

CAMERA FLASHES ALONG THE TRAIL OF CURRENT EVENTS

Thousands of Job Seekers Under the Profit-Sharing Plan of the Ford Company at Detroit Held at Bay by Police.

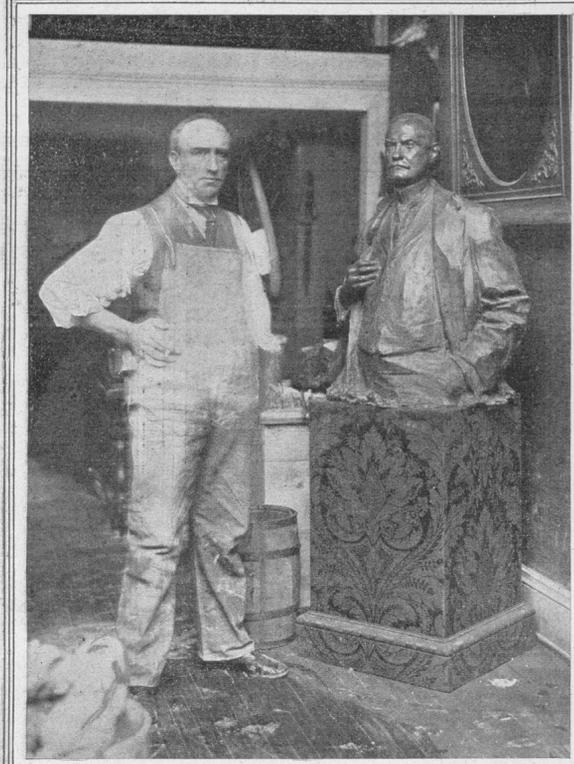

JUDGE AND JURY IN THE CASE OF EDWIN DROOD.

To Solve the Famous Dickens Mystery, England's Most Distinguished Group of Authors Put John Jesper on Trial at King's Hall, Covent Garden, for Drood's Murder, the Authors Themselves Impersonating Principals and Court Officials.

(Photos by Edwin Levick.)

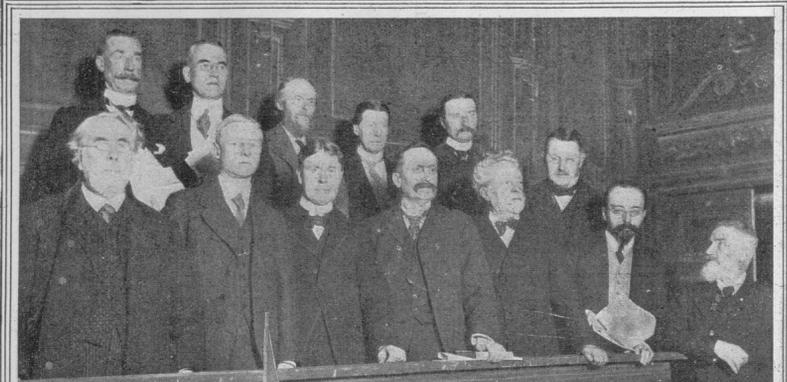

GILBERT K. CHESTERTON as the Judge.

Prince Paul Troubetzkoy and a Bust of Thomas F. Ryan He Has Just Completed. (Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

Lucy Whitfield and Ned Lee, Youthful Skaters at Tuxedo. (Photo (C) by American Press Ass'n.)

THE JURY OF AUTHORS. Front Row, Left to Right—Sir Edward Russell, W. W. Jacobs, William Pett Ridge, Arthur Morrison, Francesco Bellini, Tom Gallon, G. Bernard Shaw. Back Row—Coulson Kernahan, Ridgwell Cullum, William de Morgan, Thomas Seccombe, William Archer, Justin Huntly McCarthy.

Master Kingsley Mabon, Son of James E. Mabon, President of the New York Stock Exchange, on the Ice in Central Park.

Opening of the Ice Yachting Season on the Shrewsbury River. (Photo by A. J. Meyer.)