LECTURES.

IN a fcience fo various and complicated as the prefent fyftem of the LAW, nothing which tends to facilitate the progrefs of the ftudent can be deemed ufelefs. It is with this view that the fubfcriber propofes to deliver during the winter, (and if fuitable encouragement offers, annually)

A COURSE OF LECTURES,
On Education, Belles Letters, Compofition, History and Law.

The fubfcriber means to divide the fame into two diftinct courfes. The object of the divifion is, that young gentlemen who are defigned to fill ftations in active life, diftinct from thofe of the learned profeffions, may refort to that courfe of lectures which will be delivered without a relation to the Law, which will be the fole foundation of the other.

If the plan fhould meet with fuccefs, the fubfcriber contemplates furnifhing, next winter, a handfome Library, for the ufe of fuch gentlemen as feel defirous of patronifing the undertaking.

The municipal laws of each ftate will then be provided—That ftudents at law from any part of the United States will find it their intereft to repair to the Metropolis, to purfue their ftudies; where they will have the advantage of attending the Congreffional debates.

The facility of accefs which the houfes of Congrefs offer, is a circumftance peculiarly advantageous to the ftudent, and the youthful pleader, not only from the light which is thrown in the courfe of debate on controverted queftions of law; not only to be derived from witneffing the eager contefts, the vigorous attacks, the wary methods of defence, exhibited by men of the moft confpicuous talents, rivals alike in abilities and intereft, but efpecially from this confideration, that the fpeakers are, in general, exempted by the nature of their functions, from thofe defects to which pleaders are peculiarly expofed.

The Lectures will commence the firft week in December next, and continue until twelve diftinct Lectures in each courfe fhall have been delivered.

The terms may be known by application perfonally, or by letters poft paid to the right of making and ufing Edward Weft's improvement in Gun Locks, which is confidered by judges of the utmoft importance to every perfon ufing fire arms, and more particularly to the army and militia of the United States. There are two very great advantages refulting from this improvement, the firft is, that no accident can poffibly happen by a gun going off at half cock as it has in that fituation no connection with the dog, confequently not with the trigger or any other external part of the lock. It cannot poffibly catch at half cock as there is no notch that the dog can catch on, and the counter dog is fo placed in the act of cocking, as not to be reftored but by the cock firft falling or being let down. The great fecurity in this improvement ought certainly to recommend it to general ufe, to avoid the innumerable accidents that has and muft unavoidably happen from the prefent plan, in guns going off at half cock, &c. Application made to Mr Rhodes, city of Wafhington will be communicated and attended to, where I fhall attend at the fitting of Congrefs.

PATENT GUN LOCK.
The fubfcriber offers for fale
