The 4th of July a cutter, which had failed from Briftol, and was laden with provifions for the Britifh army in Egypt, alfo fell into admiral Gantheaume's hands. In the month of June we took two 74's from the Englifh.—Moniteur.

Breft. July 16.

The fpirit of order, of which the government has given fuch excellent examples, fpreads over every branch of the adminiftration. The feftival which we have juft celebrated, in commemoration of the 14th of July, prefented a fpectacle at once affecting and majeftic. Wearied with a long and difaftrous war, we wifh to tur our eyes towards the profperity which peace muft bring, and on the advantages which agriculture, commerce, and the arts, muft derive from it. Such has been the fubftance of the difcourfe pronounced by Citizen Poliguen, mayor. The proceffion, after having gone the round that was previoufly marked out, returned in order to the mayor's houfe, preceded by fix or eight thoufand troops from the land and fea fervice. Public dances then took place; in the evening the trees of liberty were illuminated. The admiral's fhip the Ocean, fhould have been alfo, but the weather would not permit it.

Manheim, July 19.

Letters from the North of Germany inform us, that the Hanoverian minifter has fent a letter to the king of Portugal, to requeft him to demand, with earneftnefs, the evacuation of that electorate by the Pruffian troops, the maintenance of whom is extremely expenfive. This ftep has been taken in confequence of the declaration of M. de Dohm, that the evacuation could not take place, and the fear that is entertained that the king of Pruffia means to unite that country to the Duchy of Magdebourg, and indemnify himfelf for the loffes he has fuftained by the treaty of Luneville.

Bafle, July 17.

Letters from Vienna confirm the intelligence, that the court of Vienna has received official notification of the approaching arrival of Citizen Champigny, as minifter plenipotentiary of the French republic, and that M. de Ruel Schauenftein has been definitively named minifter for Autria at Paris, where Count Cobentzel will notwithftanding remain till the pacification of the German empire fhall be brought to a conclufion.

Hague, July 20.

Letters from Hamburg fay, Pruffia has acceded to the treaty between Ruffia and England.

Amfterdam, July 20.

Our fleet ftill continues ready for fea. Gen. Angereau is daily expected at the Hague to command the French troops in our fervice.

LIVERPOOL, Auguft 1.

It is in contemplation to iffue a proclamation, calling on all perfons of a certain age, and under certain circumftances, to take up arms in cafe of an invafion.

Several incendiary papers relative to the price of bread, have been ftuck up in various parts of the metropolis, inviting the laboring clafs of people to go in a body to the Manfion-houfe, and folicit a reduction in the price of that and other articles of fubfiftence. Thefe papers are in manufcript, and are pofted up at night.
