'MERRY WIDOW" OVER THE JUMPS ON THE LAST DAY OF THE MONMOUTH COUNTY HORSE SHOW, LONG BRANCH, N. J.

LITTLE AUDREY LEWISOHN DRIVING "PANSY."
(Photo by Paul Thompson.)

MISS WINIFRED HOLT, Who Has Gone to France to Organize for Men Blinded in the War Self-Help Schools Modeled After Her Own "Lighthouse" in This City.
From a new and hitherto unpublished portrait.

(Photos © by Underwood & Underwood Studios.)

Mrs. Leonard Thomas at Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont's Entertainment at the Marble House, Newport, for the Combined Benefit of the Belgian Children and the Women's Congressional Union. (Photos © by Intern'l News Service.)

Elsie Janis, the Comedienne, Home from a Long Engagement in London, Where Her Poem, "Where Are You, God?" Written on the Lusitania Disaster, Netted $2,500 for Crippled British Soldiers.

LUTHER TUCKER EXHIBITING HIS PONY "PATSY."
(Photo by American Press Assn.)