Kentucky election for representatives in Congress.

The votes given for Mr. Lyon are 4,484; for his opponent, Mr. Walker 3,261—for Mr. Rowan 2,747; for his opponent, Mr Ormsby 2,173—for Mr. Johnson 2,315, for Mr. Sandford 1,643, for Mr. Moore 1,488.

We are informed, that our countryman, Benjamin West, who has been celebrated in Europe, as an eminent painter, and was for several years historical painter to the king of G. Britain, is about to return to Pennsylvania, and spend the remainder of his days in his native states.

Am. Daily Advertiser.

DIED.

On Tuesday night, at the mansion house of Stephen Van Rensselaer, esq. in Albany, State of New-York, after a lingering illness, which he bore with becoming fortitude and resignation, the hon. William Patterson, one of the associate judges of the Supreme court of the U. States. In Mr Patterson his country has lost an able, independent and upright judge, a real and enlightened patriot; and the state of New Jersey, one of its most valuable and respectable citizens. Endeared to his family and friends by every amiable quality, his death will be to them a source of the deepest affliction: But for their consolation, it may truly be said, that he lived and died a Christian.

In his cold relics let the great discern,
That they like him to dust must soon return;—
And while they see his footsteps led to God,
Let them pursue the blooming path he trod:
Thus, when the cares of mortal life shall cease,
Expire, like him, the heirs of endless peace.

ALBANY GAZ.

RAMSAY'S LIFE OF WASHINGTON.

We congratulate the friends of literature, on the pleasing information that Dr. David Ramsay, of Charleston, S.C. has written a "Life of Washington," which a gentleman who has read the manuscript pronounces to be "a piece of elegant classic biography." We are given to understand it will be put to press the coming winter, in one volume octavo.

The eminent literary acquirements of the Dr. added to his great literary fame, as the author of "The History of the American Revolution," and other works, together with the portable size of the work, and its proportionable low price, leads us to hope, that it will receive that encouragement to which its great merit will no doubt entitle it.

Alexandria, September 15.

Flour inspected in the town of Alexandria, for the quarter ending the 11th Sept. 1806.

15,350 barrels flour,
1,254 half barrels do.
134 barrels Indian meal.

AMOS ALEXANDER,
Flour Inspector.

Nashville, Aug. 23.

We hear from various parts of Kentucky, that the drought has been so great in that state, that many fields of fertile land will not yield one bushel of corn to the acre. Amid those evils which visit a country so adjacent to ours, we congratulate our fellow-citizens on the flattering prospect of one of the greatest crops this country ever produced.

Baltimore, Sept. 17.

The Marquis Cassa Yrujo, instead of proceeding to the seat of government, as mentioned in Monday's Gazette, left this city this morning in the Frenchtown packet, for Philadelphia.

Captain Collier, from Cadiz, (arrived at New-York) informs, it was reported that three Spanish line of battle ships were on the eve of sailing from Cadiz, for South America.

COMMERCIAL.

FROM GIBRALTAR, JULY 17, 1806.

The governor of Gibraltar has refused the landing at that port of tobacco from America, and passed an order, that no tobacco shall be landed except from England and that to be accompanied with a certificate of clearance from one of the custom houses.

Norfolk, Sept. 16.

We stop the press, after having some of our papers worked off, having seen some of the officers of the British frigate Melampus, who inform, that on Sunday morning they descried to the Southward of Cape Henry a line of battle ship dismasted, which they immediately gave chase to and run ashore on Currituck, about 30 miles to the south of the Cape, and after taking the officers and men, (amounting to about 600) set fire to her, when she was totally destroyed. She proved to be the L'Impeteaux, Mons. L. V. Belaw, of 74 guns. The Melampus is now in Hampton roads.

New-York, Sept. 18.

At a late hour last evening we received from Captain Farrier, of the ship Delaware, at quarantine, a regular file of London papers to the evening of the 5th of August, containing a mass of interesting intelligence, of which our time will not permit us to give more than the following brief outline.

The Clyde frigate returned to Deal on the 4th, after landing Lord Lauderdale at Calais. The result of his first conference with the French Plenipotentiary was expected in London in the course of a week thereafter, on the supposition that Lord Lauderdale would have little else to do on his arrival than to sign the preliminaries. Many important points were to be arranged which would take up a considerable time previous to the conclusion of the definitive treaty.

General Simcoe is to succeed Lord Lake in India.

