

MILLION DOLLARS IN DOGS AT WESTMINSTER SHOW

MISS DOONGA HOLLAND.

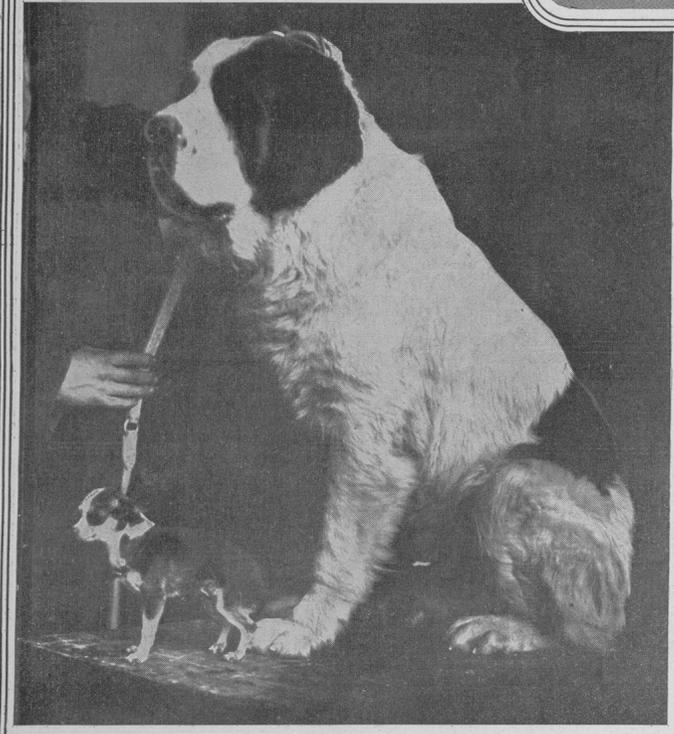

With "Kewpie" and "Ah Sin of Hydegee," Prize Winners.

"LORD BALTIMORE," English Setter, Valued at $15,000, and Said to be the Most Valuable Dog at the Show. He is Owned by Dr. Robert Lee Hammond of Frederick, Md.

MISS GENEVIEVE FARLEY and "Nifty 2nd."

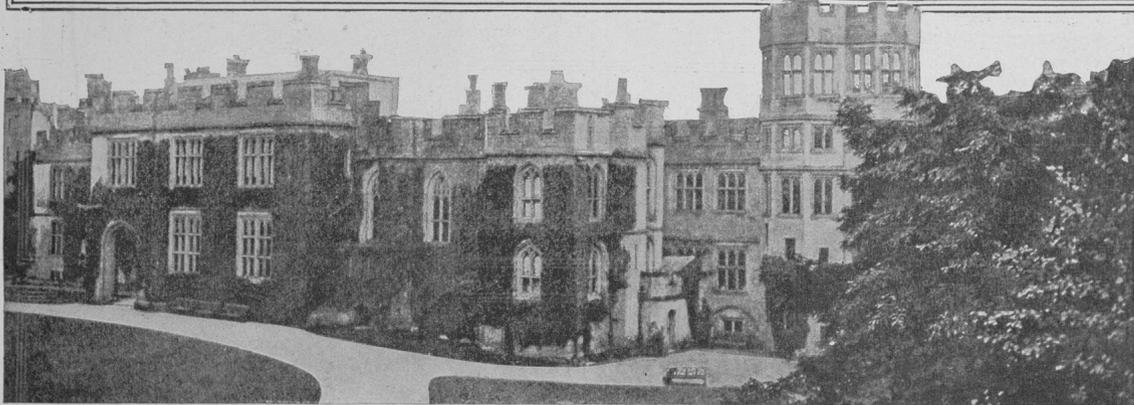

"Beautiful Lady" and "Hercuven's Night Watch" a Winning St. Bernard, the Smallest and Largest Dogs Shown. (Photos (C) by American Press Assn.)

