25 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the ſubſcriber living in Goochland county, on the 3rd Sept 1803. A very likely negro man named SAM, who calls himſelf Samuel Commer—about 24 or 25 years old, of a yellowiſh complection, low but ſtout made; one of his upper fore teeth out, his dreſs chiefly of Virginia cloth with a plain durants ſhort coat—he is very ſenſible, can read and write ſo as to be underſtood. The ſaid Sam was taken up with a negro belonging to Mr. James, in Cumberland county, near Centreville, about 20 miles above Fredrickſburg, and made his eſcape from the men. Sam had wrote paſſes for both of them, and as the negro that was brought home ſaid they was aiming for George Town, from thence to Pennſylvania; he ſaws at the whip ſaw and is a very good houſe ſervant—he will endeavor to paſs for a free man—he is guilty of forgery—he ſigned the paſſes, John Goodal, Henrico. I do deſire all perſons to endeavor to apprehend the ſaid negro, as he may be very injurious to the country if not taken and puniſhed for his behaviour. All reaſonable expences paid for delivering him to me at home, or the above reward for confining him in jail ſo that I get him again.

ORDINANCE

Of his Danish Majesty, defining what is to be observed by foreign vessels in regard to quarantine regulations.

HIS Majeſty the King moſt graciouſly ordered by his mandate of the 12th of October laſt, that whenever any accounts are received of the exiſtence of the yellow fever in the United States of America, or when no particular advice is received to the contrary from the miniſter reſident there, all American veſſels which are not provided with health certificates from the beginning of the month of July until the end of the year are to ſubmit to certain quarantine regulations, and even if they are provided with ſuch certificates, theſe veſſels are ſtill prohibited from communicating with the ſhore, before they have been viſited by the appointed health phyſician, and if he has the leaſt ſuſpicion, then the veſſel muſt be dealt with accordingly, in conformity to which, no American veſſels during ſuch a time ſhall be piloted, except having hoiſted the green flag.

Which gracious command is hereby publiſhed for the regulation of all concerned. Given at the Daniſh Royal Chancery, on the 5th of November, 1802.

Extract of an ordinance concerning quarantine regulations, and rules, to be obſerved by navigators who touch at the ports or coaſts of the royal Daniſh dominions, dated at Copenhagen, the 14th November, 1800.

1. Every veſſel belonging to our dominions ſhall have a green flag on board, to be uſed as preſcribed hereafter.

2. Whenever a veſſel arrives from a place where there has been contagion, and in all other caſes of ſuſpicion, ſuch as having been viſited by any veſſel from the Barbary coaſt, having bales of merchandize on board from ſuſpected places, and having not undergone a quarantine ſince in any other place, or having had any virulent ſickneſs on board during the voyage, then the green flag ſhall be hoiſted at the head of the mainmaſt, before any communication is had with any perſon whatever from the ſhore, and before anchor is caſt.

3. The commander of any veſſel offending againſt theſe orders, ſhall pay a fine of 500 rix dollars, (400 dollars) if no dangerous conſequences enſue from his miſconduct; but if otherwiſe he ſhall be puniſhed with 12 years labor in the fortifications—and ſhould any malicious intent be proved upon him, he ſhall labor in irons during his life. Any veſſel having had communication with another veſſel that is ſuſpicious, ſhall be ſubject to the ſame regulations and reſtrictions.

7. Should ſuch a veſſel be under the neceſſity of immediate communication with the ſhore, ſhe muſt hoiſt her own national colors from the foretop, or under the green flag if ſhe has no foremaſt.

8. After hoiſting the color on the fore top, the ſignal for a pilot, the pilot ſhall immediately go on board, but not leave the ſhip board until the health phyſician has viſited her—and for every day that the pilot is detaned, he ſhall receive one rix dollar.

9. To prevent unneceſſary delays to ſuch veſſels, as are arrived from places that might be ſuſpected, (ſuch as the Mediterranean or the Weſt Indies) but ſtill are ſecure and free from contagion, not having been at infection places, nor having any infected merchandize on board, and not having had communication with any veſſel which could be ſuſpected—or, had any one ſick or dead during the voyage, we do order that for ſuch caſes all pilots ſhall be provided with blanks as hereafter written, which the captain and mate of ſuch veſſel ſhall ſign, viz.

Underſigned N. commander of the ſhip, N. arrived from N. and N. W, mate of the ſaid veſſel, declare to their certain knowledge that neither any of the ſhips crew, or any other perſon, or any merchandize or thing of whatever kind on board the ſaid veſſel is infected with contagion or dangerous diſeaſe, and the ſaid veſſel has not been viſited by any cruiſers from the African coaſt or the Levant, and had none dead or ſick with an infectious fever during the voyage, ſo help us God and his holy word; and if this depoſition be found falſe, we ſubject ourſelves to the laws of the land.

10. Blanks of this depoſition will be printed in different languages, for the uſe of foreign veſſels that may be ſubject to the quarantine regulations. As foreign veſſels may not always be provided with a green flag, the pilots are bound to have one continually in readineſs to be hoiſted in aforementioned caſes. If the green flag has been uſed longer than for one day, the pilot ſhall receive two rix dollars for the ſame, but the veſſel may then keep it.

Any veſſel ſailing from the port of New York for his majeſty's dominions from the 1ſt of July to the laſt of December, muſt be provided with (beſides the uſual bill of health) a certificate from the Daniſh vice-conſul. Mr. Hammerkin reſident at No. 78, Pearl ſtreet where attendance will be given.
