

HENRY SPEED.

Henry Speed, sixth child of Captain James Speed, was born August 15, 1777.

He married Miss Smith, of Harrodsburg. He died November 6, 1824, aged forty-seven, at the home of his brother, Major Thomas Speed, near Bardstown, and was buried there. His widow returned to Harrodsburg, and the two sons of the marriage, Henry and Thomas, were raised by their uncles. Henry was raised by Major Thomas Speed at Bardstown, and became a Baptist minister and lived in Missouri.

Thomas lived with his uncle, Judge John Speed, at Farmington, near Louisville. He engaged in business in Louisville with B. J. Adams. He died unmarried.