The emperor of Russia is understood to have proposed to the king of Sweden to discontinue the blockade of the Prussian ports: and it was supposed, if his representations should not be attended to, he would give permission for the invasion of Pomerania.

An opinion prevailed that Russia and the Porte were on the eve of a war, & that the latter is to receive the assistance of the powerful army which the French have collected in Dalmatia. Between its enemies and its allies the Turkish power is in a fair way of being driven out of Europe.

Bonaparte, it is said, has required of the king of Spain to receive an ambassador from the new king of Naples: to consent to the dethroning the Queen of Etruria, and to the incorporation of Catalonia, Arragon, Navarre, and Biscay with the French empire, thereby making the river Ebro the boundary between France and Spain, instead of the Pyrenees.

New-York, Sept. 15.

The following was received by the ship Ann-Maria from Bordeaux.

"On the night of the 19th of July the English came into the mouth of Bordeaux river with about 12 or 15 boats, belonging to different ships of war which was outside, they cut the cables and took possession of a French brig of eighteen guns, which was there for the purpose of convoying the small craft along the coast—they were warmly attacked by the guard brig, and after the loss of 8 or 9 boats and a number of men, supposed to be 20 or 30 they got her safe out to sea."

New-York, Sept. 17.

"Captain Farrier, of the ship Delaware, who arrived this morning, left Amsterdam on the 29th July, at which time all the ships of war in that port were dismantled, and the seamen paid and dispersed.

"Captain F. was taken on the 5th of August, carried into Portsmouth, & sailed from thence on the 7th. He states that the people of England were anxious for peace—that Lord Lauderdale had gone to Paris to complete, if possible, the negociations with France.

"I this moment have seen a letter (by the brig——, in 47 days from Nantz) dated 1st of August, stating that peace with England was signed on the 29th of July—that although it had not been publicly announced, the writer, from good authority, knew it to be true. It states also, that our negociations with Spain, through the interposition of France had entirely failed, and that circumstances justified the belief that Spain was disposed to quarrel with us."

New-York, Sept. 17.

The arrival at this port of the schooner Atlantic, captain Howard, from Nantz, has enabled us to lay before the readers of the Mercantile Advertiser intelligence from Europe of considerable importance. Our Paris papers are to the 28th of July, inclusive, and our letters from Nantz to the 4th of August.

A Treaty of Peace, of which the conditions had not been made public, was signed at Paris on the 20th of July, between Russia and France, and had been forwarded to St. Petersburgh for ratification.

A confederation of some of the petty states of Germany has been entered into for the purpose of mutual defence, with a view to their separation from the Germanic empire.

The fortress of Gaeta has at length surrendered after a defence which will make no inconsiderable figure in the history of the present times.

We have comprised in the following extracts, all that relate to these interesting events and all that the papers contain which we judged worthy of a translation.

PARIS, July 29.

The Jesuits have been ordered to quit the city of Naples in 24 hours, and the kingdom as expeditiously as possible. It is believed they will retire to Russia, the rules of their order not permitting them to settle in any of the catholic states, not even in those of the Holy Father.

23. A courier from the British cabinet has trod closely in the steps of the secretary to the Russian ambassador. The latter at Calais on the 18th, with dispatches for M. Oubril; the former arrived on the 19th, and immediately proceeded for Paris. The smallest appearance of a reconciliation between the two nations revives the wishes and the hopes of the friends of peace and of humanity.

24. The minister of marine has written a circular letter to the different ports, announcing that peace was signed on the 20th of this month, at Paris, between France and Russia, by the general of division Clarke, counsellor of state and of the cabinet, and M. Oubril, privy counsellor; and that in consequence, it is ordered that all admirals, commandants of ports, and of his imperial majesty's ships to treat the vessels of Russia as friends.

Moniteur.

The fetes which had been announced for the month of August, will not take place until the latter end of September. This delay is judged necessary to give time to the grand army to be present.

Ibid

We are assured that on the 15th of this month the discussions which have been carrying on for the arrangement of the affairs of Germany are terminated; and that the ministers of the kings of Bavaria & Wirtenberg, of the electors of Baden the landgrave of Hesse-Darmstadt, the duke of Cleves, and Berg, the princes of the house of Nassau, the prince of Ysembourg, the princes of Hohenzollern, the prince of Aremberg, the prince of Salem, the count, de la Leyen, &c. have concluded a treaty of alliance and of reciprocal guarantee, under the title of "Federation of the Rhine." We believe they have come to a resolution to separate themselves from the Germanic body, in order to have no contradiction between their interests and their policy. During the day of the 16th there was observed a great movement of couriers which tended in a great measure to confirm the reports in circulation respecting this news.

