FOR SALE.

ABOUT 2000 acres of land on the East fide of the Eastern Branch, and adjoining it, three miles from the city of Washington. Veffels drawing 12 feet water may load at the landing, where there is a tolerable good fifhery,

Near 400 acres of this land is a rich bottom through which there are feveral ftreams of water, that turn a mill, erected on the land, and which might be ufed to advantage, in watering meadow: a part of the bottom is now in timothy grafs and the whole is capable of producing grass in abundance, and tobacco. There may be between five and fix hundred acres in wood, the reft is cleared land. A part of the land adjoins a commodious brick dwelling houfe, with all convenient outhoutes; and a large and handfome garden, but not in good repair, on the borders of the town of Bladenfburg.

This property, fo convenient to the city of Wafhington, which affords a market for grafs and all other productions of land, equal to any in the United States; fo certain from its fituation to rife in a few years, to a price feveral times as high as will now be taken for it, well deferves the attention of men of fortune. The whole land including the dwelling houfe and improvements, and mill, will be fold for 10 pound per acre. It is queftionable whether the meadow ground, alone, is not worth all the money; it is certain, that it might eafily be made to pay more than the annual intereft of the whole purchafe.

LECTURES.

IN a fcience fo various and complicated as the prefent fyftem of the LAW, nothing which tends to facilitate the progrefs of the ftudent can be deemed ufelefs. It is with this view that the fubfcriber propofes to deliver during the winter, (and if fuitable encouragement offers, annually)

A COURSE OF LECTURES,

On Education, Belles Letters, Composition, History and Law.

The fubfcriber means to divide the fame into two diftinct courfes. The object of the divifion is, that young gentlemen who are defigned to fill ftations in active life, diftinct from thofe of the learned profeffions, may refort to that courfe of lectures which will be delivered without a relation to the Law, which will be the fole foundation of the other.

If the plan fhould meet with fuccefs, the fubfcriber contemplates furnifhing, next winter, a handfome Library, for the ufe of fuch gentlemen as feel defirous of patronifing the undertaking.

The municipal laws of each ftate will then be provided—That ftudents at law from any part of the United States will find it their intereft to repair to the Metropolis, to purfue their ftudies; where they will have the advantage of attending the Congreffional debates.

The facility of accefs which the houfes of Congrefs offer, is a circumftance peculiarly advantageous to the ftudent, and the youthful pleader, not only from the light which thrown in the courfe of debate on controverted queftions of law; not only to be derived from witneffing the eager contefts, the vigorous attacks, the wary methods of defence, exhibited by men of the moft confpicuous talents, rivals alike in abilities and intereft but efpecially from this confideration, that the fpeakers are, in general, exempted by the nature of their functions, from thofe defects to which pleaders are peculiarly expofed.

The Lectures will commence the firft wee in December next, and continue until twelve diftinct Lectures in each courfe fhall have been delivered.

The terms may be known by applica perfonally, or by letters poft paid to
