

FRENCH ARTILLERY ASSEMBLED IN A SQUARE AT STENAY, JUST BEFORE THE TOWN WAS CAPTURED BY THE GERMANS.

(Photos by Paul Thompson.)

THE ELSWICK WORKS, WHERE THE HEAVY BRITISH FIELD AND SIEGE GUNS ARE MADE.

(Photo from George Grantham Bain.)

BRIDGE AT CZENSTOCHOWA BLOWN UP BY THE RUSSIANS DURING THEIR RETREAT THROUGH POLAND.

A British East Indian Soldier of High Caste Smoking a Native Pipe in France.

THE DEFENDERS OF TSING-TAU MOVING TO THE OUTER DEFENSES DURING THE SIEGE. (Photo (C) by International News Service.)