WASHINGTON CITY.

WEDNESDAY, April 13th.

The country has long been difgraced by the falfehood and fcurrility with which feveral of the confpicuous federal prints have teemed, which have taken a malignant pleafure in blafting private character. A proud and innocent man will rarely ftoop to an explanation with fuch affailants of his reputation. Hence, in many inftances, charges have been made without an expofure of their falfehood.

We have now however, the means of prefenting to the public an inftance of traduction, unfurpaffed for malignity, and of an expofure that muft filence calumny. Who originated the calumny we neither know, nor wifh to know.

Extract from the News-paper styled the Republican or Anti Democrat, printed at Baltimore, in the State of Maryland, on Friday the 4th of March, 1803.

"When Mr. commonly called Charles Pinckney, arrived at Madrid, he found Mr. Humphreys, the oufted minifter, ready to fell his furniture, &c. apending to his fituation as minifter: Mr. Pinckney wifhed to purchafe, Mr. Humphreys fold and took the fellow's bills on perfons in America. When Mr. Humphreys arrived here and prefented his Bills, they were protefted, as Pinckney well knew they would be: and Mr. Humphreys has now only Pinckney's character for fecurity. And [illegible] Pinckney's character? [illegible] many a man to the———"

To S. H. Smith, Editor of the National Intelligencer.

Charleston, March 26, 1803.

SIR,

ON the fourth inftant there appeared in a Baltimore newfpaper, called the Anti Democrat, a fcurrilous paragraph, which ftates that a Bill of Exchange drawn by Charles Pinckney, Efq. in Madrid, in favor of David Humphreys, Efq. has not been paid, has been protefted, as Mr. Pinckney knew it would be, and that Mr. Humphreys has no redrefs.

That a pointed contradiction may be given to thefe bafe affertions, I requeft you will publifh the bill alluded to, and the following authenticated certificates, which will clearly fhew that the bill was paid a day fooner than was neceffary, and that the amount thereof was duly paffed to the credit of the Cafhier of the Bank of the United States, to whom Mr. Humphreys, and the perfons through whofe hands it had paffed, had made it payable. If, (which is very improbable) Mr. Humphreys has not received his money, the Bank of the United States is bound to inform him why, and by whom it is detained. It is certain that Mr. Pinckney, and thofe on whom the bill was drawn in this place are liable to no cenfure.

I am, Sir,

Your Obedient Servant,

DANIEL D'OYLEY.

Extract of a letter from a merchant in Aux Cayes to his correspondent in New York, dated March 14th, received via Philadelphia.

"On the 7th inftant we were attacked by the Negroes, who, after a clofe engagement of three quarters of an hour, were repulfed with the lofs of 500 men killed. On their retreat they left 300 mufkets on the field. Our lofs was only one Polifh captain killed, and three men wounded. Nearly all the mulattoes in Aux Cayes revolted, and joined the negroes. The latter had burnt the greater part of La Plaine, and affaffinated feveral white inhabitants. Our troops made a fortie on the 9th, and found many black women amongft the killed; a great number of men wounded in the engagement of the 7th, had fince died. Upon one plantation five black women were found dead, with 18 jemiohns in their poffeffion. Orders from the Cape were received on the 13th, to prepare 9000 additional rations for troops which might be hourly expected. A frigate, it is faid, has landed between 3 and 400 at Aquin. The inhabitants are much alarmed, and conftantly on duty; and the commander in chief, fearful that he fhould be furprifed in the night, has ordered alarm guns to be frequently fired, that the inhabitants and the troops may be vigilant at their pofts."

NASHVILLE, (Ten.) Feb. 16, 1803.

Letter from the hon. Jofeph Anderfon, one of the Senators of this ftate in Congrefs.

FEDERAL CITY, Jan. 13, 1803.

Fellow Citizens, Merchants of Nashville and of the district of Mero.

Judging of the feelings of my fellow citizens by my own, and interefted for our common welfare, immediately after my arrival at this place, I waited on the Prefident of the United States, and had fome communication with him relative to the conduct of the Intendant at New-Orleans. The Prefident affured me, he had taken immediate fteps to have the injury redreffed, and the Spanifh minifter, the Chevalier D'Yrujo, had fhewn very great anxiety on the occafion, infomuch, that on the firft information he received, he fent his fecretary to Philadelphia, to hire a faft failing packet, to proceed immediately to the Havanna, the governor of which, we underftand, hath a controul over the Intendant at New-Orleans; an exprefs was alfo fent to Orleans by land. Our fellow citizens may reft affured, that nothing within the power of the Executive will be left undone, to reftore to them (as fpeedily as poffible) all the benefits which they have heretofore enjoyed, conformable to the Spanifh treaty. If, however, the powers and exertions of the Prefident, fhould not be able to effect this, to us, all important, and very defirable object, I feel authorifed to fay, that we the people (in conjunction with the Executive) will use our best endeavors to effect it. In fupport of this opinion, I enclofe a refolution of the houfe of reprefentatives, which was paffed yefterday with clofed doors, [publifhed in our Herald of the 19th ult.] the debates are therefore not known. Prudence dictated this meafure, as fome warm things would no doubt have been faid upon a fubject fo deeply interefting to the dignity and commerce of thefe ftates; and it was thought beft to proceed with moderation in the firft fteps. The latter part of the refolution is, however, tho' mildly, yet firmly expreffive of the determination of the people in a laft refort.

