ORDINANCE

Of his Danish Majesty, defining what is to be observed by foreign vessels in regard to quarantine regulations.

His Majesty the King most graciously orders by his mandate of the 22d of October last, that whenever any accounts are received of the existence of the yellow fever in the United States of America, or when no particular advice is received to the contrary from the minister resident there, all American vessels which are not provided with health certificates from the beginning of the month of July until the end of the year are to submit to certain quarantine regulations, and even if they are provided with such certificates these vessels are still prohibited to communicate with the shore, before they have been visited by the appointed health physicians, and if he has the least suspicion then the vessel must be dealt with accordingly, in conformity to which no American vessel, during such a time shall be piloted except having hoisted the green flag.

Which gracious command is hereby published for the regulation of all concerned.—Given at the Danish Royal Chancery, on the 5th of November 1802.

Extract of an ordinance concerning quarantine regulations and rules, to be observed by navigators who touch at the ports or coasts of the Royal Danish dominions, dated at Copenhagen, the 14th November, 1800.

1. Every vessel belonging to our own dominions shall have a green flag on board, to be used as prescribed hereafter.

2. Whenever a vessel arrives from a place where there has been any contagion and in all other cases of suspicion, such as having been visited by any vessel from the Barbary Coast, having bales of merchandize on board from suspected places, and having not undergone a quarantine since in any other place, or having had any virulent sickness on board during the voyage, then the green flag shall be hoisted at the head of the mainmast, before any communication is had with any person whatever from the shore, and before anchor is cast.

3. The commander of any vessel offending against these orders, shall pay a fine of 500 rix dollars (400 dollars) if no dangerous consequences ensue from his misconduct; but if otherwise he shall be punished with twelve years labor in the fortifications—and should any malicious intent be proved upon him, he shall labour in irons during his life. Any vessel having had communication with another vessel that is suspicious, shall be subject to the same regulations and restrictions.

7. Should such a vessel be under the necessity of immediate communication with the shore, she must hoist her own national colours, from the foretop, or under the green flag if she has no foremast.

8. After hoisting the colour on the fore-top, the signal for a pilot, the pilot shall immediately go on board, but not leave the ship board until the health physician has visited her—and for every day that the pilot is detained, he shall receive one rix dollar.

9. To prevent unnecessary delays to such vessels as are arrived from places that might be suspected, (such as the Mediterranean or the West-Indies) but still are secure and free from contagion, not having been at infected places, nor having any suspected merchandize on board, and not having had communication with any vessel which could be suspected —nor had any one sick or dead during the voyage, we do order that for such cases all pilots shall be provided with blanks as hereafter written, which the captain and mate of such vessel shall sign, viz:—

Undersigned N. N. commander of the ship N. arrived from N. and N. W. mate of the said vessel, declare, to their certain knowledge, that neither any of the ship's crew, or any other person, nor any merchandize or thing of whatever kind on board of the said vessel is infected with contagion or any dangerous disease; and that the vessel has not been visited by any cruisers from the African coast or the Levant, and has had none dead or sick with an infectious fever during the voyage, to help us God and his holy word; and if this deposition should be found false, we subject ourselves to be dealt with according to the laws of the land.

10. Blanks of this deposition will be printed in different languages, for the use of foreign vessels that might be subject to the quarantine regulations. As foreign vessels may not always be provided with a green flag, the pilots are bound to have one continually in readiness, to be hoisted in aforementioned cases. If the green flag has been used longer than for one day, the pilot shall receive two rix dollars for the same, but the vessel may then keep it.

Any vessel sailing from the port of New-York for his majesty's dominions, from the 1st of July to the last of December, must be provided with (besides the usual bill of health) a certificate from the Danish Vice-Consul.—Mr. Hammeken resides at No. 78 Pearl-street, where attendance will be given.

50 DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber living at Popis Creek in the county of Westmoreland, and state of Virginia, on the 19th inst. a negro man named FRANK, by trade a blacksmith, of a tawny complexion, long visage and remarkable fine soft voice; about forty-five years of age, five feet four or six inches high, straight limbed. He generally wore a long tail'd coat; but it is not known certainly what clothes he took with him—he may easily be detected, as he has taken with one of his youngest sons named John, who is not more than 9 years of age and is of a very black complexion and a long visage, like his father. I am induced to think, Frank has made for some of the large towns particularly Alexandria or Baltimore, in the former, of which, or its neighborhood, he has a free brother by the name of Rogers, who did live near Dr. Smith's, upon Ravensworth in the county of Fairfax. The above reward will be given to any person who will secure said Frank with his son and give information thereof to the subscriber. And 100 dollars if taken out of the state, and the money paid as soon as I get him.
