UNITED STATES' COURT, 5TH CIRCUIT AND VIRGINIA DISTRICT, NOVEMBER TERM, 1808.

UNITED STATES, against } JOHN MOSS. }

ON the motion of the defendant by his attorney, It is ordered, That the Bank Notes concerning which JAMES BYRNE, Esq. a witness examined on the trial of the indictment spoke, and of which he declared himself to be in possession, as having been taken from John Moss, be retained by the said Byrne until the further order of the Court, that in the mean time he publish in proper newspapers a list of those notes, so as to enable any persons claiming them, to make known such claim to the said Byrne, that upon the identifying of any of them, the said Byrne in concurrence with Edmund Randolph, may deliver the same to the claimant; and that the said Byrne report to the next court his proceedings in the premises together with a list of such of the said notes, as may then remain in his hands.

A Copy, Teste, WILLIAM MARSHALL, CLERK.

PERSONS identifying and claiming notes under the foregoing order must have their proofs authenticated in the same manner that depositions are required to be authenticated when offered as evidence in the Federal Court of the United States, and if forwarded to me the postage must be paid, or I shall not take them from the Post-Office.

Petersburg, December 28, 1808. JAMES BYRNE.

A List of Bank Notes found on JOHN MOSS lately convicted of having stolen Bank Notes out of letters in the Post Office in Petersburg, while acting therein as a Clerk, and which are now in the possession of James Byrne, as Mayor of Petersburg.
