

REFUGEES IN FLIGHT FROM ANTWERP BEFORE THE BOMBARDMENT
JAMMING THE CITY'S WATER FRONT
ON THE SCHELDT.

ANTWERP REFUGEES CONVEYING BABIES DOWN THE STEEP DOCK
SIDE to One of the Last Boats to Leave Before the Bombardment.
(Photos (C) 1914 by New York Times Company.)

HELPING A TIMID
BUT FLEEING ANTWERP MATRON DOWN THE STEEP GANGWAY.
The Dog Is Interested, but Alone Not Worried.

NUNS AND OTHER FLEEING ANTWERP RESIDENTS
GATHERING AT THE QUAYSIDE

BRITISH DESTROYER ESCORTING AN ANTWERP REFUGEE SHIP OUT TO SEA.
(Photos by Underwood & Underwood.)