By the above letter it appears a new plot, or pretended plot, has been difcovered at Paris. Capt. S. fays he underftood the difcovery and arrefts were made about the 22d of February; that an account of them had been publifhed in the newfpapers, and that they were fubjects of converfation at Bayonne.—PICHEGRUE and GEORGE were in England a fhort time fince. The Prince of Peace, we fhould prefume, had not left Madrid. He may be implicated in the plot. He had not for fome time been a favorite with the French. It has been long fuppofed that MOREAU was not a ftationary character, and his rife or fall has been expected.