25. According to public report, the Federation of the Rhine will be under the protection of France; it is added that they will have on foot an army of 60,000 men: and that the elector of Baden, the landgrave of Darmstadt and the duke of Cleves will take the title of grand dukes.

The jewish deputies will assemble for the first time on Saturday next in the ancient chapel of St John near the city hotel, which has been prepared to hold their sitting. The kingdom of Italy will, it is said, send 16 deputies.

26. The movement of the troops from the interior towards Germany has been suspended in consequence of the peace with Russia. A few hours after its signature M. Oubril set off for St. Petersburgh, having first taken an hotel for the new Russian Ambassador. It is thought the ratification will be exchanged in a month.

27. It is believed that Lord Yarmouth who lately arrived here from England, will soon appear in a public character.

The fortress of Gaeta has demanded a capitulation after eleven days of opened trenches, during which time not less than 800,000 lbs of powder were expended. [Our private letters say that this fortress surrendered on the eighteenth.]

The emperor has issued a decree permitting the exportation of grain from France to England.

LONDON, JULY 26.

The Messenger whose arrival we announced yesterday, brought dispatches from M. D'Oubril at Paris, to the Russian ambassador here. The substance of the dispatches was communicated to our government, and a cabinet council met at one o'clock at Mr. Fox's office, to take the same into consideration. It seems probable that the object of M. D'Oubril's mission to Paris is known to this government, and that a perfect understanding exists with the court of St. Petersburgh; and from this we may infer that there is not the smallest degree of truth in the continental reports of Russia being engaged in negociations for a separate peace.

THE EXPEDITIONS.

The 2d division of the 45th regiment was yesterday embarked at Portsmouth, which concludes the embarkation there. There is now a fine small army of 2500 men on ship board: from the size of the transports, from the time they are victualled (6 or 8 months,) and from other circumstances, there is little doubt that this army is intended for distant service, the Cape and South America are mentioned. No other staff but the Medical has yet joined them: the general officers are not expected till the latest moment, to prevent discovery of their destination. Sir Samuel Auchmuty, one of the heroes of Egypt, and major general Wemyss, who commanded at Ceylon, are mentioned among some others.

The large medical staff embarked at Portsmouth evinces that the expedition from thence is for a foreign station and unhealthy climate.

It has been lately announced that the ruins of two great cities have been discovered, in the Russian empire, of which there are no accounts in history; one of them is in the isle of Jaman, in the black sea; the other in a district of Siberia.

A manuscript, dug out of Herculaneum, has lately been unrolled, and found to be the fragment of a latin poem in hexameters, containing nearly 70 verses. They relate to the battle of Actium, and as is supposed, to the death of Cleopatra. The manuscript is written in uncial letters, and is expected to prove the poem of Varus the friend of Horace and Virgil.

By his excellency ROBERT BOWIE,
Governor of Maryland.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been stated to me, by the petition of number of respectable persons, inhabitants of Prince George's county, that a MURDER hath been committed on the person of CHARLES NEVITT, junior, late of Prince George's county—by a certain negro man, (slave of Basil Soper,) called WALL, who hath since absconded and fled from justice. And whereas, it is the duty of the Executive to guard as much as may be against the commission of such enormities, and to bring such offenders against the laws and peace of society to justice. I have therefore thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, and do, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer a reward of One Hundred Dollars to any person or persons who shall apprehend and secure the said negro WALL, in any jail in the United States, so that he be brought to justice.

Given in Council, at the city of Annapolis, under the Seal of the state of Maryland, this sixth day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and six.

ROBERT BOWIE,

By his Excellency's command.

NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clerk of the Council.

Ordered, That the foregoing Proclamation be published once in each week until countermanded, in the Maryland Gazette, at Annapolis; the Federal Gazette and Evening Post, at Baltimore; the Frederick-town Advocate, and in the National Intelligencer, at the City of Washington.

By order,

NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clerk of the Council.

PROPOSALS
FOR PUBLISHING
A
Geographical Description
OF ALL THE
STATES & TERRITORIES
IN THE UNION,

In separate volumes; with a particular and correct description of the several counties and towns, in each state. Illustrated with Maps,

By JOSEPH SCOTT,
Author of the United States' Gazetteer, the Modern Geographical Dictionary in 4 vol. oct. a Geographical Dictionary of the United States of North America, &c. &c.

