TO BE SOLD AT PUBLIC AUCTION,

AT Northumberland court house, in the county of Northumberland, and state of Virginia, on Tuesday the 5th of September next, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, five contiguous plantations, amounting together to about 2,700 acres, situate on the river Potomac, and within about three miles of the court house. These estates formerly belonged to Presley Thornton, Esq. and are the same on which he lived. They have never been seen by either of the subscribers, but it is understood, that about 1700 acres of them are as valuable low grounds as any on the river, and a considerable part thereof heavily timbered. The uplands consist of about 1000 acres, and the whole is well calculated for the production of corn, wheat, tobacco, timothy and small grain of all kinds, in great abundance. The waters are said to abound with excellent fish, oysters and wild fowl. The water carriage is easy and convenient to Norfolk, Baltimore, Alexandria and the city of Washington; and as these estates possess several good mill seats, with an abundance of water and a plentiful supply of timber, they must be very valuable.

The premises will be shewn to persons inclining to purchase, by col. James Moore, who lives on them, or by Samuel Blackwell, Esq. who lives near to them; and the terms of payment may be known a sufficient time before the sale, by applying to either of them, or to THOMAS ROBINSON, Near Chester, Delaware, Or to W. PROPOSALS,

For engraving a representation of America, figured under the form of a Goddess extending the hand of relief to suffering humanity.

IN this piece, two unfortunate strangers, with a young babe, after having escaped from oppression and death in their native country, and more immediately from the watery element, appear in distress on our shores. The wife, seated on a rock, with the almost expiring infant in her lap, exhibits an image of grief and despair.—The Husband, with countenance irresistibly pathetic and eloquent, implores the blessings of God, at the same time seeming to regard rather his tender companion and infant offspring than his own sufferings. At this juncture the GODDESS AMERICA, crowned with beauties and with glories, driven in a Chariot by the GODDESS OF LIBERTY, the HORN OF PLENTY pouring out its fruits, is introduced upon the scene—She is arrested in her course by the unhappy objects on her shores. Whilst her seeds are held by one of the aboriginal inhabitants, She appears descending from her Chariot to their relief, in an attitude of infinite dignity, her beautiful face a picture of benignity and of pity. It is this point in the history that our author seizes upon, and every circumstance of perspective, drapery, and costume in general, are adapted to it. A description of this kind can however convey a faint idea of such a piece; for as the parts which compose it, must be necessarily successive to each other in their operation on the mind, it cannot make that full and entire impression produced by a simultaneous view of all the parts of the picture itself. This marches directly to the heart, which recognises, by a single glance of the eye, its elegant and touching pathos.

This representation serves to illustrate the agreeable truth, that while through the greater part of the Globe, the Pillars of the Temples of Liberty have been torn from their bases, in this favored land they stand in Corinthian elegance and pristine glory—that while the voice of humanity is almost drowned by the din of war, its cries are still heard in this happy clime. From the great progress of taste and refinement, it is not doubted that the American public will give that fostering encouragement to productions of this nature, without which Genius must languish in inaction and obscurity. The politer nations of the world have boasted of their celebrated galleries and collections of the works of fine art, and it is extremely probable that the frequent contemplation of their statues and paintings tended to keep alive the sentiments, ideas and objects they were made to represent. It is moreover stated that the Italians were never so incited to resistance, nor so thoroughly sensible that their political privileges were gone, as when the French Emperor violated their galleries.

The author of the piece is Mr. Thomas Gimbrede, a young gentleman of classic education and correct taste. In smaller trials of his art, he has already attracted the respectful notice of the enlightened citizens of Baltimore, and it is expected that a publication of the proposed engraving, will afford him that remuneration for his labor, in the gratitude and consideration of society, which he justly merits.

CONDITIONS.

The above mentioned piece will occupy a space of 21 by 18 inches.

The price, which is payable on delivery, will be three dollars to subscribers, and five dollars to such as do not subscribe.

Every person who shall obtain ten subscribers will be entitled to one copy.

For engraving a representation in honor of

THOMAS JEFFERSON, ESQ.

Late President of the U. States.

The piece proposed to be engraved, is a representation of THOMAS JEFFERSON under the conduct of MINERVA, in which FAME, with her trumpet, announces to the world his retirement from office.

The most correct judges pronounce it to be an elegant production, and a striking likeness of Mr. Jefferson himself. It was conceived and executed by Mr. Thomas Gimbrede, an artist of taste and reputation. It is confidently expected that no circumstances of political feeling will withhold public patronage from works of Genius.

CONDITIONS.

The dimensions of this engraving will be 8 by 6 inches—Price 1 dollar to subscribers, and 2 dollars to such as do not subscribe.

Any person who shall procure 10 subscribers shall be entitled to 1 copy.
