The legiflature of Maffachufetts have unanimoufly rejected the amendment to the conftitution of the United States propofed by Kentucky.

With pleafure we can from the beft authority, announce that the Canal in the Difmal Swamp is now cut through half its width; and in all probability, from the activity lately difplayed in carrying on this arduous undertaking, will in the courfe of a few weeks, be navigable for boats, &c. by which means there will be an eafy and fpeedy communication between the waters of North Carolina and Elizabeth river, in this ftate.

Norfolk Herald.

Three Paper Mills have been eftablifhed in Kentucky within the year paft.

A MILITARY SCHOOL

Was opened in Canandaigua, ftate of New York, on the 30th April, under the difcipline of Gen. Othniel Taylor.

A gentleman in New York has received a letter from his correspondent at Nantz, dated the 22d May, which contains the following postscript:

"I open my letter to inform you of the fafe return to Rochefort of the fquadron which failed from thence fome time ago for the windward iflands. It has on board the contributions levied upon the Englifh iflands. This has occafioned no little fenfation here."

We underftand that another letter has been received in town, which ftates that the above fquadron had failed again from Rochefort on a fecret expedition.

NEW-ORLEANS, May 21.

A meffenger arrived in this city yefterday, from Wafhington [city,] difpatched by the Poftmafter general, to arrange the carriage of the mail from the feat of government, through Virginia, the two Carolinas, Georgia, and part of Weft Florida, to this place.—The whole diftance, as the road will now run, is 1 206 miles, and the mail will be carried in 17 days. No newfpapers can be carried under the prefent arrangement—it will be referved for letters only.

Boston, June 28.

Capt. Hill, who arrived yefterday from the Mediterranean, came through the Straits of Gibraltar, on the 6th of May with Lord Nelfon's fleet, of 15 fail of the line, and parted off Cape St. Vincents, on the 9th of May. It was reported at Malaga, by the capt. of a Danifh veffel, that off Sicily he had been boarded from two Tripoline corfairs, but it was not much credited; and no fuch news had reached Alicant or Gibraltar.

The above account of Lord Nelfon's fleet, (which may be depended on) does not agree with the reports of its being fpoken; but the intelligence of its arrival at Barbadoes, about the 1ft of June, may be correct.

New York, July 1.

Capt. Williams of the fchooner Dolphin, informs us that four days previous to his failing from St. Kitts a Hamburg fhip touched there on her way to St. Thomas, with intelligence that fhe had paffed a Britifh fleet of 17 fail of the line, under admiral Bickerton, about 100 leagues to the eaftward of Barbadoes, in purfuit of the Toulon fquadron. It was reported at St. Kitts that admiral Bickerton's fleet had reached Barbadoes; but all the Britifh iflands being embargoed, it was difficult to obtain correct information. The homeward bound merchant fhips had failed from St. Kitts for Europe without convoy. The embargo, which had continued 16 days, was not raifed when capt. W. failed. He obtained fpecial permiffion to clear out. Flour had little or no fale; American produce low.

Consulate of the United States of America.

ISLAND OF CUBA, Havanna, 11th June, 1805.

For the information of the merchants and others in the United States, the underfigned conful thinks it his duty to make known, that by an official act of the captain general and intendant of this ifland, under date of the 29th ult. a reduction of the duties on imports in foreign veffels, took place of about 7 per cent. on all duties made after the date of the 29th ult. So that the actual duties now payable on fuch imports in this ifland are about 25 1 2 per cent. on the valuation.

Alfo that by the faid act, goods and merchandife of the growth or manufacture of Spain, accompanied with proper documents from the cuftom houfes from whence they were cleared in that kingdom, knowing them to be fuch, and imported into this ifland, are fubject to no more duties than if imported in Spanifh bottoms, viz. about 6 1-2 per cent.

HENRY HILL, jun.

From the Havanna, June 5——At the opening of the port of Havanna to neutrals, the government impofed a duty of 32 1 2 per cent. upon all property landed; but upon a reprefentation by the merchants, of the bad policy of fo exorbitant a tax, they were informed that it muft be confidered merely as temporary, and that a confiderable reduction would take place as foon as the neceffary arrangements could be made. An immenfe number of veffels arriving from all parts of the United States, nothing more was faid of the duties until early in May, when finding that in confequence of the heavy loffes fuftained by the American fhipping, the port was likely to be deferted, the government caufed it to be intimated to the merchants, that the duties were actually lowered to 15 per cent. on liquors and provifions, and 21 per cent. on dry goods; that the publication of the decree was delayed, only until the fettlement of a point in difpute between the governor and collector of the cuftoms, relative to the time at which the new regulations fhould commence; the former infifting that all veffels arrived fince the opening of the port, ought to partake of the advantage, and the latter that only thofe whofe duties were not already paid, fhould be benefitted. This affurance caufed feveral veffels to be entered, which would otherwife have been fent elfewhere, which appeared to be one of the objects of government in this manœuvre; another undoubtedly was, that the information fhould be communicated to the American merchants which was actually done, to induce them to make further fhipments. There being no probability of entrapping any more, as there was but one arrival from the United States in 10 days; it was found by the publication of a printed notification, on the 28th May, that all the promifes and affertions of the government, in this affair, were truly Spanifh, deferving of no faith or credit. By this decree, the duties are ftill continued at 32 1 2 per cent. on imports, exclufive of a municipal duty on fome articles, and the reduced confifts only in a difference of currency upon which they are calculated, making an alteration in fome inftances of 5 to 6 per cent. in favor of the fhipper. The duties on exports as before.

