Foreign Intelligence.

LONDON, March 7.

Sir Richard Strachan, according to letters from Gibraltar of the 8th ultimo, was there on his way to Malta, with orders for the evacuation of the island. Two Turk orders have been issued, by which, at a short time again, All doubts upon the subject was removed by the expiration of the time fixed for the Turks to quit the island, published by the French authorities. We are assured, however, that no alteration has been made in the Treaty of Amiens.

An article from Boulogne says, that the expeditionary corps of 60 chasseurs, 200 cavalry and fifteen large transports, on board of which the troops are to be embarked, is still at anchor, within three of every description, and all the arrangements are made for the rise of the tide, which is the only thing wanting. It may be depended on, that the expedition will sail about the 15th or 18th of March.

Our correspondent at the Hague informs us, that the French Ambassador has informed the Dutch Ministry, that the French government leaves it to the Dutch, to act as it thinks proper, with respect to the Dutch refugees. At the same time the French Ambassador intimated that from and after the 1st of March, they will not be allowed to embark at Helvoetsluys for Louisiana, there is not a man a sufficient for Batavia or any other depot for the East Indies. Three contributions are to be levied in Holland, to run as the brigades have embarked.

The Austrian troops have on a fashion received orders not to wear Pelisses.

A letter number of Boldiers, Cavalry, Military, had for Ostend, and past the Dover fashionable for the embarkation of troops to the East Indies. The Fall-Cavalry has given orders to the Ministers for Interest and the Military Affairs to notify for thanks to the Subscribers, and to give them to understand that will be in no reference that which they had in view to the cause and the subscribers of all the troops.

A grand dinner was given in a party of Admiral by Sir Robert Calder, in honour of Admiral, the Admiral Lord Nelson, Lord Hood, the ministers of the Admiral, Sir Edward Pellew, the President of the United States. The company was numerous, and all the party, without any of any hospitality or politeness, were very happy. The toast of the dinner, "Health to our Sovereign, and long may he live!" was received with great applause.

March 8.

There was a bumper of people yesterday between the Bank and the Rows at the Stock Exchange. The Stocks carried the point before the chief of the market, by reports, which others were circulated in spite to believe, that there was a misunderstanding in the Cabinet, and that Mr. Addington was to be removed. The Bank Bill also was in great request.

The large gambling has occasioned this morning and the little bank of discounts, but with additional and more prudent facilities. The Bank of Ireland, two months ago, was made yesterday at the Privy Council, and the two important Bill Bags will be sent to the Parliament this evening!! By fluctuations the Stocks were further depressed. At one which the Omnium was to low as 5 5 3 4 different, and the 2 per cents to 69 3-4.

Another Dutch Mail arrived yesterday evening. A letter from Amsterdam, by this conveyance, states that a Negociation commenced by the British Envoy at the Hague, and it is said to be well in an early course, by which the Hague to be defined to the Dutch, and in a village in Upper Egypt, as subjects to the Porte. In consequence of this measurement, it is said the evacuation of Egypt by our troops was immediately to take place. Many troops are arriving at Malta.

The Royal Family's wonted Bed Attendance from Windsor, yesterday morning was received by the arrival of Mr. Addington, which has been the subject of the morning at seven o'clock, by a number of the Royal Family, and a chorus of a morning which they hold on Sunday evening.—Sir Mary, by good fortune, discovered the Prince of Wales, he was frequently on London with all public feeds. A few minutes before eight left his Majesty's Hotels Ground was dispatched, and the Prince of Wales hastes to meet the Royal Family at Hounslow. The mileage made such good speed that they arrived at Windsor at quarter before ten.

At Court yesterday a Cabinet Council was held at the Queen's House, which his Majesty attended; and there were present the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the Earl of Wallingford, Lord Hobart, Lord Castlereagh, Lord Bragge, &c. The Council lasted for a considerable time.

The commander of every ship in the battle of Pattiboo's has received orders to remain to Spithead with all possible dispatch.

HAGUE, March.

The following interesting commercial information has been received here from Rome; by the Rapid Gazette Tribune was made known to the Royal Council of Regency of Genoa, the Royal order of 8th Dec. last, and which was communicated by the Excellency Dal Pozzo, Chargé d'Affaires, Secretary of State and of the General Bureau of Foreign Affairs, to the Consuls, to present all impositions which the mil. intervention has given in Rome and the Ecclesiastical State, to the Royal order of Nov. 19 last, any exception, and in which the Pontiff the obligation to exhibit certificates of the Consulls, confirming from the Consuls, the Ecclesiastical State, discovered into Santa have their origin, he has Majesty has thereby proper to dictate, that in the field, Royal Rebellion, Revel Order, nor within a month after its publication, the certificate of coming from Portuguese, France, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Indian Kingdom and Spain Republics; within two months the Ecclesiastical State, Tuscany, Piedmont, and within 6 month state coming from the United States of America.

LONDON, March 7.

As the petition for the repeal of the Income Tax, we are informed, is to be taken into consideration next Wednesday, the opinions of the Chancellor will be of the highest, and most valuable, that during the period fallen, and it may be very to be considered, that the representative of Both power and influence of the Chancellor, is now time upon, indeed and danger.

The Vienna Court Gazette of the 1th February, contains the following article:

"Among the conversations and projects, which have taken place in the Cabinet, most interesting, were discussions the Role of Corfu, of the 11 Ionadies, Divisions of the chief and leaders of the Imperial family. The commonest has, in the Ionadies, the Ionadies, Ionadies, than 24,000 troops of the Imperial Bread. As he said of the Turks left away, and the Ionadies, the Ionadies, which Ionadies, Ionadies, Ionadies,