A REMARKABLE GATHERING OF INTERNATIONAL SINGERS AND MUSICIANS NOW ASSEMBLED IN NEW YORK LARGELY BECAUSE OF THE WAR IN EUROPE.

They Are, Front Row, Left to Right—Josef Hofmann, Mrs. Efrem Zimbalist (Alma Gluck), Prof. Guillaume Stengel (Mme. Sembrich's Husband), Efrem Zimbalist, Mrs. E. J. de Coppet, Pablo Casals, Mrs. Ernest Schelling, Mrs. Rudolf Ganz. Second Row—E. J. de Coppet, Mark Hambourg, Ossip Gabrilowitsch, Mrs. Grainger, Leonard Borwick, Mme. Sembrich, Harold Bauer, Mrs. Ossip Gabrilowitsch, Daughter of Mark Twain; Miss Lydia Emmet, Mrs. Pablo Casals (Miss Susan Metcalfe), Ugo Ara. Standing—Andre de Coppet, Adolfo Betti, Percy Grainger, Iwan d'Ar-Chambeau, Daniel Gregory Mason, Ernest Schelling, Alfred Pochon, Rudolf Ganz, Howard Brockway, Arthur Whiting, Miss Juliet de Coppet, and Albert Spalding. (Photo © by E. J. de Coppet.)

Courtship Scene in "On Your Way," the Columbia 'Varsity Show, Coming to the Hotel Astor.
The Trio, Left to Right, Are Griffin Bulwinkel, William Spalthoff, and J. B. Reynolds. (Photo by White.)

EVANGELIST "BILLY" SUNDAY
Telling Paterson, N. J., This "Rum-Sodden World Is Breaking the Speed Limit on Its Way to Hell."
(Photo by International News Service.)

MRS SAMUEL SCHIFFER, Formerly Miss Marion Kugelman, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kugelman.
(Photo by Underwood & Underwood.)

CLARENCE H. MACKAY AND DAUGHTERS ON FIFTH AVENUE ON EASTER SUNDAY.
(Photo © by American Press Assn.)