A German officer's shelter and its furnishings.

The shelter is dug in a sand hole. Press Illustrating Co.

Stops on the Far Flung Battle Line on Many Fronts.

French prisoners, captured in the Verdun battle, being loaded into trains bound for prison camps.

©Underwood & Underwood.

French wire cutters preparing a path for an attack on German trenches in Champagne.

Press Illustrating Co.

British troops camping in the desert in Western Egypt in the campaign against Nuni Bey and his tribesmen.

Photo from Janet M. Cummings.