

GRAVES OF FRENCH AND GERMAN SOLDIERS SIDE BY SIDE IN NORTHERN FRANCE

The Inscription, Translated, Reads: "Here Rests German and French Soldiers Who Died for Their Country. Be True Unto Death."

(Photo from Paul Thompson.)

(Photo by Photolhek, Berlin.)

Captured Battleflags Now Trophies of War in the Berlin Military Museum, Including Russian Standards, On the Left, and French, On the Right.

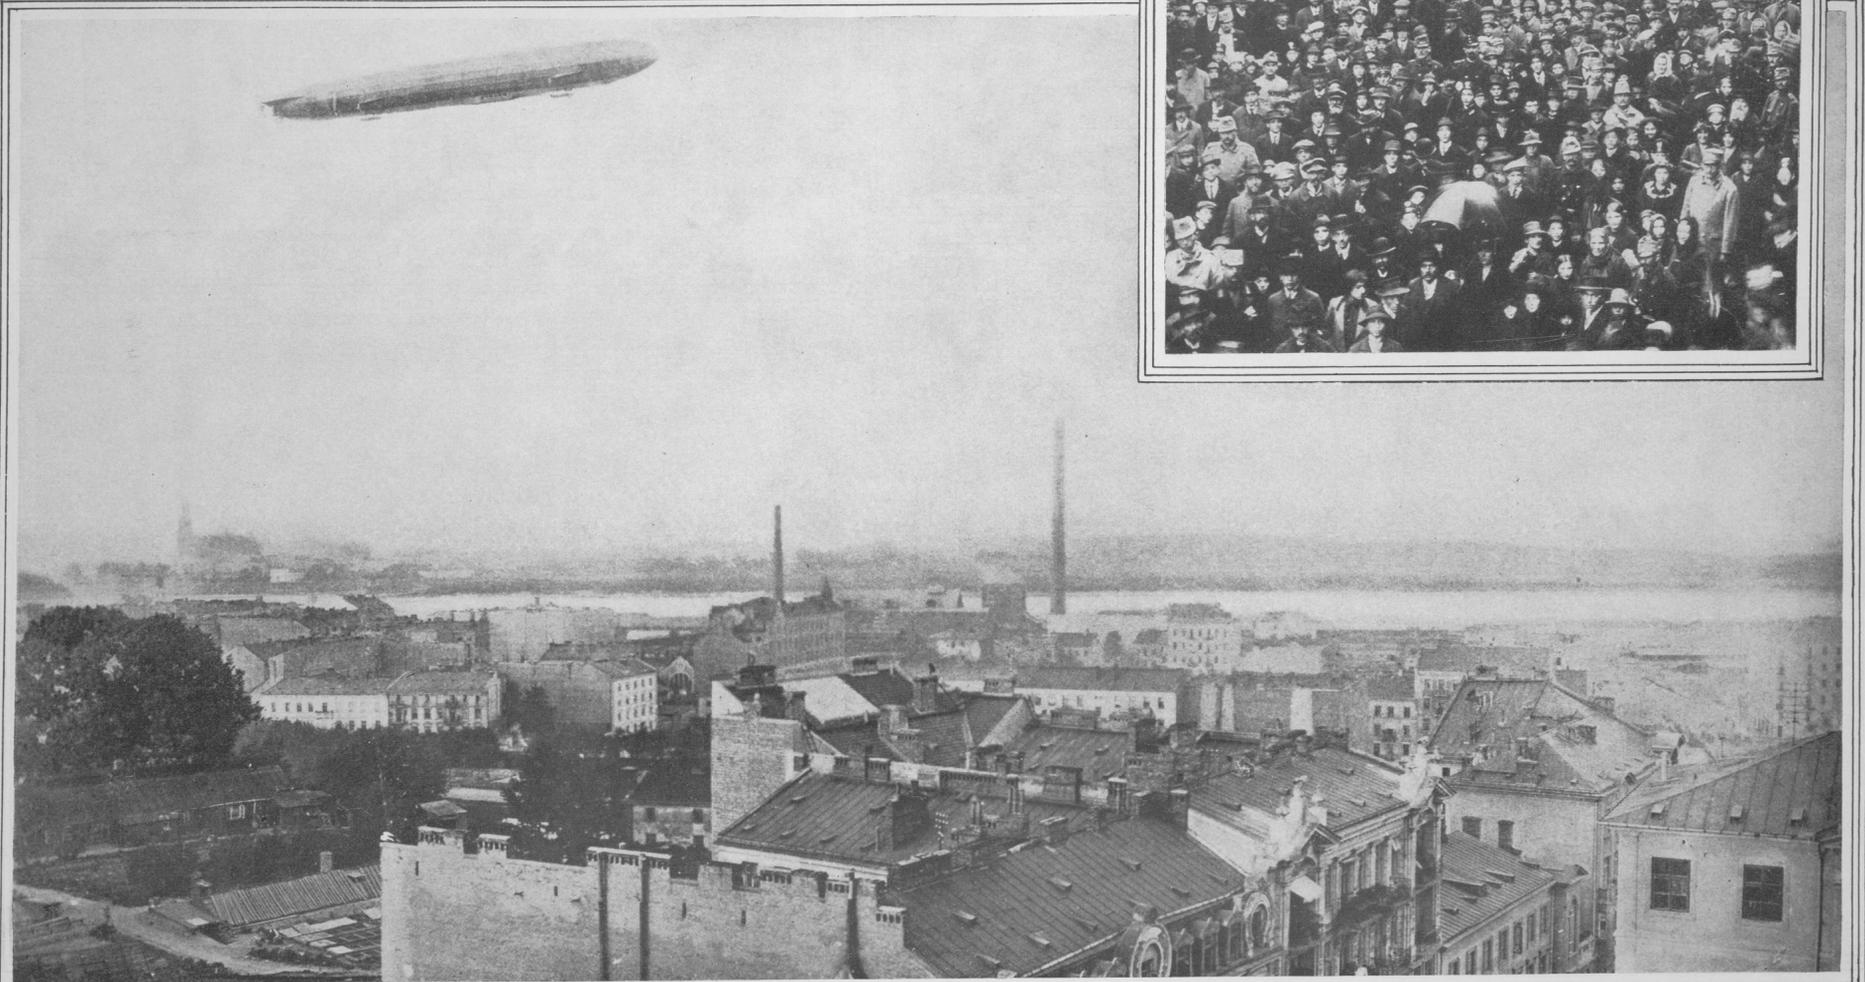

