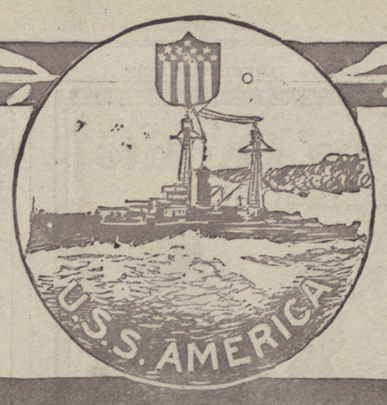
Here's One Unit of Marjorie Sterrett's Army of Battleship



Builders — Join It, Send Your Dime, Wear a Button

"Maybe I'll be a doctor-soldier cause my papa is a doctor," says Thurston T. Lusk, son of Thurston G. Lusk, M. D.

John Henderson Longley, of Pelham Manor. Courtesy of "The Tattler"

Meriden's Marjorie Sterrett, who is helping her New York namesake.

Mary Foster, of New Rochelle. Courtesy of "The Tattler."

"Billy" Ogden, of New Rochelle. Courtesy of "The Tattler."

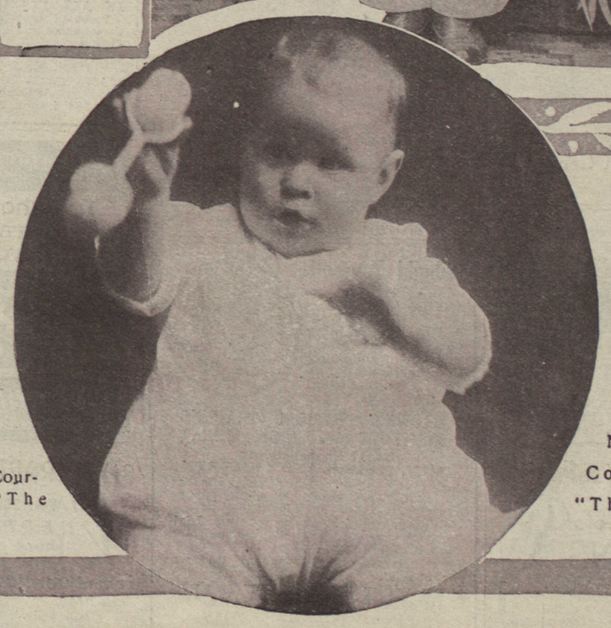
Richard D. Stevenson, of New Rochelle. Courtesy of "The Tattler." Photo by Sutton.

Angers Grant, aged 4, son of Charles Grant, of University Heights, kin to the U. S. Grant family

F. J. Tango, of 244 E. 117th St., a newsstand booster for Marjorie's fund

Jean Pierre Mayo, of New Rochelle. Courtesy of "The Tattler."

Marjorie Klaw, of New Rochelle. Courtesy of "The Tattler"



Jack Constantine, of New Rochelle. Courtesy of "The Tattler"