "executed, all acts, deeds conveyances and "assurances in the law for the absolutely and "effectually conveying and assigning the said "lands in as full and ample a manner as the "same have been conveyed by the state of "Georgia to James Gunn and others, and "lastly the said J. B. Bond doth covenant "promise and agree that as well the said "letter of attorney as these presents shall be "irrevocable and of full force and effect for "eighteen months from the day of the date "hereof." Hence it is clear beyond all possibility of doubt, that at the execution of this instrument, on the 3d of May, 1802 J. B. Bond had not sold to Hichborn and Hull, that they were only authorized to sell, and that J. B. Bond intended their authority should be irrevocable for 18 months, which last (his own authority being liable to revocation at any time) was as against Pratt and others utterly void. We are also most clearly of opinion, that Joshua B. Bond as attorney to H. Pratt and others, was bound to give them the fullest information of every thing done or step taken by him in his agency, whenever by them required.

Philadelphia, Jan. 25th 1803.

Edw'd. Tilghman,
W. Lewis.

THE substance of the above opinion was communicated to us in November by Mr. Tilghman Mr. Lewis not having been then applied to; by Mr. Tilghman's advice and direction we wrote to J. B. Bond on the 27th Nov. the following letter which was delivered to him shortly after its date. "Your counsel "for whom we entertain a very high respect "have said." "We are of opinion upon the "statements and exhibition of paper made by "Mr. Bond that he had full authority to "make a sale, and that he hath made an absolute sale," being confident that the same "counsel would, under the communication "made by you to us, have been of opinion "that you had not made a sale, we call upon "you to lay before us a full and compleat "statement of every thing you have transacted by virtue of our powers of attorney "to you of the 9th and 10th February, "1801. We expect to receive from you the "statement required on or before Saturday the 4th day of December ensuing."

From Mr. Bond we received no answer till the 24th December—by one of his Counsel we had been assured that an answer should be given in the course of the then next week, the note from that gentleman was not dated, and the time of receiving it was not marked. On the 24th December, T. W. Francis received a letter from J. B. Bond, without date, being that before mentioned, in which he says, "In answer to your letter of the 27th ult. I "have to say that you are already in possession "of the substance of the agreement made with "Messrs Hichborn and Hull, under the contract I made with you, and the power of "attorney I received from you." On the same 24th December, at 3 o'clock, P. M. we received a letter from Mr. Hull, dated 22d December, Philadelphia, (not specifying in what street or house) in which he mentioned that he had called on J. B. Bond for "Titles to certain lands, &c. agreeably to a "contract and power of attorney, both of "which were made on the 3d of May, "1802, between Mr. Bond, on the one part, "and Mr. Hichborn and myself on the other "part."

Being very desirous to see gen. Hull, we made diligent enquiry for him on the afternoon and evening of the 24th without success, on the 25th we found he had left town early in the morning of that day. We most solemnly declare we know nothing of any sale or contract respecting these lands other than the agreement of the 3d May, 1802, we have information of none other, we verily believe that no other exists—As to it, we confidently rely on the opinions we have published, and will with the greatest cheerfulness submit them or the documents, independently of Mr. Bond's information to the respectable gentlemen whose opinions Mr. Bond has published.

As Mr. Bond in his letter of the 9th of June, 1802, said "I have already informed you "verbally that under your power of attorney "of the 3d of May last, I concluded a contract with colonel Hichborn and gen. Hull "of Boston, for the sale of 2,500,000 acres "more or less, part of the large tract conveyed by the State of Georgia to Gunn and others, by them to James Greenleaf, and "now the property of the Aggregate Fund, "&c." Whereby we were induced to think there had been an actual sale, and as by his letters of the 10th and 17th July last, and a variety of other circumstances, it plainly appeared to us that we had been misinformed by Mr. Bond, and that no sale had been made, we deemed it our duty to revoke his powers and have revoked them accordingly.

Doctor FENDALL.