CATHOLIC PETITION.

On the 10th of May, Ld. Grenville moved, in the Britifh houfe of lords, that they fhould immediately refolve themfelves into a committee of the whole to confider the petition of the Roman Catholics. The motion was fupported by lord Grenville, earl Spencer and lord Holland, and oppofed by lord Hawkefbury, the duke of Cumberland, lord Sidmouth, lord Mulgrave, earl Camden, the bifhop of Durham, lord Redefdale and the earl of Limerick. The debate was interrupted by a motion to adjourn to the 13th, which was carried. A petition from the city government of DUBLIN againft the Catholic petition was prefented to the Houfe of Commons, May 9.

BOSTON, JULY 2.

On Saturday laft arrived at Providence the fhip Hazard, capt. Rowan, from Canton. On the 19th or 20th of June, 2 degrees to the fouthward of Bermuda, fell in with the Toulon fleet of 11 fail of the line, laft from Guadaloupe, from whence they had failed in company with the Cadiz fleet, which had parted and proceeded to the Havanna. The Toulon fleet was fteering N. E. Capt. Rowan was in company fometime.

The French fleet was more than ten degrees to the northward of the northernmoft Weft India ifland, and fteering from them towards Europe.

Capt. Knight, at Salem from Martinique, failed June 6; and confirms the account of the departure of the combined fleets from that ifland. The Diamond rock, near Martinique, which the Britifh took poffeffion of fome time fince, and on which they ftationed 120 men and mounted 9 guns, was furrendered to the French after a fiege of 2 days, in which the French loft from 50 to 80 men, the Britifh 10 to 12.

New York, July 4.

This morning arrived here the fhip Cato, Snow, in 35 days from Liverpool. We have papers from London as late as the 25th May; but they contain no news of moment. There is another talk of a peace. The Breft fleet had not failed. The embargo ftill continued in England; and the hotteft prefs ever known—even mechanics were taken up and put on board fhips. A revolt is faid to have taken place in Sweden, under the influence of France—the perfon of the king had been put under confinement! Admiral Collinghood had failed with 12 fail of the line to join Lord Nelfon. Negociations are faid to be going on between France and Ruffia for the reftoration of general tranquility.—Bonaparte is willing to enter into negociations on the following bafis:

1. The full recognition of his titles of Emperor of the French and king of Italy.

2. The folemn guarantee of Great Britain and Ruffia to maintain himfelf and his family in the hereditary poffeffion of his dignities and dominions.

3 The refignation of Bourbon of all rights and claims to the Sovereignty of France.

London, May 18.

The account of an engagement between the Breft and Channel fleets is hourly expected. A letter from Falmouth ftates that at 7 o'clock on Tuefday evening, the Breft fleet, confifting of 25 fail of the line, and frigates were all under weigh, and ftanding out to fea. Lord Gardner had formed his fleet, confifting of 17 fail of the line, and feveral frigates, in the line of battle in two divifions.

House of Commons, May 16.

Mr. Gray took notice of his Majefty's fpeech from the throne on the 15th of Jan. laft, in which it was ftated:—"That his majefty being engaged in confidential intercourfe and connection with certain powers on the continent, and particularly with Ruffia, with a view to objects relative to the general fecurity of Europe, could not, therefore enter into any further explanation on the fubject of the overtures made by the French government." He remarked alfo, that a fum of five millions had been voted by Parliament for continental purpofes. Under thefe circumftances, and at this advanced period of the feffion, he felt himfelf juftified in afking of the minifter, whether it was intended to offer any communication to Parliament? Mr. Pitt anfwered, that as matters were now fituated his majefty's minifter could not deem it proper at prefent to advife the fovereign to make any fuch communication. Mr. Fox enquired whether a communication of this nature might reafonably be expected in the courfe of the pending feffion? Mr. Pitt replied, that fuch a communication, he believed, could not be made with certainty. Mr. Fox urged the neceffity of some communication, even though it might not amount to "certainty." Mr. Pitt made no further replication.