By the firft conveyance I will tranfmit whatever I may obtain upon this important fubject.

With fentiments of efteem, I am very refpectfully, your fellow citizen,

JOSEPH ANDERSON.

Lexington, March 29.

On Monday the 21ft inft. being the day appointed by law for that purpofe, the fhare holders in the Vineyard company, met at the houfe of Capt. John Poftlethwait, in the town of Lexington, in order to elect twelve directors for the enfuing year, when the following gentlemen were elected, viz.—John Bradford, William Macbean, James M'Coun, Benj. Stout, Samuel Brown, George Anderfon, John A. Seitz, Thomas Hart, jun. Henry Marfhal, Robert Patterfon, Walker Baylor and Andrew M'Calla.

Nothing could exceed the fatisfaction expreffed by the fhare-holders at the meeting. Many individuals had fubfcribed to the inftitution with little expectation of its ultimate fuccefs. All doubts however on this point are now completely removed; for Mr. Dufour at this meeting, prefented the company with two fpecies of wine, one made from the Madeira grape, the other from that of the Cape of Good Hope—Several foreigners who tafted it, gave it as their opinion that thefe wines were equal to any of the fame age in Europe; they were produced from cuttings brought from New-York and Philadelphia, in the year 1798.

The production of an article in our own ftate, the general ufe of which cannot fail of effecting important changes in our manners and morals, as it will tend to banifh the deftructive ufe of ardent fpirits, was confidered by the company as an event worthy of a feftival; accordingly the company met at the fame place the fucceeding day, and after dinner drank the follow toafts in Kentucky Wine:

1ft. The firft Vineyard in Ketucky—May the public fpirited example of its patrons, animate the inhabitants of the Weftern country to fimilar exertions.

2d. Succefs to all affociations for cultivating the Vine in our fifter ftates.

3d. The wide fpreading branches of the Kentucky Vine—A quiet refting place for the virtuous and oppreffed fons of William Tell.

4th. The Agriculture and Manufacture of the weftern country.

5th. The free navigation of the Miffiffippi.

6th. May thofe who feek war or a feparation from the union, never tafte the juice of the grape.

7th. May the fons of Columbia have the wifdom to admire and honor the benefactors and not the deftroyers of the human race.

8th. The moft pleafing union—The Myrtle of Venus with the Vine of Baccus.

The Subscribers to the THEATRE are requested to meet at Lovell's Hotel on Friday Morning, at 10 o'clock.

The celebrated and beautiful high blooded running horfe

WILD MEDLEY,

WILL ftand in the city of Wafhington, to be let to mares at twenty five dollars the feafon which will commence on the 10th of March inftant, and end on the 10th day of Auguft next; but twenty dollars will be received in full difcharge, if paid within the feafon, and one dollar to the groom in all cafes. Good and extenfive pafturage well inclofed, at 50 cents per week, near the city; but, though the utmoft care will be taken, there will be no refponfibility for accidents or efcapes. The above horfe is in the higheft form, and with uncommon powers. He meafures full fifteen hands three inches high, and is a beautiful deep blood bay. He was lately purchafed of Mr. Stubblefield of Gloucefter county, Virginia, by W. Thornton.—Enquiries concerning this capital horfe may be made at Mr. Rhodes's, and Mr. Lovell's Tavern.

March 8th, 1803.

PEDIGREE.

(Which cannot be excelled.)

Wild Medley was gotten by the imported horfe old Medley, his dam by Wild Air, his grand dam by Shandy, his great grand dam was the famous running mare old Sportley, which was gotten by old Janus. The dam of Sportley was purchafed by General Thomas Nelfon from the Spanifh Main, and fold by him to Col. Lewis Burwell of Gloucefter county.

Given under our hands this 14th day of January, 1801.

Meaux Thornton,
Lewis Burwell.

I had the following from good authority

Wild Medley, (which was foaled the property of Mr. Nuttall of Gloucefter court house) ran at four years old four times, and never was pufhed, but won every race under a hard pull. He won at Urbanna the two mile heats. He won at King William court-houfe the three mile heats. He won at Gloucefter another purfe, and laftly was run by Colonel Bofkins at Hanover Town, and won as I heard, with much credit, the four mile heats. His owner then died, and he has not run fince, but has been kept as a ftud.

