dren ten pounds to be equally divided amongst them within six months after my decease. To my daughter Joane the now wife of Abram Doolittle, living now also in New England, the full sum of ten pounds, and to her children ten pounds to be equally divided amongst them within six months after my decease. To my son William twelve pence and to his daughter Elizabeth ten shillings at the age of sixteen. To my daughter Martha Parkes five pounds and to each of her sons, Matthew and John, twenty shillings apiece. To my daughter Martha also one sap cupboard, one mattress, one pair of sheets, one green chair, one green stool, one barrell, one feather bed and one feather bolster, (the last two) in case my daughter Joane comes not to demand the same within two years. To Richard Parkes, husband unto Martha Parkes, half a crown. To my daughter Mary Warren's children, Mary, Rebecca and Margaret Warren and James Warren, three pounds apiece at sixteen years of age. To her other four sons, William, John, Thomas and Henry Warren, forty shillings apiece. To my son John Allen that messuage, house and out house, with the close adjoining, lying in Kempston Wooden, and one close called "nyne Leyes." And the remainder to my son John, whom I make executor, and I appoint my two trusty and well beloved friends John Ampps of Kempstone and William Ridgeley of Newport Pagnell overseers, to each of whom twelve pence.

Witness: Edmund Allen, Luke Pickeringe, the mark of Sara Wilt. Wootton 36.

Roger Allen or Alling, of New Haven, is said to have married Mary, eldest daughter of Thomas Nash. Their son James, born it is said 24 June, 1657, was the third minister of Salisbury and married Elizabeth, daughter of the Rev. Seaborn Cotton, of Hampton.

Abram Doolittle was of New Haven and the father of a large family.
