

HOTEL BELLECLAIRE
NEW YORK

Broadway at 77th St.
Surface Cars at Door
Subway at 79th St.

Only a few minutes from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

Does it not appear to you, in the light of recent experiences, that Hotel Men represent a great industry and that they have not been found wanting in any particular? Do you recall anything they have been asked to do by the Government that they have not done? And don't you recall many things they have done that they were not asked to do? Obedience to Government mandate is one thing, but anticipating what the Government or the people would like, and then doing it, is another thing.

Hotel Men, as a body, are trained to anticipate those things that will most please and best serve the wants of the people of their communities and their country. I am proud to be a Hotel Man. I think, with my Belleclaire Hotel, I am doing as much in the line of service as any man in any other line of business. The Belleclaire has more than 100,000 patrons who share in the service given. They come from all parts of the world and this country.

The principles that govern the conduct of the Belleclaire are quite as uplifting as those that govern any unit in any other honorable industry. The Belleclaire always holds itself steadfast by living up to the home idea—keeping itself wholesome by eliminating all elements that would let it drift into miscellaneous privileges.

My greatest pride is that guests who live at the Belleclaire regularly, or stop with us transiently, say unreservedly that it has a splendid home atmosphere—that it is a well-kept home. They are particularly impressed with our home cooking.