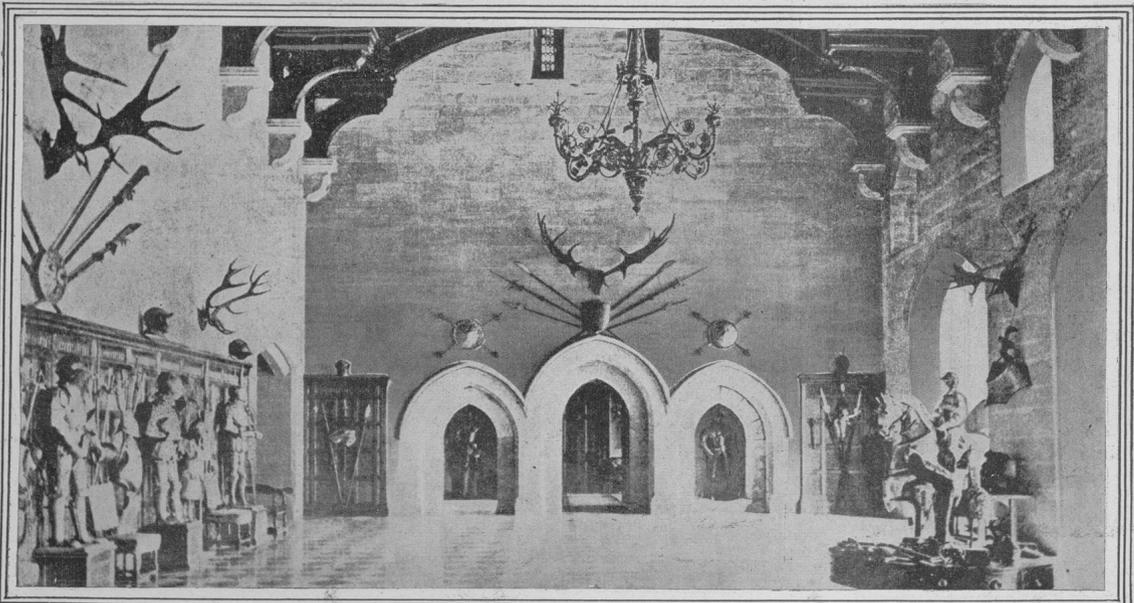

MISS MAUD KENNEDY AND "TONY." (Photos by Underwood & Underwood.)

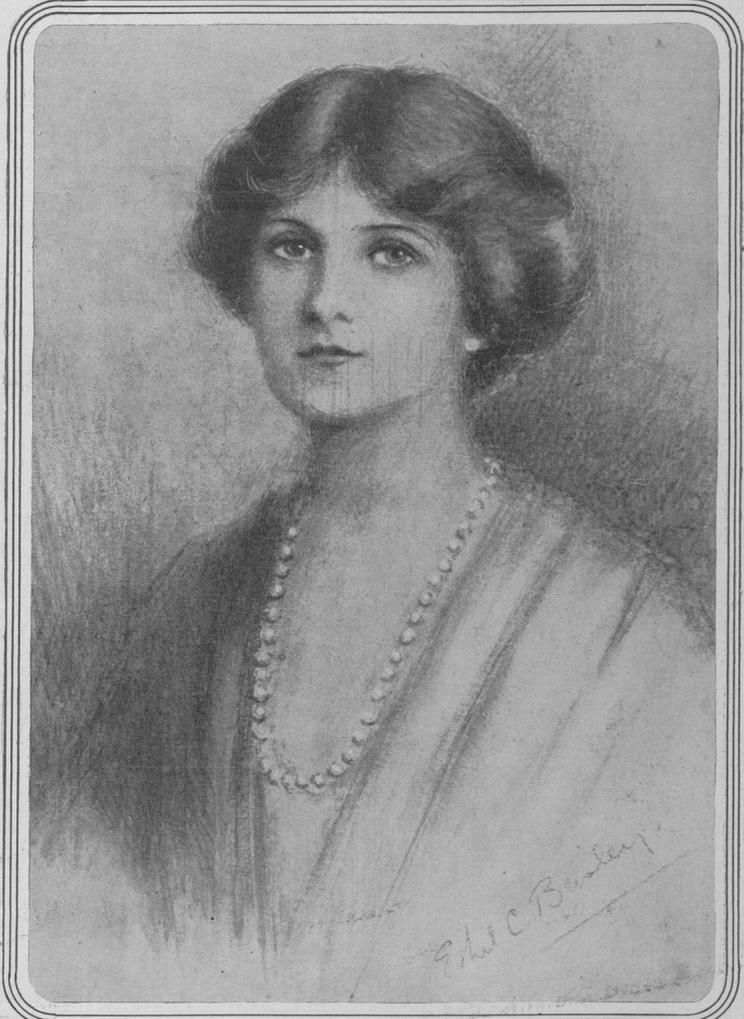

Famous Warwick Castle Surrenders to American Dollars

Warwick Castle, Home of the Earl and Countess of Warwick, One of the Most Ancient and Beautiful Estates in All England, Leased by Henry Wheelwright Marsh of New York.

GREAT HALL IN THE CASTLE. It is 62 Feet Long, 40 Broad and 35 High, and Contains Armor Worn by Cromwell and Many Other Famous English Soldiers. (Photos by International News Service.)

MRS. HENRY W. MARSH, New Mistress of Warwick Castle. (Photo (C) by International News Service.)