MRS. MARY GREEN.

Mary Fry, daughter of Thomas Walker Fry and Elizabeth Smith Fry, first married Mr. Lawrence. Major Fry Lawrence, of Louisville, is her son. She married, second, Rev. Lewis W. Green, D. D., the eminent Presbyterian minister, of whom it was said by one equally great, "Lewis W. Green was successively pastor in Baltimore, professor in the Theological Seminary in Hanover, President of Hampden Sidney College, President of Transylvania University, and six years President of Centre College, everywhere equal to his great opportunities, and one of the most eloquent men of a generation in Kentucky abounding in eloquent men."*

The children of this marriage were two :

JULIA, who married Matthew T. Scott, of Lexington, Ky. Mr. Scott afterward became a citizen of Bloomington, Ill., where he was a business man of great ability. He died May 21, 1891, leaving two children, Mary Letitia and Julia.

The other daughter of Dr. L. W. Green and Mrs. Mary Green was Letitia, who married Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson, a distinguished lawyer of Bloomington, Ill. When a young man at Centre College he met Miss Lettie Green, whom he shortly afterward married. She was beautiful and accomplished and beloved by all who knew her.

Mr. Stevenson was born in Christian county, Ky. He was a member of Congress and Assistant Postmaster-General during the administration of Mr. Cleveland. Being now prominent before the country as a candidate for the Vice-
