

OVINGTON'S

This extremely useful tea cart is available in either brown or red mahogany or walnut. The price is $35.00.

Here it is shown with leaves extended, and handle dropped to form a round table. The drawer for silver is another unusual feature.

BY virtue of its very usefulness, the tea cart in its conventional form has become a commonplace. This new model of Ovington's, however, gives it a distinction entirely new—making it, at the same time, even more useful. Details such as this make the carefully appointed house individual—or make the gift most acceptable. They are found by the hundreds at Ovington's.

May we send you a copy of the new Ovington Gift Book?

Decoration Day — which falls on Thursday next—has a new significance this year. Since last Decoration Day a great many 1917-1918 American soldiers have been added to the long list of those who made the supreme sacrifice in 1861-1865.

We cannot decorate with flags and flowers the new-made graves in France, but we can think of the boys who have gone over the border for us. And we will think of them, won't we?

I suggest that every one of us wear a white flower on Decoration Day in memory of our heroes.

Every guest of the Belleclaire and every worker will be supplied with a white flower by the proprietor. It will be gladly worn by every guest and every worker because patriotism is at least 100 per cent above par in the Belleclaire.

THE foundation planting that lends the last finishing touch of charm and "smiling" beauty to this picture consists of large Japanese Yews, Dwarf Box, Andromeda Floribunda, Dwarf Arborvitae, Dwarf Spruce, Yucca, English Ivy, and Wisteria Vine—mixed with a liberal portion of taste and landscape skill. It's so easy to make mistakes in foundation planting that we are particularly anxious to call attention to our many years of experience in this specialty of ours, and to the fact that an order for foundation plants gives you the benefit of this accumulated experience without added charge. Moreover, we can give you a complete planting like this almost overnight—yes, right now, to enjoy "forever more." "Watchful waiting" is unnecessary. Send for our book "Home Landscapes"—or, better still, shall we talk it over on the phone tomorrow?
