The Nestlé Permanent Hair Wave

Nestlé Waved

These are the two models published previously and whose hair was originally waved on Dec. 30, 1916.

These girls were asked by us to deal with their hair exactly as if nature had endowed them with naturally wavy hair. Whether they produce waves or rather loose fluffy hair depends entirely upon their own taste or the care they take.

The original photographs can be seen at our establishment. This hair has been physically improved by the Nestlé Treatment and will not break. It can be shampooed or treated without losing the waves.
