

...the case of which resided in his own body.

We read in one of the journals of Florence an extract of a letter from Mr. Joseph Bataglia, surgeon at Ponte Bion...

Dr. G. Maria Bertholi, a well-riding at Mount Valere, in the district of Livignano, went to the fair of Fliceto, on account of some business he had to do...

His apartment, which he had a barber's shop in his bedroom, he began to re-arrange his furniture. A few minutes after, a loud noise was heard in Mr. Bertholi's...

Having, even yet his bed, fresh assistance as seemed necessary was given him. Next morning he was called, and after examining the patient carefully, I found that...

Having taken care to get every possible information from the patient himself respecting what had happened to him, he told me that he had first awoke in the morning...

That this flame, arising from the form of elementary fire, burnt at first, and reduced to ashes, and entirely consumed the night cap, without in the least touching...

As the following phenomenon seems to be somewhat similar to that above related, it may not be improper to furnish it here...

Dr. G. Maria Bertholi, naturally bright on our remembrance the fact of the unfortunate Countess...

...the month of February and May, 1783.

The authors of these different observations, almost of the same nature, remark that those subjected to such accidents were for the most part advanced in years, remarkably fat, and had been much addicted to the use of spirituous liquors...

But the case of the unhappy Mr. Bertholi, presents particular circumstances which distinguish it from the preceding...

FROM the Subscriber on the 26th inst. N. P. DELLO, well known about the City and its environs, writes to inform me that where he has a wife I will give a good reward for having him put to jail, and One Dollar for detecting him and giving him home...

CONRAD & MUMFORD HAVE a number of books of entertainment in the range of buildings formerly occupied by Mr. LAW, about two hundred paces from the Capitol, in New Jersey avenue...

NOTICE is hereby given that all whom it may concern, that the two Tracts and belonging to CHARLES GRANGER JENKINS in the County of Pickens in the Mississippi Territory...

BOARDING AND LODGING. FIVE of six gentlemen can be accommodated with Gentel Board and Lodging, in a good and comfortable House, on the corner of the street at Mr. LAW's former residence...

TO BE RENTED. FOR a few months, a two story brick house with a stable, together with, subjoining garden, for boarding and lodging, in the neighborhood of HENRY JONES, New-Jersey City...

TO BE RENTED. Dec 3, 1800. I. K.

impedible to make him swallow any thing, and it was found necessary to abandon his usual diet. His body from exhaustion putrid, and he died at the end of five hours. That his death might not be communicated to others, he was interred, together with his clothes. Upon enquiry after his death it was found, that this man was addicted to the constant use of spirituous liquors, and that he had even drunk of them to excess during the month...

CONVEYANCE'S OFFICE. THOMAS HERRIN has opened an office from yards from the CAPITOL, on the New Jersey avenue, where he will attend daily till 12 o'clock, except on Sundays, of Georgia, and in the afternoon, at his office opposite the LITTON HOUSE—Conveyances of land, will, mortgages, leases, assignments, or partnership agreements, marriage settlements and separations of licence and composition, bills of sale of realty, slaves, and other chattels, bonds of conveyance, and other bonds, powers of attorney, nuncupates, probate causes, fermens, wills and powers, and all other instruments in the above line, are drawn according to the legal simplicity, and with the greatest accuracy, speed, and moderate terms.

RRN AWAY. FROM the Subscriber on the 26th inst. N. P. DELLO, well known about the City and its environs, writes to inform me that where he has a wife I will give a good reward for having him put to jail, and One Dollar for detecting him and giving him home...

JAMES R. DERMOTT, Esq. Elizabeth, Dec. 31, 1800. This day is published and for Sale BY RAFFIN, CONRAD & CO. AT THE WASHINGTON BOOK STORE, Corner of South D. Street and New Jersey Avenue near the Capitol.

A NEW remark on Mr. HAMILTON'S late Letter, concerning the Public conduct and character of the President, price 25 cents. THE BEAVER GIG, and the GARDENERS Vade by Mrs. Emmet author of Welsh Harp; or, the History of the County of Down, and the Emigrants of Castle Harpell, price 25 cents, nearly sold.

TO RENT. A Commodious Two story brick dwelling, on a good lot, in the City, is now to be let on a long or short lease, on a very convenient for a small family—may be entered on immediately, the terms made known and the premises shown by applying to BENJAMIN MORE, Washington, New Jersey Avenue, December 27, 1800.

CONRAD & MUMFORD HAVE a number of books of entertainment in the range of buildings formerly occupied by Mr. LAW, about two hundred paces from the Capitol, in New Jersey avenue. Indulgences, and other papers, in the range of buildings formerly occupied by Mr. LAW, about two hundred paces from the Capitol, in New Jersey avenue.

