STOP THE VILLAIN!

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD

MADE his escape from me in the city of Washington a few days ago, after treating me in a most dreadful manner, a mulatto fellow named NOTLY, but passed in Philadelphia as a free man, by the name of JOHN SMITH, where he has been some years past; from which place I have just arrived with him. He took the opportunity, on crossing the commons leading to the Eastern Branch, and attacked me with intent to murder me, saying, "I WILL KILL YOU, BY G—!" I got very much hurt by the kicks and bites I received.—He is about 35 years of age, five feet 7 or 8 inches high, bow-legged, and a brazen look when spoken to; his toes are off his right foot, occasioned by a burn when small. He had on when he made his escape, (which was Wednesday the 23 inst.) a pair of hand cuffs, and a rope about his arms, but it is very likely he has them off by this time—I think if closely examined, marks on his riffs may be discovered. His clothing consisted of a brown cotton trowsers, and striped waistcoat, without a shirt; it is possible he will change his dress. I expect he is making for Philadelphia, as he has a wife and three children there.

Whoever will take up the said fellow and secure him in any jail, and give me information so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward; and if brought home, all reasonable charges paid by me.

GEORGE BEALL, of Patrick.

Living in Prince George's county, state of Maryland, 6 miles below the Federal City.

N. B. I forewarn any person harboring the said fellow, and all masters of vessels taking him off at their peril. G. B.

A Valuable Farm for Sale,

In King George County & State of Virginia.

THIS Farm contains five hundred and thirty five acres—about three hundred and sixty of which are cleared and divided into three fields with good inclosures;—it is situated on Potomac river, and bounded on the South East side for a mile and half by Rosier's creek, which affords a great abundance of fine fish and wild fowl, crabs, oysters, &c—thirty miles from Fredericksburg, forty four from Alexandria, and fifty from Washington City.

On this land are very extensive shell banks, exclusive of the advantages to be derived from these banks by the lime business, they are very favourable to the production of corn and wheat, and the soil inexhaustable; there are about sixty or seventy acres of this kind of land, and the balance (not cleared) of an excellent quality, and a great number of springs of fine water; it can with certainty be classed among the most healthy situations below the falls of Potomac—indeed, the natural advantages attending this place are innumerable.

The improvements are a two story framed dwelling house, sixty four feet long, commanding a beautiful view of the creek and river; one other house intended for an office, twenty five feet by eighteen with three rooms and a cellar in good repair; a large house, including a stable for eight horses, a corn house, carriage house, saddle and harness-room, and a commodious granary above, and other convenient buildings on the Farm—a small orchard of well chosen apple and peach trees—the yard and garden inclose this spring, with pales and railing—The whole plantation in good repair, and the land in a great state of improvement.

The terms of Sale will be made known by Mr Frances Whiting, who in a short time will be a resident of Berkley county, or by the subscriber on the premises.

Jacob Mettard, senior, vs. John Coppenheffer, Mary Whetmore, Elizabeth Whetmore, Michael Whetmore, Catharine Whetmore, George Whetmore, Nicholas Whetmore, Susan Whetmore, and Margaret Whetmore.	IN CHANCERY, July 17, 1802.

THE bill in this case states that a certain Michael Whetmore in his life time gave a bond of conveyance to the defendant John Coppenheffer for eight acres of land, situate, lying, and being in Frederick county, in the state of Maryland, being part of a lot of ground known and distinguished by number six, as confiscated and sold by the state of Maryland, and part of a tract of land called "Long Acre," being part of "Tasker's Chance." That the said John Coppenheffer, having paid the whole purchase money assigned the said bond to the complainant for a valuable consideration, and prays a decree for the conveyance of the aforesaid land to the complainant and his heirs.

The complainant states that the defendants Mary Whetmore Elizabeth Whetmore, Michael Whetmore, Catharine Whetmore, George Whetmore, Nicholas Whetmore, Susan Whetmore and Margaret Whetmore, are the heirs at law of the aforesaid Michael Whetmore, deceased. That they are all minors residing out of the state of Maryland.—It is therefore, on motion of the complainant, Ordered and adjudged, that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted at least once in each of three weeks before the last day of August, in the National Intelligencer of the City of Washington, to the intent that the heirs at law of the aforesaid Michael Whetmore or their guardian may have notice of the present application, and of the substance and object of the bill, and may be warned to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 24th day of December next, to shew cause if any they have, why a decree should not pass as prayed.

POST OFFICE.

Washington, July 22, 1802.

THE Post Master respectfully inform those inhabitants who cannot make it convenient to call at the Office and pay their postage account before the first day of next month, that he shall be under the necessity of declining to credit them thereafter.

Although the expence, loss, and trouble of keeping, copying and presenting for payment, a great number of small accounts, might be urged as a sufficient reason for discontinuing the practice, even in cases of punctual payment being made on demand; yet, the Postmaster would, as heretofore, readily yield his convenience and accommodation to that of the inhabitants; but when they are assured that several total losses have been sustained, and a considerable amount, long since due to the office, still remains unpaid, notwithstanding payment has been applied for and the Postmaster has been obliged to account for and pay it to government, they doubtless will all admit that it would be remissness in duty to continue to give credit under such circumstances. With those who will pay at the office monthly, in future, accounts will with pleasure be kept, if it will be a convenience to them, and they express a wish for it to be done.
