PROPOSALS

for publishing a periodical work entitled

The Literary Magazine,

AND

AMERICAN REGISTER.

THIS work, if public patronage encourages its prosecution, shall be published monthly.

The number shall be, occasionally ornamented with an engraving, executed by the best artist that can be obtained, and delivered to subscribers at the price of FIFTY CENTS. Each number shall contain, at least, eighty pages in large octavo, and shall comprehend seven departments.

The first department shall include original, moral, literary or scientific performances, and biographical or historical sketches.

The second department shall contain reviews of American publications, and of English works republished here.

The third department shall comprise such extracts, from foreign publications, as shall be considered peculiarly interesting, and deserving the attention of the people of America. The essence, especially of periodical publications, shall be carefully extracted.

The fourth department shall consist of pieces of original or selected poetry.

The fifth department shall include notices of publications preparing for the press; notices of literary characters and incidents and such portions of information of a scientific, commercial, and agricultural nature, as shall be deemed most remarkable and most deserving of notice.

The sixth department shall contain an accurate detail of political intelligence, foreign and domestic, particularly a clear summary of the proceedings of the Congress of the United States during their session.

The seventh department shall consist of all such interesting or important occurrences, as the passing month shall have produced; such as casualties, crimes, &c. and shall likewise contain as full and accurate a list of marriages and deaths, in the United States, as can be procured.

This work will be published by Messrs. John Conrad, & Co. and will be conducted under the immediate direction of an Editor, who, in addition to his own labours, has received assurances of the assistance of several of the first literary characters in this city and in New-York.

A work of the nature now offered to the attention of the people of the United States, has long been demanded. It is conceived, that, if properly conducted, it would eminently promote the literature of this country, and would prove, in all respects favourable to the gratification of taste and extension of useful information.

The Editor promises, if encouraged by liberal subscriptions, all that his talents and labours can perform toward the successful execution of the work which he has proposed to undertake, and he hopes that this appeal to literary taste, that this desire to diffuse knowledge among all classes of society, will not, like other attempts, which have preceded this, be rendered fruitless, by a cold and depressing reception.

To enable the public to judge of the nature of the publication as soon as possible, the first number will appear in a few days.

Subscriptions received by Rapine, Conrad & Co. Booksellers and Stationers, New-Jersey Avenue, near the Capitol.
