50 DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber living at Popis Creek in the county of Westmoreland, and state of Virginia, on the 19th inst. a negro man named FRANK, by trade a blacksmith, of a tawny complexion, long visage and remarkable fine soft voice; about forty-five years of age, five feet four or six inches high, straight limbed. He generally wore a long tail'd coat; but it is not known certainly what clothes he took with him—he may easily be detected, as he has taken with one of his youngest sons named John, who is not more than 9 years of age and is of a very black complexion and a long visage, like his father. I am induced to think, Frank has made for some of the large towns particularly Alexandria or Baltimore, in the former, of which, or its neighborhood, he has a free brother by the name of Rogers, who did live near Dr. Smith's, upon Ravensworth in the county of Fairfax. The above reward will be given to any person who will secure said Frank with his son and give information thereof to the subscriber. And 100 dollars if taken out of the state, and the money paid as soon as I get him.

COMMUNICATION.

THE following Statute, entitled, "A statute in lieu of the statute for the wholesome government of the College of William and Mary"—was enacted by the governors and visitors thereof, on the 7th day of July 1803. As this statute prescribes certain salutary rules, in addition to those which have hitherto been pursued, and as, from the strictest conformity to them the happiest effects may be reasonably expected, it is thought adviseable to give to those rules a general notoriety thro' the medium of the National Intelligencer.

A STATUTE, &c.

Sec. 1. Be it ordained by the governors and visitors of William and Mary college, that there be, in addition to the public examination commencing on the 4th of July, a similar one, to commence on the 2nd Tuesday in February, in each year; and that a meeting of the visitors be held on the same day.

2. That any student who shall be absent from a public examination, or exercise, unless in case of sickness, shall not be continued as a student.

3 That every student, who shall fail to perform any of the duties required of him, for the first instance of such failure, shall be admonished, or censured; and in case of a second failure, he shall no longer be continued as a student.

4. That every student, after the second examination in the first year o his attendance, shall obtain a VOTE OF APPROBATION of his attention, and of his moral demeanor, from the president and masters or professors, a copy of which shall be furnished each student, if required; and, if such vote of approbation shall not be obtained, he shall no longer be continued as a student.

5 That no person shall be permitted to continue a student, after the second year of his attendance, unless he shall, at the END OF SUCH SECOND YEAR, or before, obtain THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ARTS; provided, that at the end of such second year, the president and masters or professors may permit such student to attend the Lectures on the second terms if they shall be of opinion, that his attention and moral demeanor shall deserve such permission.

6. That no professor shall absent himself from college during the terms prescribed for lecturings, nor on the times of public examination, or exercises: And every professor is hereby required to examine the students of his class, at every such public examination, and at every lecture.

7. That the president and masters or professors shall be, and they hereby are, enjoined, strictly to execute this statute, and all others heretofore made for the good government of the College

LANDS FOR SALE.

THE subscriber wishes to sell a tract of land situate near the foot of the Blue Ridge and Short Hills in Loudon county Virginia, bounded partly by Potomac river within two miles of Harpers Ferry and the mouth of Shenandoah. It is of strong good soil, answering perfectly well for Plaister of Paris, and contains by patent 2340 acres. It is so well known as a valuable and fine tract of land that a further description is unnecessary to those who incline to purchase will naturally view and examine it. A clear and indisputable title will be given by the subscriber. There is no mortgage, judgment, debt, lease, claim or demand whatsoever against any part, it having been always let to tenants at low annual rents who are raised and removeable at will; but the occupying tenants (through favor only) have been permitted to claim from any coming in tenant one half of the deposit money as may be settled between them, for the improvements and good will, the other half going to the landlord. There are at present sixteen or seventeen tenants upon the estate at very low rent. And it is recommended as an object well worth the attention of any person who would purchase the whole to parcel it into lesser farms to the resident tenants or others wishing to purchase parts of it.

The terms of sale are a portion of one fourth paid down in money, or in approved negotiable paper, and the remainder in one two or three years as may be agreed upon carrying interest from the day of sale. Application may be made personally, or by letter, to the subscriber residing at Warburton on Potomac river, near to Alexandria, to James M'Ilheney near the premises, or to Mr. John Janney merchant in Alexandria.

LEGIONARY ORDERS.

A Ligionary Court of Enquiry, under the Militia Law, will be held at Rhodes's Tavern in the City of Washington, on Thursday the 25th instant, at 9 o'clock in the morning, for the purpose of hearing appeals from the Battalion Courts, and assessing fines for offences and for other purposes.

