LAND FOR SALE.

The ſubſcriber offers for ſale

the tract of Land where he now lives, lying in King George County, on Potomac Creek, containing eleven hundred and ten acres;—This Land is very heavily timbered with all the different kinds of timber common to this climate, and a rich ſoil. Is bounded by the creek about three quarters of a mile, where the water is from eight to ten feet deep. There is an excellent Rock fiſhery on it, and at the fiſhing ſhore (which is conſidered a good ſtand for a ſtore.) there is a ſtore, a dwelling houſe, kitchen, ſtable, and corn-houſe, a good garden, &c. About a mile from the Creek is a good dwelling houſe, containing five rooms, every convenient out-houſe, a well encloſed, yard, garden, &c. at preſent occupied by the Subſcriber. From the ſituation of this land, the goodneſs of its ſoil (which is adapted to the growth of corn, wheat, and tobacco) the quantity of wood it contains, its contiguity to the water, and facility of conveyance to Alexandria and the City of Waſhington, induces the ſubſcriber to believe that he will meet with a ready ſale, as he is determined to aſk a moderate price to induce a ſpeedy ſale. For terms apply to Daniel C. Brent, Eſqr. and Mr. Jeremiah Booth, of the City of Waſhington, or to the Subſcriber, or in his abſence, to Mr. John Murphy, who lives on the premiſes.

District of Virginia,

RICHMOND, Supervisor's Office
June. 30, 1802.

IT being believed that conſiderable portions of lands in the back counties of the ſtates of Virginia, on which the Direct Tax of the United States remains unpaid, are owned by perſons reſiding out of the ſtate; and the ſame having been advertiſed, in purſuance of the act of Congreſs of the 16th of March laſt, amendatory of the act entitled "An act to lay and collect a Direct Tax within the United States," as may be ſeen by the notification of the Superviſor of the 2d of June laſt, and running in the Examiner of Richmond, that being the paper in which the laws of the ſtate are printed, to be ſold for the tax and coſts, in all caſes where the tax ſhall not be paid within ſix months from the date of the notification agreeably to the direction of the laſt amendatory act; it is recommended to all who own lands in the ſaid ſtate, where they do not know the tax to have been paid, to take meaſures for having the tranſcripts which have been lodged at the Superviſor's Office at Richmond, as directed by the ſaid laſt-mentioned act, examined, in order to the effectuating & paying ſuch tax where due. And as, in ſome inſtances, lands have been aſſeſſed in the name of perſons theretofore owning, but who have alienated them, it is further recommended that, upon ſending to examine the tranſcripts, all names known to have been at any time connected as owner or owners with any tract or tracts in queſtion, be ſent forward, the better to guide the examination. The ſales will take place generally in the month of December next, on dates which may be ſeen in the notification referred to above. This ſhort ſketch of the buſineſs is publiſhed in ſome of the papers of other ſtates as a means of more certainly calling the attention of perſons concerned, to the ſubject.

UNITED STATES,

District of Columbia and County of Waſhington.

IN CHANCERY, 9th Oct. 1802.

THE UNITED STATES, Complainant
againſt
Samuel Jackſon of Virginia, William Shannon and Joſhua B. Bond of Philadelphia, and Frederick Shaffer, and Philip Fitzhugh of the ſtate of Maryland. Defendants.

THE object of the Bill is to forecloſe all and every equity of redemption which the defendants or any of them may have of and in four acres and one eighth of an acre of ground with the Buildings and improvements thereon, ſituate in Thomas Beall of George, his ſecond addition to George Town, the ſame being part of a larger tract of land called the Rock of Dunbarton; and by the ſale of the ſame to raiſe and to ſatisfy to the United States the ſum of 5750 dollars, with intereſt thereon, from the third day of June 1797 till paid and the coſts of the ſuit.

The bill ſtates that Samuel Jackſon, the defendant, being ſeized of this property in fee on the 3d day of June 1797, mortgaged it to the defendant William Shannon, to ſecure to him or his aſſigns the ſaid ſum of 5750 dollars, with intereſt as aforeſaid, on or before the 3d day of June 1801, that the ſaid William Shannon, by deed duly executed and recorded, aſſigned that mortgage for the whole intereſt to Oliver Wolcott, Eſquire, then Secretary of the Treaſury for the United States, for the uſe and benefit of the ſaid United States, which deed bears date on the 21ſt day of February 1800—that the whole ſum of 5750 dollars, with accruing intereſt from the 3d day of June 1797 ſtill remains due and unſatisfied to the ſaid United States—that the ſaid Samuel Jackſon afterwards mortgaged the ſame property to the ſaid William Shannon by deed bearing date on the 13th day of May 1800 to ſecure the payment of one other ſum of money due or pretended to be due to the ſaid Shannon—That on the twentieth day of June 1800 the ſaid Jackſon by Indenture conveyed or pretended to convey the ſaid property to the above named Philip Fitzhugh in fee ſimple, that the ſaid Fitzhugh by Indenture bearing date on the 13th day of April 1801, conveyed or pretended to convey the ſaid property to the above named Joſhua B. Bond and Frederick Shaffer.

The Bill further ſtates that Samuel Jackſon the defendant lives in the county of Weſtmoreland in the Commonwealth of Virginia, that William Shannon and Joſhua B. Bond, two of the defendants above named, reſide in the City of Philadelphia, that Philip Fitzhugh, one of the defendants above named reſides in the county of Prince George's in the ſtate of Maryland, and that Frederick Shaffer the other defendant reſides in the city of Baltimore, in the ſtate of Maryland.

It is upon the motion of John T. Maſon, Attorney for the United States for the Diſtrict of Columbia, ordered that a copy of this order be inſerted at leaſt once in each of three ſucceſſive weeks in the National Intelligencer and the Waſhington Federaliſt, and in Poulſons Daily Advertiſer and the Aurora in Philadelphia, before the 20th day of November next, to the intent that the aforeſaid defendants, and all other perſons (if any there be) intereſted in the premiſes may have notice of this application on behalf of the United States, and of the ſubſtance and object of the ſaid Bill, and that each of the ſaid defendants may be warned to appear here in perſon or by ſolicitor, on or before the fourth Monday in December next, to ſhew cauſe, if any they can, why a decree ſhould not paſs, as prayed for in and by the ſaid Bill.

By Order,
URIAH FORREST, Clerk.
