PUBLIC SALE,

To the highest bidder on the premiſes, "Blue Plains, and Addiſon's Good Will," containing near 500 acres.

IT will be ſold altogether or laid off in lots from 5 to 100 acres, to ſuit the purchaſers. No land in the United States poſſeſſes ſuch advantages. It is uncommonly healthy and has a great many ſprings of excellent water on it. It lies on the Potomac River for nearly two miles, within one of Alexandria, and four of the City of Waſhington, with a public Ferry to Alexandria, which is immenſely valuable, and will be more ſo.—This land is of the firſt quality, with my management, which is not the beſt, I have made off of it ten barrels of corn, thirty three buſhels of wheat, and two thouſand pounds of tobacco, to the acre. About 200 acres are in wood and timber. The whole ſhore is a fiſhing landing, where upwards of one hundred thouſand herrings, with other fiſh, ſuch as ſhad, rock, perch, &c. are frequently caught at one haul, with a ſeine. There is every neceſſary building, good enough for any body at live in. A paled in yard and garden, an orchard of all kinds of the beſt grafted fruit—About 20 acres of meadow now in graſs, and a great deal more may be made—200 acres of this land will now rent for from 180$ to 250$, and with a ſmall expence it might be made to rent for a great deal more.

There is about 70 acres of wheat, and about 30 acres of rye, ſowed on it. The purchaſer can be furniſhed with all kind of ſtock, horſes, ſheep, cattle, and hogs—alſo corn, hay, and fodder.

And on THURSDAY,

The 24th of December next, will be ſold, to the higheſt bidder, at Mr. M'Laughlin's tavern in George-Town—200 acres of land, lying on the eaſt ſide of the Eaſtern branch, about one mile from the city of Waſhington, it is chiefly in wood and timber. It will be ſold altogether, or divided into lots from 5 to 20 acres. Alſo 206 acres on the weſt ſide and adjoining the Eaſtern Branch, two miles from the City of Waſhington. About half of this land is in wood and timber, chiefly cheſnut, and about 15 or 20 acres of good meadow ground. Alſo a griſtmill, with 42 and an half acres of land, chiefly in wood on Rock-Creek, a never-failing ſtream, about one mile from George-Town, and the ſame diſtance from the City of Waſhington. Alſo ſeveral lots in the City of Waſhington unimproved, and ſeveral in George Town improved and unimproved. Alſo 563 acres of land in Montgomery county, about 16 miles from the City of Waſhington, where Mrs. Lynn formerly lived, it has pretty good improvements, good water, and ſeveral good orchards. The terms will be made known on the day of ſale.—Alſo about 500 acres lying in Montgomery County, on the main road leading from George-Town to Frederick Town, about ſeven miles from George-Town. This land is well watered and wooded, with the greateſt plenty of meadow ground. Some is already made. There are two tenements on it, and it would make two good farms, this land will be ſold on a credit of three years from the firſt day of January next. Bond and approved ſecurity will be required. Any perſon wiſhing to purchaſe at private ſale, will apply to William Bayly, who lives oppoſite to Alexandria, in the county of Waſhington, and Diſtrict of Columbia. Office of Intelligence.

THE diſperſed ſituation of thoſe who are eſtabliſhed in the City of Waſhington, renders intercourſe and communication difficult and embarraſſing, not only to themſelves but to thoſe who viſit it, whether on buſineſs or for the purpoſe of ſettling. A variety of domeſtic and familiar facts are neceſſary to be acquired, and yet the acquiſition of them ſometimes coſts more labor, attention and expence, than matters of higher conſequence. Hence in particular, many perſons of moderate reſources have greatly ſuffered, being under the immediate neceſſity of engaging in meaſures, and at the ſame time unprepared with the requiſite information. It is on this account that the ſubſcriber has been induced to offer to the patronage of the public an office of Intelligence. In this office, thoſe who reſide in George Town, Alexandria, or the City of Waſhington, may at any time be informed of real property in any of thoſe places either improved or unimproved entered here for ſale: for which entries he keeps a regular ſet of books. Thoſe who approve of this deſign in this particular, are requeſted to tranſmit him a deſignation of their property, and terms for the information of applicants. Perſons who have houſes to rent, and thoſe being deſirous of hiring houſes will here find a greater maſs of intelligence on that ſubject than they can derive from any other ſource. He has opened alſo, a ſet of books where perſons deſirous of employing others in any capacity whatever may ſoon learn of thoſe who will be willing to ſerve them, and the latter, on the other hand, will be enabled to learn of thoſe, who wiſh to employ them. Strangers arriving at the metropolis may apply here for almoſt any kind of information whether in private or public buſineſs; and information will either be given or ſeaſonably procured for them; horſes and carriages will be received on commiſſion for private ſale, and perſonal property of any deſcription whatever; bills of ſale and other inſtruments of writing will be correctly and handſomely executed. The public muſt be well aſſured than an inſtitution of this kind cannot prove generally uſeful without general encouragement.—That general encouragement the ſubſcriber pledges himſelf to exert himſelf to deſerve. Some charge will be made for every real information imparted, but as exorbitancy is always diſgraceful, and the nature of ſuch an inſtitution requires moderation, he holds himſelf bound to give no diſſatisfaction on that ſcore.