A punctual attendance of the members will be expected.

By order of Lieut. Col. Com'dt Brent,

WM. D. BEALL, Adjutant.

Aug. 10, 1803.

ORDINANCE

Of his Danish Majesty, defining what is to be observed by foreign vessels in regard to quarantine regulations.

HIS Majesty the King most graciously ordered by his rescript of the 12th of October last, that whenever any accounts are received of the existence of the yellow fever in the United States of America, or when no particular advice is received to the contrary from the minister resident there, all American vessels which are not provided with health certificates from the beginning of the month of July until the end of the year are to submit to certain quarantine regulations, and even if they are provided with such certificates, these vessels are still prohibited from communicating with the shore, before they have been visited by the appointed health physician, and if he has the least suspicion, then the vessel must be dealt with accordingly, in conformity to which, no American vessels during such a time shall be piloted, except having hoisted the green flag.

Which gracious command is hereby published for the regulation of all concerned. Given at the Danish Royal Chancery, on the 5th of November, 1802.

Extract of an ordinance concerning quarantine regulations, and rules, to be observed by navigators who touch at the ports or coasts of the royal Danish dominions, dated at Copenhagen, the 14th November, 1800.

1. Every vessel belonging to our dominions shall have a green flag on board, to be used as prescribed hereafter.

2. Whenever a vessel arrives from a place where there has been contagion, and in all other cases of suspicion, such as having been visited by any vessel from the Barbary coast, having bales of merchandize on board from suspected places, and having not undergone a quarantine since in any other place, or having had any virulent sickness on board during the voyage, then the green flag shall be hoisted at the head of the mainmast, before any communication is had with any person whatever from the shore, and before anchor is cast.

3. The commander of any vessel offending against these orders, shall pay a fine of 500 rix dollars, (400 dollars) if no dangerous consequences ensue from his misconduct; but if otherwise he shall be punished with 12 years labor in the fortification.—and should any malicious intent be proved upon him, he shall labor in irons during his life. Any vessel having had communication with another vessel that is suspicious, shall be subject to the same regulations and restrictions.

§ 7. Should such a vessel be under the necessity of immediate communication with the shore, she must hoist her own national colors from the foretop, or under the green flag if she has no foremast.

8 After hoisting the color on the fore top, the signal for a pilot, the pilot shall immediately go on board, but not leave the ship board until the health physician has visited her—and for every day that the pilot is detained, he shall receive one rix dollar.

9. To prevent unnecessary delays to such vessels, as are arrived from places that might be suspected, (such as the Mediterranean or the West Indies) but still are secure and free from contagion, not having been at infected places, nor having any infected merchandize on board, and not having had communication with any vessel which could be suspected—nor had any one sick or dead during the voyage, we do order that for such cases all pilots shall be provided with blanks as hereafter written, which the captain and mate of such vessel shall sign, viz.

Undersigned N. commander of the ship, N, arrived from N. and N. W, mate of the said vessel, declare to their certain knowledge that neither any of the ships crew, or any other person, or any merchandize or thing of whatever kind on board the said vessel is infected with contagion or dangerous disease: and the said vessel has not been visited by any cruisers from the African coast or the Levant, and had none dead or sick with an infectious fever during the voyage, so help us God and his holy word; and if this deposition be found false, we subject ourselves to the laws of the land.

10. Blanks of this deposition will be printed in different languages, for the use of foreign vessels that may be subject to the quarantine regulations. As foreign vessels may not always be provided with a green flag, the pilots are bound to have one continually in readiness to be hoisted in aforementioned cases. If the green flag has been used longer than for one day, the pilot shall receive two rix dollars for the same, but the vessel may then keep it.

Any vessel sailing from the port of New York for his majesty's dominions from the 1st of July to the last of December, must be provided with (besides the usual bill of health) a certificate from the Danish vice-consul. Mr. Hammerkin resident at No. 78, Pearl street where attendance will be given.

New York, July 29.

TO LET.

THE Subscriber will let for one or more years, the House and Lot on which she now lives, in F. Street, nearly opposite the Bank. The House contains seven rooms and a kitchen. On the Lot there is a garden in, a high state of cultivation, and an excellent well of water. The terms will be moderate and possession will be given on the first day of October next.

A Store has been kept in this house for a number of years; and from its situation, it is well worth the attention of a merchant or a mechanic. For further particulars enquire of the subscriber on the premises.