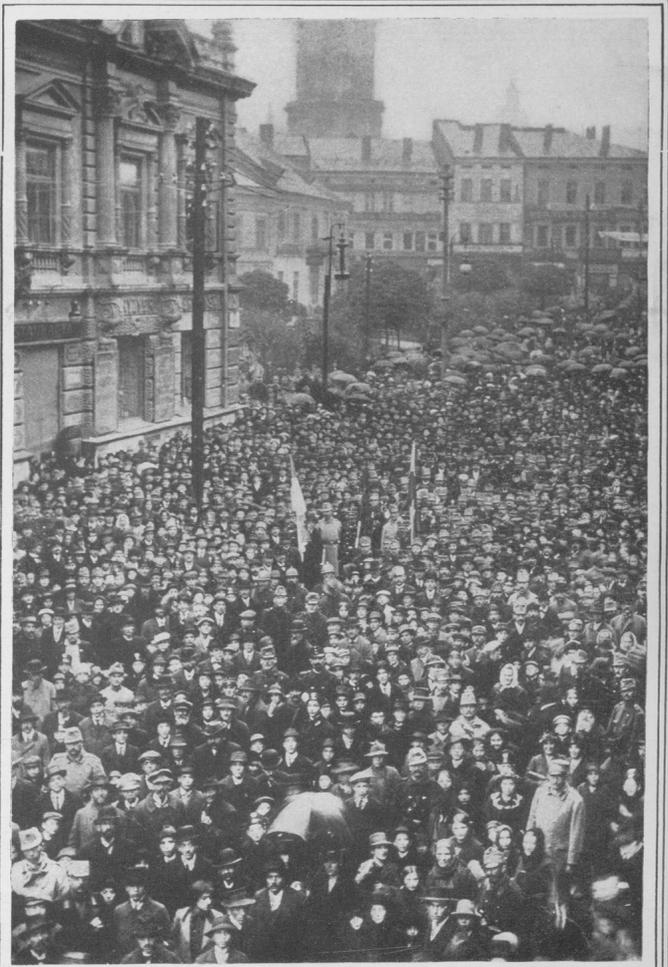

TURCO PRISONERS OF WAR IN GERMANY

(Photo (C) by American Press Assn.)

Brought From the Battleline Between Nieuport and Dixmude.

Przemysl Throngs Assembled for the Jubilee Celebration to the Commander of the Town Fortress On the Raising of the Siege.

(Photo by Paul Thompson.)

A ZEPPELIN AIRSCOUT FLYING OVER WARSAW IN ADVANCE OF THE PRESENT GERMAN CAMPAIGN (Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)