NOTICE is hereby given that all whom it may concern, that the two Tracts and belonging to CHARLES GRANGER JENKINS in the County of Pickens in the Mississippi Territory, and adjoining the Indian Reservation, are situated by a foreign grantee at the fall of 1804 Capt. JENKINS for a debt of 2000 dollars paid to...

JOHN MINCHIN, BOOT MAKER FROM PHILADELPHIA, RESPECTFULLY requests his FRIENDS to remember his BOOT and SHOE MANUFACTORY from near the Eastern Branch, to New Jersey Avenue, on the left near the Capitol, where he makes Gentlemen's Breeches, Vests, and all kinds of Shirts on the strictest model, in the most manner, and of the best materials, December 31, 1800.

TO JOURNEMEN SHOEMAKERS. WANTED, a number of Journeymen Shoemakers, to whom constant employment and good wages will be given.

CITY OF WASHINGTON. JOHN KENNEDY, Dec 20, 1800, in Square 122. THE above is notice to few Men in this city, being that two quarters of the President's Office, and belonging to the late Mr. JOHN KENNEDY, is now for sale, it is a very large lot, and fronts 125 feet on to the City, and 50 feet on to the Eastern Branch, and is situated on the corner of the street at Mr. LAW's former residence. Also good dwelling, where twenty horses can be accommodated for...

TO BE RENTED. FOR a few months, a two story brick house with a stable, together with, subjoining garden, for boarding and lodging, in the neighborhood of HENRY JONES, New-Jersey City...

Dec 3, 1800. I. K.

Kid, Eliot & Co.

HAVE received by late arrivals, a general assortment of Hardware and Tools, worth 77, which they offer for sale at their store opposite the Great Court.

They also on hand Madras, 3/4 Wines, Cognac Brandy, Jamaica Rum, &c. &c. which he has secured into Load and Brown Sugar, Tea, Coffee, &c. &c. Wagon, Dec. 26. 1800.

Notice is Given

THAT I shall attend at the Eastern Branch Ferry on Monday, the 29th inst. for the purpose of renting the Fishing Landings. If any person should want to rent it, with whom I am not acquainted, security will be required. JOHN WALLACE, of Wm. De cember 22, 1800.

Thomas Carpenter, TAYLOR,

COURTEOUSLY acknowledges the numerous Favours conferred on him, and informs his Friends and the public, that he has entered into partnership with CHARLES WARDEN, likewise from Philadelphia, on Capital Hill, opposite Mr. CARROLL'S building, as well as in Pennsylvania Avenue, between the President's House and Ladies Row, from their long and extensive experience in Millinery, Novel and Fancy dresses, and in Ladies' Habits, &c. and from their having procured the best of workmen and materials, his united taste and punctuality might be expected. 27 Two apartments wanted. Washington, Dec. 24, 1800.

20 Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Ferris Court, Virginia, a Malatto Boy named NED, about twenty years of age, of a shaggy hair, blue eyes, and a high forehead. He has a particular mark—He will endeavour to pass for a free Man—he has a mother, a black woman, here in the District of Columbia, and a sister, named Lavinia, living in the Federal City, where it is conjectured he will have been. The above reward will be paid on his being brought home, or if he is proved in any jail and information given to A. LINDO. December 22, 1800.

FORTY DOLLARS REWARD.

FOR apprehending and bringing in any Gentleman who has been taken up by the late NEDDY MAN named NEDDY, aged thirty years, in the month of October, aged thirty years, and of a shaggy hair, blue eyes, and a high forehead. He has a particular mark—He will endeavour to pass for a free Man—he has a mother, a black woman, here in the District of Columbia, and a sister, named Lavinia, living in the Federal City, where it is conjectured he will have been. The above reward will be paid on his being brought home, or if he is proved in any jail and information given to A. LINDO. December 22, 1800.

JOHN MINCHIN, BOOT MAKER FROM PHILADELPHIA,

RESPECTFULLY requests his FRIENDS to remember his BOOT and SHOE MANUFACTORY from near the Eastern Branch, to New Jersey Avenue, on the left near the Capitol, where he makes Gentlemen's Breeches, Vests, and all kinds of Shirts on the strictest model, in the most manner, and of the best materials, December 31, 1800.

TO JOURNEMEN SHOEMAKERS.

WANTED, a number of Journeymen Shoemakers, to whom constant employment and good wages will be given.

CITY OF WASHINGTON.

JOHN KENNEDY, Dec 20, 1800, in Square 122. THE above is notice to few Men in this city, being that two quarters of the President's Office, and belonging to the late Mr. JOHN KENNEDY, is now for sale, it is a very large lot, and fronts 125 feet on to the City, and 50 feet on to the Eastern Branch, and is situated on the corner of the street at Mr. LAW's former residence. Also good dwelling, where twenty horses can be accommodated for...

TO BE RENTED. FOR a few months, a two story brick house with a stable, together with, subjoining garden, for boarding and lodging, in the neighborhood of HENRY JONES, New-Jersey City...