Having just arrived in the City of Washington, takes the liberty to intimate to the Inhabitants of the City of Washington, George-Town, and their vicinage, that he means to exercise his skill in the line of his profession, for a few weeks, and may be spoke with at Mr. Stelles Hotel.

The Doctor's knowledge of the natural history of the human teeth—their adjacent parts, and the disorders to which they are subject, acquired by assiduous attention, unremitted study, and experience of an extensive and successful practice for upwards of twenty eight years, will, he hopes, entitle him to the confidence of all those who wish to employ him.—He fondly flatters himself he has it happily in his power to appeal without fear to such as have been his patients in the states of Maryland, Virginia, &c. for that degree of reputation which his conduct as a dentist has merited, and given him just claim to.—The doctor hopes at least he is considered as entitled to the highest grade among those of his profession in this country.

The Doctor entreats leave to to offer to the public his Columbian anti scorbutic Dentifrice for preserving the teeth, gums, sockets &c. a dentifrice infinitely superior (he thinks) both in elegance and efficacy, to any thing hitherto used for the teeth and gums. It renders the breath sweet and agreeable, is a powerful anti scorbutic, and free from any corrosive quality whatever.—No family, and especially where there are children, should be without this excellent and valuable preparation, which doctor FENDALL avers to be productive not only of those effects and consequences as a sovereign Dentifrice and remedy for the disorders of the teeth and gums, but will also prevent them.

This admirable dentifrice is still sold (only by Doctor FENDALL) at the moderate price of one dollar a pot with directions.

Valuable Medicines.

The Public are respectfully informed that LEE & CO. and the Agents of their appointments, will in future keep a constant supply of the following Medicines, which are in high esteem and general use throughout the United States, many of them being sold cheaper than the Drugs of which they are compounded, could be purchased at a retail store.

HAMILTON'S ELIXIR;

A sovereign remedy for Colds, obstinate Coughs, Asthmas, Sore Throats, and approaching Consumptions.

To Parents who may have Children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH.

THIS discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable; the Elixir is so perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Mr. Charles Myers, Hampstead Hill, near Baltimore, had been a long time dangerously indisposed, and was reduced to the lowest state of weakness, insomuch that his recovery appeared doubtful. His complaints, which seemed to be affections of the breast and lungs, and general debility occasioned thereby, yielded little, but rather progressed under the treatment of several eminent physicians; when by the use of Hamilton's Elixir, his distressing cough was immediately alleviated, and every other symptom rapidly subdued. Four or five bottles entirely removed his complaints, and restored him to an excellent state of health and strength which he has for upwards of 2 years past enjoyed without interruption.

From LUTHER MARTIN, Esq. Attorney General of the State of Maryland.

GENTLEMEN,

I comply with your request in stating my opinion of Hamilton's Elixir—It has been used in my family for two or three years past, with uniform success, whenever colds, coughs, or similar complaints have rendered medicine necessary—I have myself found it an excellent and agreeable remedy for a very painful and troublesome affection of the breast, accompanied with soreness and with obstructed and difficult breathing.

On these accounts I do not hesitate to recommend Hamilton's Elixir, as a valuable medicine, and deserving public attention.

LUTHER MARTIN.

Mr. Alijah Henly, Bridge-street, Baltimore, was cured by one bottle of Hamilton's Elixir, of a very complicated disorder, occasioned by a severe cold, caught several months ago—He breathed with the greatest difficulty, and was often thrown into weakning sweats when he attempted to walk any distance, and his voice would frequently fail in such a degree that he could only attempt to whisper; he has been upwards of six weeks without a return of his complaints, and desires to give his public testimony in favor of this invaluable medicine.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, South Howard street, was greatly relieved of an asthmatic complaint of several years standing, by the first bottle of Hamilton's Elixir—and by the use of five bottles she has acquired a degree of ease and strength to which she had been long a stranger She had taken balsam of honey, Church's cough drops, and other medicines, without any benefit, and sometimes to the evident injury of her breathing.
