

OFFICERS AND CREW OF THE FAMOUS GERMAN SUBMARINE U-9, WHICH SANK THE BRITISH CRUISERS HOGUE, ABOUKIR, AND CRESSY

They Are Shown Wearing Their Iron Crosses Awarded Them by the German Emperor for the Achievement. Lieut. Widdigen, Commander of the U-9, Is Seated Third from the Left.

JAPANESE TROOPS MANIFESTING ENTHUSIASM AS THEY LEAVE FOR THE WAR.

Tokio Railway Station Crowded with Japanese Infantry About to Entrain for the War with Germany in China.

JAPANESE BLUEJACKETS COMING ASHORE NEAR TSING-TAU. (Photos from Paul Thompson.)

German Infantry in the Eastern Theatre of the War Shooting from the Trenches at a Russian Aeroplane.