Philadelphia, June 23.

OF MIRANDA.

In addition to the contents of the following letter, we learn by the Resolution, that the two schooners were carried into Porto Cavello, and that the Leander was cruising off the Rocos:

Extract of a letter from Carraccas, dated 15th May.

"Ever since the departure of the traitor Miranda from New-York, we have watched his motions, and observed all his operations at Jacqemel. On the 25th of March he appeared on the coast with the corvette Leander and two schooners, the Bacchus and the Bee. He landed five emissaries, and on the same day he was attacked by our vessels of war—he sustained the attack with courage for a moment, but observing our vessel preparing to board, he fled in a dastardly manner, after throwing over part of his military store.

"The two schooners were captured after a slight resistance. Three of the persons on board threw themselves into the sea—but two of them were immediately picked up, the other was drowned.

"We have taken 50 of these Brigands, who will soon have their trial. We have also taken the five emissaries who were landed, with their commissions, uniforms, &c. guns, pistols, saddles, military stores, and a number of proclamations headed with LIBERTY, and printed by your printers to revolutionize this province. In a word, we have captured all but the Leander, and there is little doubt she will soon be brought in by our vessels who are in pursuit of her. A great reward is offered for the capture of her and capt. Lewis."

Arrived at New Castle, the ship Eugenia, Sturges from Canton. (mentioned yesterday) At the Bocca Tigris was boarded by 3 armed boats crews from the British ships of war Blenheim of 74, and Hughes of 50 guns, who brought the Eugenia to anchor, detained her during the night, broke up the stowage of all articles on the gun deck and in the gun room, and put every thing in confusion and disorder, under pretent of searching for deserters:——not finding any, they pressed the ship's steward and 2 American seamen, one of whom had an American protection——on application being made to capt. Eisle, (the commodore) for their release, he refused to give them up, declareing "that he wanted men for his majesty's service in India and should take them wherever he could find them, without paying any regard to American protections, which he could purchase in the United States for 50 cents per dozen."

The above statement of the treatment we received from capt. B. is simply a narrative of facts, on which the public will make their own comments. I will only observe that we were very weakly manned in the first instance, the loss of 3 of our best seamen compelled us to stop at Macod and procure several Chinese to assist in navigating the ship to America and eventually to proceed with a very unpleasant prospect. In a conversation I had with captain B. on the subject, he treated the idea of the American government's protecting their seamen with the utmost contempt.

May 1st, a company's packet from Bengal, for England touched at S. Helena, and brought intelligence of a peace between the British and all the native powers of India.

June 10th lat. 30, 1, long. 69, 30. W. spoke brig Eliza, Conners, of New York, 6 days from St. Thomas.

Baltimore, June 25.

Accounts have been circulated at Havanna, but were not generally believed, at the time capt. Spafford sailed (15th inst.) stating, that Miranda had been taken and imprisoned.

VIENNA, April 17

A courier from Palermo lately arrived here. We are not without inquietude on account of the demonstration of Buonaparte to seize the Island of Sicily; but all proper measures have been taken there to oppose a descent. The straits is covered with Russian English, and Neapolitan ships, and the utmost efforts will be made to prevent the island from falling into the power of the French. It is at this time especially that the English feel all the importance of their possession of Malta.

We are assured that the French have likewise demanded of the court of Vienna a passage through Croatia.

M. De Mayer, Quarter-Master General, set out lately to inspect the situation of Wells, Willach, & Budweis, which are believed to be very capable of defence, should it be necessary again to have recourse to arms.

A war between Russia and Prussia appears to be considered here as inevitable.

AUGSBURGH, April 15.

Yesterday early the nephew of the French Minister for foreign affairs, M. Talleyrand, arrived here, and after a short stay proceeded to Memingen. He brings orders to Marshall Ney to break up, with his corps, for the Rhine. Marshall Soult and his corps will do the same. The Russians have evacuated Cataro and Ragusa, and the differences between France and Austria are accommodated.

("The report of the evacuation of Cataro, according to other accounts is doubted).——Note of Hamburg Editor.
