Ten Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY on the morning of the 25th inst. a Negro Woman named Priscilla, she is about forty-five years of age, a short woman and very black; her cloathing is not known only a negro cotton jacket and petticoat. It is likely she may change her cloathing; she had a sore on her right [illegible], it is perceivable from the other. I bought her from Mr John Stephens, City of Washington.—She lived for some time near the Great Falls of the Potowmac, with Mrs Martin Huger. I will give the above Reward to any person that will apprehend the said wench and deliver her to me or secure her in any jail that I get her again.

City Hotel,

BROADWAY NEW-YORK.

THE Subscriber most respectfully informs his friends and the public, that the above Hotel will be opened on the first of May ensuing, when their patronage is earnestly solicited. He avails himself of this opportunity to return his sincere and grateful thanks to those societies, parties, and gentlemen who have given him their support, and assures them that a continuance of their favors will be a stimulus to future exertions to please; and that the utmost attention shall be given for their comfort and accommodation.

Boarding may be had by the day, week, month, or year. Families travelling, may be elegantly accommodated with lodging and sitting rooms; and, if preferred, have dinners &c. in their apartments.

The Hotel being so well known, it is almost useless to say, that it is situated in one of the most healthy and pleasant parts of the city; commanding an extensive view in every direction, not only o[f] the city itself, but also of the Narrows, the North and East Rivers, the state of New-Jersey, York and Long-Island, &c. &c.

A handsome coffee-room will be fitted up in the principal story; where gentlemen may have tea, coffee, chocolate, soups, and refreshments in general, at the shortest notice. All the leading newspapers in the union, will be regularly taken in.

Public dinners and suppers in a plain or elegant style either for large or small parties. Also, beef stakes, oysters, &c. regularly furnished. An ordinary every day at half past 2 o'clock, by the public's obedient servant,

JOHN LOVETT.

FOR SALE.

A TRACT of land containing 2,500 acres lying immediately on the river Potowmac, in the county of Northumberland, Virginia, late the residence of PRESLEY THORNTON, Esq. Seventeen hundred acres of which are of the most valuable kind of low grounds on the river; between three and four hundred acres heavily timbered, the remainder is wavy high land extremely productive. The soil of this tract is equal to any in the state for cultivation of corn, wheat, tobacco, timothy, and small grain of all kinds. On this tract are a large commodious two story brick mansion house and two offices, a large brick stable, a valuable barn, cow house and many other out-houses, all in good repair. The orchards and gardens contain a variety of valuable fruit trees, and the waters abound with excellent fish and oysters. It is situated about a day's sail from Alexandria, Baltimore or Norfolk.—There are two good mill seats for grist, or sawmills on this estate, and plenty of cedar and chesnut timber, exclusive of the heavy timber which if sawed up into scantling will command a price in the City of Washington, nearly equal to the value of the land.

The terms will be made easy to the purchaser or purchasers, and the tract will be divided into two or more plantations if necessary.—Apply to

John Weems against John Weems jun. Sarah Weems, Wilhelmina Gantt, Henry Gantt, Philip Barton Key, and Charles Lowndes.

IN CHANCERY, May 12, 1802.

THE object of the bill filed in this cause is to obtain partial relief against a bond, executed by the complainant to the said John Weems jun. for 250l. and a bond to Philip Barton Key, for 500l. It states, that the said bonds were executed by the complainant, to secure a supposed balance to Amelia Weems, one of his father's representatives, due from him, as executor to his father, that the said balance was not justly due from him, because since the decree of this court, directing him to pay money on account of which the said bonds were given, the complainant, as executor aforesaid, hath had a decree against him at the suit of Daniel Kent, for the sum of 1395 1 8 1-2 and that several other suits have been instituted against him as executor.

It states likewise, that the said balance was not due from him, because he was entitled to a contribution from the said Amelia, for money paid by him on a compromise, made of a suit brought against him by William Loch Chew, for the recovery of a tract of land called Loch Eden, which suit his father, by his last will had directed to be defended to the last resort, at the expence of his estate. It is farther stated that some of the defendants reside out of the state.

It is, on the complainant's motion, therefore ordered, That he cause a copy of this order to be inserted, at least once in each of three successive weeks in the National Intelligencer, before the 12th day of June next, to the intent, that the non-resident defendants may have notice of the complainant's application to this court, and of the substance and object of their bill, and may be warned to appear here on or before the second Wednesday in October next, to shew cause wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed.
