

FRENCH PRISONERS OF WAR, DISABLED FOR LIFE, ARRIVING AT THE RAILWAY STATION IN LYON AFTER HAVING BEEN RELEASED FROM GERMAN HOSPITALS.

Turkish Sniper in the Dardanelles, Who Had Screened Himself by a Jack-in-the-Green Arrangement of Foliage, Marching Into Camp Between His Captors.

(Photo © by American Press Assn.)

FRENCH OFFICERS QUESTIONING A VERY YOUTHFUL GERMAN PRISONER.

HER IMPERIAL HIGHNESS, GRAND DUCHESS MARIA PAVLOVNA, Cousin of the Russian Czar, Who Has Become a Red Cross Nurse with the Russian Armies.

(Photos © by Underwood & Underwood.)

FROM THIS ALTAR OF AMMUNITION BOXES AND EVERGREENS PRIESTS CONDUCT DAILY MASS IN THE TRENCHES BEHIND THE FRENCH LINES.

(Photos from International News Service.)