William Johnston.

I certify that I faw Wild Medley run at Urbanna, and in the two mile heats double-diftance feven of the beft horfes in the country, the firft heat, although he carried fifteen pounds over weight, and his rider kept him back as much as laid in his power.

Ralph Wormeley, Jun.

March, 1803.

I do certify, that I had two foals got by Wild Medley, a filly four years old this fpring fold to John Tayloe, Efquire, of Mount-Airy, for 1200 dollars, and a colt now three years old this fpring, for which I would not take lefs than 1500 dollars; and I alfo am acquainted with feveral of Wild Medley's colts, which I think as fine as any I know, and I think him as good a foal-getter as any horfe that ever ftood in thefe parts.

John Wood.

Gloucefter county, March 1, 1803.

Wood's filly won the Urbanna fweepftakes laft June, beating Mr Hall's horfe; my filly, by Cormorant; and col. Kemp's filly, by America; and I think (but am unable to fay pofitively) he diftanced the field the fecond heat. I alfo underftood the won the fweepftakes at Wood's Ordinary in Gloucefter, by diftancing the field. Both thefe fweepftakes were two mile heats.

John Tayloe.

I do certify, that I have feen Wood's filly and colt now in training at Mount-Airy, the feat of John Tayloe, Efq. and I think them both elegant; the colt the fineft of his age I ever faw. I have alfo feen Mr. Gibb's colt, and think him fine. I am credibly informed that Mr. Giles Cook, Colonel Thomas Roan, Major Thomas Hartley, Mr. William Robfon, Mr. Jofeph Hall, and feveral others, afk from 500 to 800 dollars for each of their colts by Wild Medley; and I never heard of a horfe having fo good a character as a foal-getter, nor fo much lamented in leaving a place, as Wild Medley in leaving Gloucefter county.

Given under my hand this 4th March, 1803.

William Johnston.

INTERESTING.

LETTER from the Honorable A. C. Hanfon, Efq. Chancellor of the ftate of Maryland.

To the Editor of the Maryland Gazette

SIR—For the good of the public, as well as from a defire to do juftice to a man of merit and genius, I requeft you to publifh the following cafes.

A young man in my family, who had read Dr. Hamilton's advertifement, and who had, for fome time, as he fays, experienced the fymptoms defcribed by the doctor, as indicating the prefence of worms in the human ftomach or inteftines, refolved, without confulting any perfon whatever, to try the doctor's remedy.

He accordingly procured a box of the Lozenges. Laft evening he took 4 of the yellow and this morning he took an equal number of the brown kind. They did not, as he fays, operate harfhly, except one ftool, when he felt a confiderable griping, and with there came from him a worm, perfectly white about a yard in length, as broad as his little finger, and having a number of joints, about an inch or a 1-4 of an inch diftant from each other.

Befides this worm, he fays there came from him a confiderable number of fmall worms, about 3-4 of an inch in length and nearly the the fame in breadth. He did not think of counting them, but he fays there were more than 20.

I regret extremely that I had not an opportunity of feeing the tape worm; the young man not having, as he ought, to have done, taken meafures for preferving it, and the fimple fervant girl, who attended his chamber, having, before I had heard of his taking the medicine, thrown it and the other worms into the neceffary, not thinking it of confequence to take care of them. The girl, however, and another fervant concurs with him refpecting the worms which appeared in the veffel; and the tape worm, they fay, was alive, fo far as to have motion, after it came from him.

It is needlefs to defcribe his fymptoms, as he fays they were exactly fuch as are defcribed by the doctor.

Another young man of my family alfo, without any confultation or advice, one evening, and morning about three months ago, took 7 Lozenges which operated powerfully. No worm came from; but in the courfe of 2 or 3 days he was quite well; and has fince had a confiderable acceffion of flefh and ftrength.

In fhort, although I, like many others, have been incredulous with refpect to the virtue of Hamilton's Lozenges, I am at length perfectly convinced of their great efficacy and utility.

As I cannot reafonably be fuppofed to have any motive except a confideration for public good, for publifhing thefe cafes, I flatter myfelf that I fhall not incur ridicule or cenfure from unthinking men, for adding my fecond hand teftimony to the evidence of the numerous refpectable characters who have aimed to render juftice to Dr. Hamilton (with whom I have not the flighteft acquaintance) and to give important information to their fellow creatures.

I think it not amifs to add, that, from the healthy appearance of the young man, who has been fo greatly and quickly relieved, I fhould have ridiculed his fymptoms and apprehenfions had he communicated them to me before he took the Lozenges. The fact, I am perfuaded, is, that moft young perfons, who are, from time to time, diforderd, without a vifible or apparent caufe, are afflicted by worms.
