

MEMBERS OF THE LIFE-SAVING CREW REMOVING A BODY FROM THE WRECKAGE OF THE S. S. HANAHEI, WHICH FOUNDERED ON THE CALIFORNIA COAST WITH THE LOSS OF EIGHTEEN LIVES

GEN. FRANCISCO VILLA.

From a Photograph Taken About Nov. 15, 1914, and Considered the Best Ever Made of Him. Even the Flies on His Coat Did Not Escape the Photographic Potency of the Mexican Sun.

STEAM SHOVELS REMOVING THE LATEST SLIDE TO HALT NAVIGATION THROUGH THE PANAMA CANAL

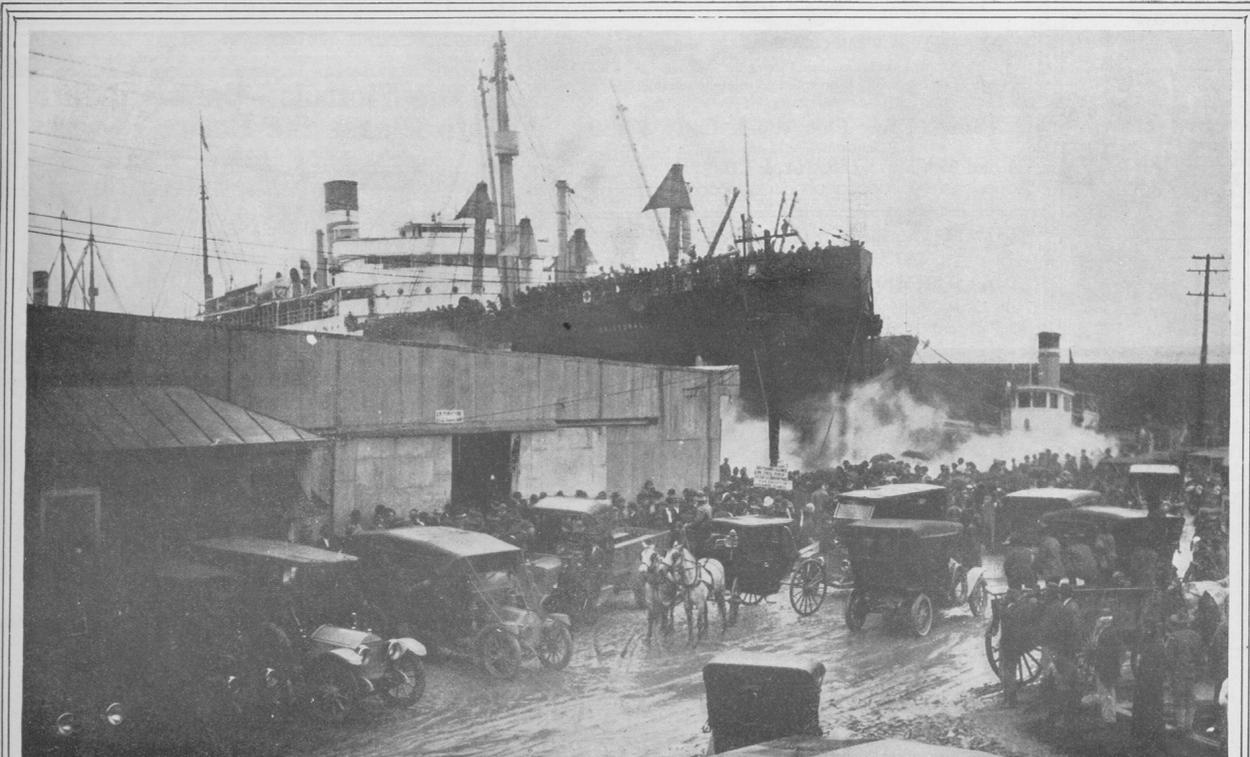

(Photo (C) by American Press Assn.)

MISS MARJORIE CURTIS

In the Striking Costume of a Member of the Russian Court, Worn at the Recent Russian Festival

(Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

TRANSPORT CRISTOBAL ARRIVING AT GALVESTON FROM VERA CRUZ WITH GEN. FUNSTON, THE FOURTH AND SEVENTH INFANTRY AND THE FOURTH FIELD ARTILLERY

(Photo (C) by International News Service.)