

THE MOST REV. COSMO GORDON LANG, ARCHBISHOP OF YORK, CONDUCTING A SPECIAL SERVICE FOR BRITISH SEAMEN IN THE DRYDOCK AT ROSYTH, ENGLAND.
(Official Photograph Supplied by International News Service.)

(Photo from Paul Thompson.)

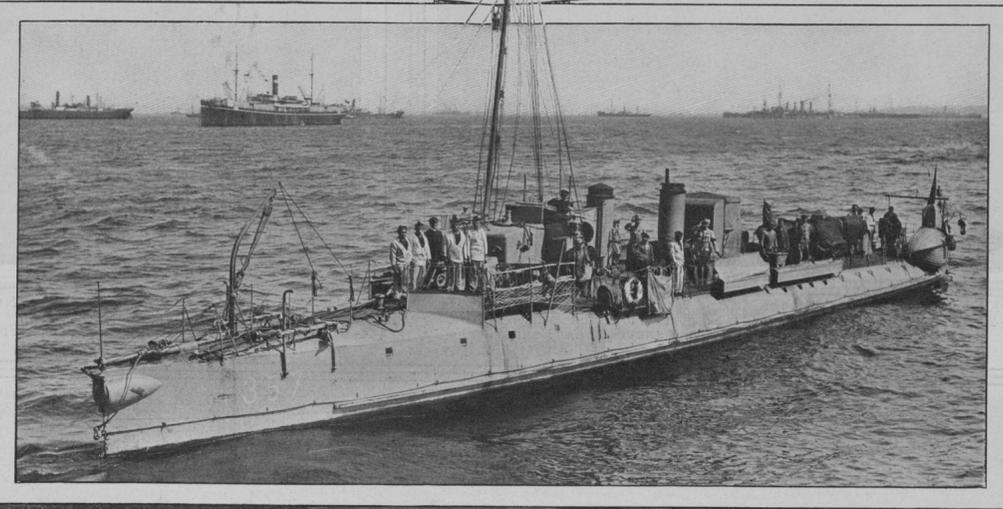

Picturesque Italian Bersaglieri, or Sharpshooters, Pause in an Advance on Austrian Soil to Cheer Their King and Country.

English Boys and Girls of Busbridge, Near Godalming, Surrey County, Centre of a Basket Making Industry, Weaving Baskets for Shells, Under the Direction of the Village Schoolmaster.
(Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)

General Gouraud, Commander of the French Forces in the Dardanelles, and General d'Amade, Leaving H. M. S. the Lord Nelson After a Conference with Admiral de Roebeck. The French Officers May Be Seen Standing at Salute While the British Band Plays the Marseillaise.
(Photo from American Press Assn.)

THE RED CROSS SURGICAL UNIT, SENT TO THE FRONT BY HARVARD UNIVERSITY, GUESTS OF MR. AND MRS. HENRY WHEELWRIGHT MARSH OF NEW YORK AT WARWICK CASTLE, LEASED BY MR. MARSH FOR THE SEASON.
(Photo © by International News Service.)