NOTES.

1. The mail will be carried on the routes, number four to fourteen inclusive, in the same time through the year; and the contractor must calculate upon conveying the mail in a sulkey, when the roads will not admit of its being conveyed by the usual stage; or if it shall be shewn, that the roads are too bad for a sulkey, the mail of letters will be separated from the newspapers, which are to be conveyed by stage, as fast as the roads will admit, and the letters conveyed on horseback within the time limited, so that bad roads shall never be admitted as an excuse for non-performance.

2. The Postmaster General may expedite the mails and alter the times of arrival and departure at any time during the continuance of the contracts; he previously stipulating an adequate compensation for any extra expence that may be occasioned thereby.

3. Fifteen minutes shall be allowed for opening and closing the mail at all offices where no particular time is specified.

4. For every thirty minutes delay (unavoidable accidents excepted) in arriving after the times prescribed in any contract, the contractor shall forfeit one dollar; and if the delay continue until the departure of any depending mail, whereby the mails destined for such depending mail lose a trip a forfeiture of double the amount allowed for carrying the mail one trip shall be incurred, unless it shall be made to appear that the delay was occasioned by unavoidable accident, in which case the amount of pay for the trip will, in all cases, be forfeited and retained.

5. Persons making proposals, are desired to to state their prices by the year. Those who contract will receive their pay quarterly, in the months of February, May August and November, one month after the expiration of each quarter.

6. No other than a free white person shall be employed to convey the mail.

7. Where the proposer intends to convey the mail in the body of a stage carriage he is desired to state it in his proposals.

8. The Postmaster General reserves to himself the right of declaring any contract at an end, whenever three failures happen, which amount to the loss of a trip each.

9. The contracts for the routes numbered 1 to 16, are to be in operation on the first day of Oct. next and to continue in force two years from that time; for the routes from No. 17 to 25 to commence at the same time, & to continue in force until the 31st of March, 1811. For the routes, 26, 27, and 28, to commence at the same time, and continue in force one year.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY that agreeable to a contract with us, the subscribers, appointed by the Legislature of this state, Managers of a Lottery to raise money for such purpose, the bearer, John Achman, has constructed a FIRE ENGINE, which we have accepted as fully complete. It throws water through a tube 3-4ths of an inch diameter, 100 feet distance, and through a hose of 104 feet in length, with a tube 1-2 inch diameter, the additional distance of 70 feet. The plan on which this Engine is constructed, is new to us, and he says is according to the late improvements. The box is made of copper, the pumps of brass, and the rest of the works of iron, on four wheels adapted to the convenience of such occasions as may require its use. We further certify, that we consider Mr. Achman as possessing a competent knowledge of the mechanism of this description, from the above specimen of his work.

Given under our hands this 24th day of June, 1808.
