

BELGIAN SOLDIER IN ARMORED CAR WATCHING THE BURSTING OF A GERMAN SHELL AT THE ATTACK ON ANTWERP

BELGIAN SHARPSHOOTERS
On the Bank of the Nethe, Near Antwerp, Crouching to Fire on the Germans on the Opposite Bank
(Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

MME. CLAESSONS, WHOSE HUSBAND, D. CLAESSONS, A BELGIAN MERCHANT, AND TWO SONS WERE KILLED AT LIEGE. Mother and Daughter Fled from Liege to Holland on Foot and Trudged Back to Antwerp Only to be Driven Forth Again
(Photo, (C), 1914, by Edwin H. Weipert.)

BELGIAN GUNS IN ACTION AT BELAERE, NEAR TERMONDE. ON THE LEFT THE SMOKE OF A BURNING TOWN CAN BE SEEN.
(Photo (C) by American Press Assn.)