The inhabitants of Guadaloupe, supposing that the island must fall into the hands of the English, were quitting the island by every opportunity—the island was in great want of provisions, although they had received a partial supply by the French frigates from France, together with a reinforcement of troops.

VALUABLE FARM AND LOTS FOR SALE.

WILL be sold at public sale, on the first Monday in October next, if not previously disposed of, that valuable farm in Prince George's County, Maryland, known by the name of St. OSYTH.

St. OSYTH contains by estimation seven hundred and fifty acres of Land, between seventy and eighty acres of which are meadow, now fit for the scythe, and capable of being made to produce an hundred tons of hay at a crop—about two hundred and fifty or three hundred are in wood and timber, and the residue arable. No place perhaps in America, can be better watered or more healthy. The improvements consist of a dwelling house, two stories high, forty-two feet long by thirty six wide, with a passage through the middle, three rooms below and four above, with a garret the whole size of the house, a kitchen and laundry under the same roof, two stories high, with two large rooms above for servants, a meat house, wash house, corn house and granary, a large tobacco house which may very easily be converted into a barn, a productive garden and pigeon house, and a young thriving orchard of excellent fruit and of great variety from Prince's nursery on Long Island. The enclosures are new and in good order. Upon the same property and within a quarter of a mile is a small dwelling house with three rooms below and two above stairs, a kitchen, meat house and barn. This place at a small expence may be easily fitted up and made a most comfortable house for a small family. St. Osyth lies within four miles of the city of Washington, and about the same distance from the nearest ferry to Alexandria. If sold at private sale the lowest price for this valuable property is ten pounds an acre. A further description of the property is deemed unnecessary as those inclined to purchase will doubtless come and see it. The terms of sale may be known on applying to the subscriber living on the premises, Col. Saml. Hanson of Washington, or Lieut. Wm. Baker, George Town.

On the same day, if not before by private sale disposed of, will be sold the negroes, stock &c. attached to the estate of the late O. Carr, deceased. The negroes will be sold for a term of years.

For sale—Also, the following lots in the city of Washington:

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RUNAWAY from the Subscriber on the 3rd day of April last, a negro man named OSMOND, about 23 years old, 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, has a yellowish complexion, and when spoken to has a remarkable way of shutting one of his eyes. He has for several years past been in the possession of Mr. W. Robinson, late of Frederick C'ty & has a wife at Mr. Humphries' at Harper's Ferry, and is perhaps now lurking in that neighborhood, but I have understood that he has been seen boating flour thence to George Town & passes as a freeman. He had on when he went off a blue jacket and white pantaloons, but it is likely he has changed his dress—I will give twenty dollars to any person who secures him in jail, so that I get him again, or I will pay that sum and all reasonable charges upon his being delivered to me. All persons are forwarned from harboring, employing, or carrying the said negro out of this state.
