

Dr. Theobald von Bethmann-Hollweg, Chancellor of the German Empire, Escorting His Daughter, Formerly Miss Isa von Bethmann-Hollweg, to the Village Church at Hohenfinow, Where She Was Wedded to Count Zech-Burkersroda. Only Women and Children Greet the Bride and Her Father, the Men Being at the Front.
(Photo from Paul Thompson)

Mrs. Jerome Bonaparte and Philip La Montagne Among the Dancers at the "Black and White" Ball at Narragansett.

Misses Lucia Chase and Antoinette Bloodgood as Dancers for Charity at the "Black and White" Ball.

Miss Dorothy Norris, First Prize Winner for Girl's Costume at the Narragansett Fete.
(Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

MME. AGATHA BARSESCU, THE NOTED RUMANIAN TRAGEDIENNE, AS MEDEA IN THE OPEN AIR GREEK PLAY OF THE SAME NAME, GIVEN BY THE ART DRAMA PLAYERS ON THE CAMPUS OF NEW YORK UNIVERSITY, ACCUSING JASON OF HAVING SLAIN HER CHILDREN. In the Group, Left to Right, Are W. Percival Monger, Mme. Barsecu, Bonny Kyle and Mattie Ronbert, the slain Children: Frank Peters, Thomas Mitchell, Georgia Wilson and Alfred Shirley.

GREEK MAIDENS IN THE HYMENEAL DANCE FROM THE GREEK PLAY "MEDEA," GIVEN ON THE NEW YORK UNIVERSITY GROUNDS.