

5. Lucy J., unmarried.
6. Martha Bell, died.

Of these, the first, William, married Lucy Wallace, at Crawfordsville, and lived there until his death.

The second, Frances Amelia, married Mr. Harrison Boudinot, one of the leading citizens of Terre Haute, Ind.

The fourth, Sallie Seymour, married Clayton S. Hildebrand, of Indianapolis.

DR. THOMAS WALKER FRY.

Thos. Walker Fry, son of Thos. W. and Elizabeth S. Fry, became an excellent physician, and was a most agreeable and lovable man. He lived in Indiana. During the war he was a surgeon in the field, and also in charge of hospitals at Louisville and New Albany.

His children are :

1. Thos. Walker.
2. Julia, married Mr. Matthews.
3. William.
4. Lewis.
5. Lettie, married Mr. Little.

The above Thos. Walker Fry, son of Dr. Thos. W. Fry, was a captain in an Indiana regiment during the Civil war. He died a few years after.

GENERAL SPEED SMITH FRY.

General Speed Smith Fry, son of Thos. W. and Elizabeth S. Fry, was born September 9, 1817. He received a collegiate education and studied law in the office of his uncle, Colonel John Speed Smith, and practiced for a time in Danville. He commanded a company in Colonel McKee's regiment during the Mexican war, and bore a distinguished part in the battle of Buena Vista. He held the office of county judge for a number of years at Danville, Ky. At the beginning of the Civil war he raised one of the first of the Kentucky Union regiments, the 4th Infantry. He was conspicuous in the battle of Mill Springs in January, 1861, where the Confed-