THE geographical description of each of the larger states, with the counties, towns, &c. will form a neat little volume of about 150 pages. Two of the smaller states may form a volume, or one of them may be comprised in the same volume with a larger adjoining state, as Maryland and Delaware.

Each volume will be complete in itself; so that subscribers may take one, two, &c. or the whole number. The paper, type, and size of the page, will exactly correspond with the description of Pennsylvania, now published; so that subscribers for the whole may have two or more bound together to suit their own taste.

They will be published neatly done up in in boards.

The description of each state will be embellished with a handsome map.

It is supposed that the whole will amount to about FOURTEEN LITTLE VOLUMES. A general description of the United States will be given in the last, which will render the whole the fullest, and most correct geographical description of the United States, that has hitherto been published.

The plan, which the author has adopted, is the most comprehensive that could be suggested, as it will comprise under proper and distinct heads, every thing worthy of notice.

No money will be required till on the delivery of the work.

The Price of each Volume will be Fifty Cents.

The next volume will contain,
A Geographical description of MARYLAND and DELAWARE, illustrated with a Map of each state.

The work is nearly ready for the press, and will soon be published.

☞ The Editors of newspapers, in Maryland, are requested to insert the above proposals twice. They will be paid on the publication of the work.

PROPOSALS,
FOR PUBLISHING BY SUBSCRIPTION,
THE WORKS
OF
DR. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN,
PHILOSOPHICAL, POLITICAL,
AND LITERARY.

Hominum rerumque repertor.

THE publication of the writings of Dr. Franklin in a complete edition, was long contemplated by the late BENJ FRANKLIN BACHE, his grandson, who transcribed the copy which was devised to Mr. W. Temple Franklin, for the purpose. It was originally designed that the corrected edition should appear in three languages, and in England, Germany France and America, at the same time. this design was frustrated by the devisee (W. Temple Franklin) who, it is now believed, sacrificed the work and the honorable trust reposed in him, for money, to the mortal hatred of the English ministry against the deceased sage.

As soon as this fact was known, the present editor of the Aurora turned his attention to the collection of every paper and circumstance which could tend to preserve and do honor to the memory of a man to whom America is so much indebted; and who, as he was the first that from his genius and talents reflected back lustre on his native country, must continue to be ranked to the latest posterity, among its greatest benefactors and ornaments.

This edition will be published from the copy revised and corrected by Dr. Franklin, the corrections of which are in the hand writing of the author, and may be seen by any gentleman in the possession of the editor of the Aurora.

Early admiration of Dr. Franklin; educated in veneration and reverence of his character—combined with other incidental circumstances not necessary to be pointed out have concurred to favor the collection by the present editor, of the best materials that could be obtained after the sacrifice of the work by the devisee.

With some industry, and with some expence he has possessed himself, not only of the copy with the corrections and additions in Dr. Franklin's hand writing; but also of several articles which have never appeared in any former collection, and of several which have never appeared in print.

Proposals would have appeared long since in this city, had not an advertisement of an intended edition being published in the English prints; the present editor thought it might be yet possible that the edition advertised, was that which Mr. Temple Franklin was entrusted with; but it now appears that the English edition is only a republication of the former compilation with some small additions; but still very deficient, on a comparison with the corrected papers in the hands of the editor.

The whole will now be carefully collated, and the work executed in a style worthy of the great patriarch of American liberty and apostle of the American press.

The additional papers will form at least a volume, perhaps more—the authentic papers already printed, form three—and it is intended to begin with the second volume, which will be put to press immediately; and to publish the Biography last, so that such additional particulars as may throw any useful light on the life of this great man, may be engrafted on his memoirs; to obtain which, and other important materials, the editor will spare neither pains nor expence.

Gentlemen who may be possessed of authentic or original papers, or correspondence of Dr. F. or who can give information where any are to be found, will render public service by communicating them to the editor.

CONDITIONS.

The work shall be elegantly printed, on a new small pica type and safe vellum paper in large octavo.

The work will be ornamented with numerous engravings, a vignette to each volume—a whole length portrait from the best likeness allowed to be in existence, now in the possession of———

The price of each volume will be 2 dollars 50 cents, payable on delivery only.

Subscriptions will be received at the book store of Wm. Duane, No 106, Market street Philadelphia, and in Pennsylvania avenue Washington city; and by other booksellers and private gentlemen, whose names will be notified in the several states of the union, in due time.
