Charlotte Hall School.

AGREEABLY to public notice, the Truſtees of this inſtitution held their annual examination of the pupils on the 4th, 5th, and 6th of September: John A. Stuart, Eſq. of Fairhaven, Virginia, at the particular requeſt of the Board preſided during this examination and, at the cloſe, in a moſt elegant and appropriate addreſs, expreſſed "his higheſt approbation, his moſt unbounded aſtoniſhment and applauſe." How grateful to the feelings of the Truſtees were the loud plaudits of a numerous aſſemblage of the parents and guardians of children committed to their care! During the orations there appeared an ecſtacy of joy! and, the calm ſatiſfaction which was exhibited in the examination of the different claſſes in Homer, Lucian, Greek Teſtament, Cicero, Terence, Virgil, Cæſar, Ovid, Cornelius Nepos, Set. Vet. Eraſmus, Corderius, and every part of Grammar, gave equal pleaſure to the Truſtees and to an attentive audience.

With what rapture did every ſpectator anticipate the future benefits which may reſult to ſociety from the growing ſucceſs of this riſing eſtabliſhment—with what delight did all behold 128 pupils in perfect health! and not a ſingle child, accidentally detained, was abſent from ſickneſs.

The Truſtees hope, that this public approbation of the performance of the pupils will ſtimulate them to perſevere in the race of glory and will rivet to their youthful minds this important truth, that education will render them uſeful citizens and good men.

The claſſes will open on the 6th day of October next under the following arrangement,

GEORGE RALPH, A. M. Principal.
OWEN F. MAGRATH. A. M. Vice Principal.
JAMES TOOMY, Aſſiſtant in the claſſical ſchool.
NEALE H. SHAW, Engliſh maſter.
M. DESMANGLES, Profeſſor of the French language.

By order of the Board of Truſtees,
WM. THOMAS, Chairman.

American Printed goods.

Calicoes, Shawls, Pocket Handkerchiefs, &c. manufactured by the ſubſcribers near Baltimore, and ſold at No. 13 Calvert ſtreet.

TO remove that diſtruſt often felt reſpecting new undertakings, and ſo prejudicial to manufacturing attempts in America, they think it proper to obſerve, that nothing is wanting in the buſineſs to enable good artiſts to perform their work here as well as in Europe. That they have theſe artiſts; that two of the partners were bred to the buſineſs in a factory of the beſt repute carried on by their father, & long afterwards by themſelves. They truſt that while foreign goods are received without a queſtion, an unreaſonable ſuſpicion will not prevent their countrymen from giving that trial to their goods, which only can prove their value. Beſides a natural doubt, they know that certain intereſts, national as well as well as individual, will ſuggeſt objections to their undertaking. They have no difficulty in ſaying, that work of the like kind ſhall be as well executed here, as in other countries. The colors capable of being fixed, will be found as permanent; the cloths perhaps better ſubſtance, and the prices lower than of the imported cottons.

Centre Houſe Inn.

SOLOMON MYER has opened the above tavern in 9th ſtreet, in the city of Waſhington, about 30 yards north of Pennſylvania avenue, nearly oppoſite Meſſrs. Herford's diſtillery, and about half way between the Capitol and the Preſident's houſe, as alſo between the Theatre and Centre Market; for which he reſpectfully ſolicits a ſhare of the public patronage; his charges will be moderate, correſponding with Pennſylvania tavern rates, as to victualing, lodging, liquors, &c. and horſe feed as markets will permit—he deems it unneceſſary to exaggerate as is uſual on ſuch occaſions, or to ſtile his houſe by the uſual epithets of, large, beſt, commodious, &c. as probably no occupation has more ready means of recommending and advertiſing its own convenience than that of tavern-keeping: he muſt however inform ſuch of his friends, who wiſh to take boarding for a time, and have their lodging rooms retired or diſtinct from the tavern, that he has rented the houſe oppoſite his own buildings lately built by Mr. Young, which is ſuitable for that purpoſe.

PROPOSALS
BY JOHN DIXON,

For Printing by Subſcription, a Periodical Work, to be entitled the

VIRGINIA MAGAZINE,
OR,
Monthly Miſcellany.

CONDITIONS.

I. The work to contain 68 pages (Octavo) monthly, of ſelected miſcellaneous proſe, and of original proſe alſo, whenever the exertions of the Editor, and his Aſſiſtant, and the communications of correſpondents can ſupply it.

Of improvements and experiments in Agriculture, with which the Editor hopes to be furniſhed by the Farmers, &c. of this and other ſtates, or to ſelect himſelf.

Of Debates in Congreſs.

Of Foreign and Domeſtic Intelligence.

Of Selected Poetry, and Original too, whenever good can be procured and not other Owiſe.

Marriages and Deaths.

Of Prices Current.

II. The work to be printed on good paper, and with a neat type.

III. The price to Subſcribers, to be Five Dollars per annum, one half to be paid on the delivery of the firſt number, and the balance at the expiration of ſix months after.

IV. The work to be put to preſs as ſoon as 300 Subſcribers are obtained.

PROSPECTUS.

THE utility and rational amuſement derivable from well conducted Magazines, probably will not be controverted. They afford an aſylum for many fugitive eſſays, that might otherwiſe meet with a more rigorous fate than they merit. The brevity of their articles and their longer duration of exiſtence than that of ſome other periodical publications, hold out an inducement to that indolence, too frequently the attendant of genius, and to thoſe preſſed by the cares of buſineſs, to devote an hour or two to their own entertainment, and the pleaſure and inſtruction of the community, while the greater variety of ſubjects they compriſe, gives them a decided ſuperiority over ſeveral other works.—For they contain ſomething to ſuit the Palate of every one, and may be particularly pleaſing and inſtructive to thoſe who have not the inclination or the leiſure to peruſe more prolix writings. There are few countries, where a love of reading prevails and ſcience is regarded, in which Magazines are cut numerous and well received. And yet the Subſcriber thinks he is correct in ſaying that not one is publiſhed in the reſpectable ſtate of Virginia. He deſigns to publiſh one, principally of a Literary compilection, provided he obtains adequate ſupport, in which caſe he flatters himſelf, that his exertions will prove fully ſatisfactory to his patrons. For any reluctance to ſubſcribe, ariſing from a non-compliance of any perſons who may have iſſued propoſals, ſimilar to the foregoing, the ſubſcriber has it only in his power to ſay that he pledges his honor to comply with his engagement, if ſupported by the public.
